SPARKS' CIRCUS HERE AT THE FAIR GROUNDS
Street Parade Was Witnessed by Large Crowd, While the Big Show is Wonderful.
Tons of elephants—a battalion of clowns—hordes of horses, riders, performers from every clime—polar bears—lions, tigers and other ingredients that go to make up a real circus—train loads of them—came to town Thursday morning for two performances of the Sparks Circus at the fair grounds. It is needless to say that many rusty alarm clocks came to life at daybreak for younger Kingston is having his cup of joy filled to overflowing today. The street parade eclipsed any seen here in recent years—all cages, tableaux wagons and trappings being resplendent in gold and silver trimmings, while the horses were in fine fettle and by far the prettiest ever seen on the streets of our city. First in line was a monster gold bedecked wagon, followed by a section of men and women on gaily caparisoned thoroughbreds, after which came many cages and dens containing wild and ferocious beasts and all in the pink of condition. Of course there were other bands and calliope gangs—in fact all of the features that go to make up this big Class A Circus.

The performance this afternoon opened with an oriental spectacle emanating from the King Tut period and is called "An Egyptian Fantasy." In this spectacle several hundred human and animal participants occupy the three rings, stages and hippodrome track. A real soprano, Bessie Harvey, billed as the original "Prima-Donna of the White-tops" lives up to her title in a more than charming manner and the costuming is by far the most gorgeous ever seen here under a circus tent—in fact it is a big feature in itself. The spectacle is rapidly followed by a thrilling programme of skillfully executed circus acts unequalled in merit. First comes the wild animal offerings and they include Franz Woake's bengal tigers, Steve Batty's "Farzan of the Apes" fighting lions, Madam Dorothy's leopards and a large group of polar bears with dogs intermingling fearlessly with the bears, all of which wild animal displays being given in a large protected steel arena; there are scores of educated ponies, dogs, pigs, seals, monkeys and even llamas—not overlooking two groups of monster elephants with lady trainers.

The purely circus features included dainty Naida Miller "the class and speed of the high-wire," the Flying Walters in aerial bar exploits, the Koban troupe of Japanese marvels, the Adele Nelson troupe of gymnasts and the Mardo Trio of exceptional acrobats and the Baierina troupe of Spanish dancing and bareback riders. Never has there been such wonderful horse displays. Without a word of command from their trainer, Prof. Klosek, sixteen German thoroughbreds execute a series of drills and formations that are little short of marvellous and the same can be said of the other six horse liberty groups.

A round dozen fancy gaited animals held forth on the hippodrome track, the featured ones being Lady Fashion in an interpretation of the Argentine Tango and Baron De Bell, ridden by Florence Harris, world famed equestrienne star. In lieu of the perennial chariot races, a large number of clever high and broad jumpers are introduced in the English fox-hunt which closed a splendid two hours programme. Miss Harris caused many gasps of wonderment in this display with her English bred broad jumper, King George in a sensational thirty-foot jump. Clowns are an absolute essential to any circus and Sparks surely has them in quality and quantity, their timely satires being button-busters of the laughingest kind. Headed by the king laugh-maker Paul Wensell, America's most widely copied clown, a young army of droll funmakers are on hand at all times during the performances. Another feature will be given tonight at 7, during which period a jazzy and classical programme will be rendered by the Jack Phillips Circus Band, augmented by Prof. J. M. Del Vecchio, world's master pneumatic callioplast.

Ladies "Cool Off" Men Swelter In Heat
Wednesday afternoon is "Ladies Day" at the Y.M.C.A. and several perspiring men who applied to "cool off" in the swimming pool had to be turned away. There are now sixty lady members of the "Y." Arrangements are also made for the younger girls to use the "gym" each week.
The carpenter is putting the last finishing touches on the three dormitory rooms, which will be opened next week. These are primarily for members of the Y.M.C.A. but outsiders may use them at a slightly higher rate, which includes "Y" privileges for the time being. It is planned to open more rooms later on.
As the boy's division had to go without its camp down the river this summer, "hikes" into the country are being arranged. The first will be held Saturday to Barrefield, in charge of S. T. Lilley. Lunch will be taken along as well as an outfit for a ball game.

