What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

WOMAN ON JURY IS STRONG DRAMA.

A honeymoon spent serving on a jury in a murder trial—That is one of the many unusual situations to be found in "The Woman on the Jury," a First National production showing for the last time at the Capitol theatre to-day. And the romance of the bride and bridegroom was nearly wrecked by the experience. Just as they are about to start off on their wedding trip they are served with subpoenas to appear and serve on the jury which is to try a young girl for murdering her betrayer. Not until after she had been sworn in did the young bride learn the name of the slain man, and she nearly swooned at the news, for she had been responsible for a dark secret in her own life. Then follows a startling denouement which for powerful intensity has never been equalled on the screen. The cast includes such favorites as Henry B. Walthall, Lew Cody, Beesie Love, Mary Carr, Hobart Bosworth, Myrtle Steadman, Roy Stewart, Ford Sterling and Stanton Heck. Wednesday and Thursday the feature attraction will be "Unguarded Women" featuring Bebe Daniels and Richard Dix.

INJURED DRIVING; IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Seventeen-Year-Old Lyell Cameron Victim of an Accident.

According to a telegram received last night by his grandfather, J. W. Bradshaw, county clerk and police magistrate, Lyell, the 17-year-old son of Lawrence A. Cameron, Titchborne station agent, is in a critical condition as the result of injuries received Sunday morning while diving at the Tuxis Boys' camp on an island in the Georgian Bay, near Midland.

The young man struck the bottom with his head and shoulders and was unconscious for some time, later coming to and being able to speak and move his limbs. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron went to Midland on hearing of the accident and have asked a specialist to come from Toronto to treat their son. Lyell is a third year honor student at Smith's Falls Collegiate.

Must Pay Penalty

London, July 29.—A last effort to save Abraham Goldenberg from the gallows for the murder of William Edward Hall, manager of the Borden Camp branch of Lloyd's bank, has failed, the petition for reprieve having been refused.

Goldenberg was convicted and sentenced to death for the crime generally known as the Borden Camp murder, and an appeal entered in his behalf was dismissed by Chief Justice Howart two weeks ago. A plea of insanity had been advanced on behalf of the condemned man but the chief justice held that Goldenberg was sane and responsible for the murder.

SPORT

We Ask the Fans

The sports editor of the Whig has a question to ask the baseball fans of Kingston.

The local Central Ontario League team, with every appearance of fight and ability, won the first half of the schedule this season. In the second half some mysterious thing has happened and the local team has not been winning games. It is running a very poor lot in the race in the second section.

However, with the best interests of the game at heart, and in order to give every person concerned a fair-show, this paper has been making an effort to support the team and encourage it towards better things. Game after game has gone by and the win column still remains pretty bare while the bright half dollars of the Kingston fans pour into the coffers of the club. We do not blame the players and we hesitate to blame the nominal manager. But it looks funny.

From the very first of the season there have been announcements now and then of new players, concerning players, schedules, averages, etc. In most cases the Standard was supplied with this news from some mysterious source and the Whig excluded entirely. Time and again protests were made and the executive of the club expressed great sorrow and promised that it would never occur again, at the same time denying any knowledge of the Standard's source of information. Now comes the announcement of Knotty Lee's engagement as coach for the team and once again the Whig is left entirely out in the cold.

The business manager of the club is at the Standard, the official scorer is at the Standard, one of the prominent players has a certain connection with the Standard. As a matter of fact, it looks as if the Standard runs this baseball team.

It is supposed to be Kingston's baseball team and we want to ask the fans of this city:

Do you think the Whig is getting a square deal, and if you do, do you think that you are getting a square deal yourselves?

Our answer to both those questions is "NO!"

HON. SENATOR BELCOURT.

Is Mentioned For Canadian Minister At Washington.

Ottawa, July 29.—An appointment to the position of Canadian Minister to Washington, which has been talked of for the last four or five years, may be made this fall.

Gossip in political circles here mentions Hon. Senator Belcourt in connection with this post. It is said that the function he is now performing is designed as a preliminary to his going to Washington, very possibly retaining his senatorship.

For several years Parliament has made an appropriation of $60,000 for the proposed establishment, but no one has yet been found to fill it. Several were mentioned, the most prominent being Sir Lomer Gouin, who at one time is said to have considered it.

It is thought possible that, if Senator Belcourt should go to Washington, he might be taken into the Cabinet without portfolio and thus go as a full-fledged Minister.

Women Buy Larger Gloves—Hands Are Getting Larger

London, July 29.—Women's hands have been gradually getting larger for a number of years, but the growth has been most marked since the war. This is the opinion of the head of a big glove manufacturing firm, who lays it to the increased athletic activity of women.

"A few years ago," he explains, "there was a fair demand for 5 1-2 gloves for women and the average was 6 1-4 and 6 1-2. To-day there is practically no demand for the smaller size, the average is 6 1-2 to 6 3-4, and these are also being out wider."

Wrote Mayor Angrove.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning, and only routine work was on the orders of the day throughout the City Hall.

Mayor Angrove had a letter in French from a lady in France, who is trying to obtain the official mortuary documents concerning the death of her husband last autumn. The case will likely be handed over to the D.S.C.R.

Murdock Farm Idle.

A citizen writes to the Whig complaining of the city property on Division street, known as the Murdock Farm, being idle and not producing revenue. He claims that the buildings have gone to rack and ruin and that a city investment of $9,000 is tied up there without returns. The citizen in question says he doubts if there is a return of two per cent on the investment.

Whig "Ad" Found It.

A Kingston lady was so unfortunate recently as to lose a valuable filigree brooch. She valued it highly and was much distressed. Once again it was the old, old story. The lady was wise enough to advertise in the Whig's classified columns and today walked into the office and expressed her thanks for the safe return of the missing article.

Asks For Injunction.

INCREASED PRICES TO BENEFIT DOMINION

States That the Wheat Advances in Price Will Be a Decided Gain.

Winnipeg, July 29.—"As most of our wheat is for export, the increase in the price is bound to benefit the Dominion, as a whole, enormously," $1.50 wheat means, not only prosperity for the farmer, but for the whole country," declared J. J. Robinson, member of the board of grain commissioners, who is en route to Regina to get information on the crop situation.

"I know full well that, before long, we shall hear the usual cry that increased wheat prices is putting up cost of the breakfast tables of the world. Wheat at $1.50 will, perhaps, make an increase in the weekly bread bill of an average Canadian family of only sixty cents," Mr. Robinson said.

Speaking of crop conditions, Mr. Robinson said: "No man living can forecast a crop which will not be harvested for another month. Any estimate now is a matter of guesswork, pure and simple."