Not to be lost in idle admiration is the only sure means of happiness.

BELLEVILLE MASONS PRESENTED A GAVEL
To Moira Lodge at Gathering in Old London Attended by Col. W. N. Ponton.
Belleville, Intelligence.
A Masonic gathering in Moira Lodge Old London on Thursday, July 17th, was of very special interest to the members of Moira Lodge, Belleville. W. M. Bro. Col. W. N. Ponton, Past Grand Master, was commissioned by Moira Lodge Belleville, when he left for England in June, to carry greetings of the local lodge to Old Moira. Bro. Ponton took with him a beautiful gavel for presentation to the London Lodge on behalf of the Belleville brethren.
This gavel was made from a piece of iron wood procured from the old farm in Rawdon township on which V. W. Bro. George A. Kingston, first Ruling Master of Bay of Quinte Lodge, Toronto, was born. (This by kind permission of Alex. McInroy, the present owner of the farm). Bro. Kingston at the request of the local Moira Lodge, had it turned and carried in Toronto and beautifully silver mounted by Ellis Bros. with the following inscription:
"Moira Lodge No. 11, Belleville, greets Mother Moira, London, England, 1924."
Within the hollow handle of the gavel is fitted a parchment scroll on which was to be inscribed the historical setting of the presentation.
Among those present along with Bro. Ponton were: R. W. Bro. W. S. Herrington and Bro. F. B. Wallace of Napanee; W. Bro. John D. Spence of Toronto and Bro. Harold C. Kingston, who is now residing in London, England.
Bro. Kingston, in writing of the

SONNET
Tired with all these, for restless death I cry,
As to behold desert a beggar born,
And needy nothing trim'd in palls,
And purest faith unhappily sow'd,
And gilded honor shamefully misplaced,
And maiden virtue rudely strumpeted,
And right perfection wrongfully disgrac'd,
And strength by limping sway disabled,
And art made tongue-tied by authority,
And folly doctor-like controlling skill,
And simple truth miscall'd simplicity,
And captive Good attending Captain Ill—
I fired with all these, from these would I be gone,
Save that, to die, I leave my Love alone.
—William Shakespeare

FIRE AT WOLFE ISLAND.
Cheese Factory at the Foot Was Burned To the Ground.
Wolfe Island, July 30.—The cheese factory, situated at the extreme foot of the island, was burned to the ground on Saturday last. The cheese had been shipped—a couple of days before, leaving only twenty-six, which were destroyed. It is stated that the fire originated from ashes cleaned from the boiler. The building and cheese, was covered by insurance.
The farmers in that district will send their milk to St. Lawrence, operated by Arthur Henderson. The recent rains have made a wonderful change in the appearance of crops on the island.
Dr. Fergie Doyle and son, Tweed, is spending a few days on the island. Miss Rose Scott, Ottawa, is holidaying at Mr. Conroy's summer resort, Reid's Bay. Mrs. Brooks, Toronto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Staley. Dr. Edward Kingsley, Boston, was a recent visitor at the home of his brother, Miss Irene Kingan and Mrs. Maggie Mackie, Watertown, N.Y., are visiting with relatives. Miss Thelma and Master Albert Gow, Kingston, spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Samuel Conroy. Mrs. Atkinson of Montreal, is at Mrs. Samuel Conroy's.
Mrs. John Kingsley and Mrs. Daniel McLaren returned home yesterday from Perth, after a two weeks visit. They were accompanied by their sister, Mrs. Catherine Gray. Mrs. Mack Kenny, Watertown, N.Y., is spending a few days here.
New opinions are always suspected, and usually opposed, without any other reason but because they are not already common.
