MAXSON FURNAL JUDELL

Hits From the Barnyard. By George S. Chappell. The Rooster is a Sultan gay Who roams abroad the live-long day...

From Our Book of Knowledge. "Do you know the difference between a presiding officer and a vaudeville dancer?"

Touching. First Pickpocket: "Keep an eye on that guy—he's got a roll."

Why The Ideal? "So you were in the water for two hours? Why didn't you swim ashore?"

The Comedy Next Door. There is a great deal of comedy Goes on next door.... Supplied by the sheiks

There is no doubt the girl next door is a knock-out. She smiles and plays a lively game

He: "Dick's a regular card." She: "Oh, yes. Quite a joker."

Information. "What is it, mam?" asked the theatre doorman of the kindly old lady who had been eyeing him for several moments.

A Stock Joke. Salesman: "Can I interest you in some stock in the Keep Kool Ice Company?"

Our Own LOST AND FOUND Department. Rudolph Wick—Can anybody tell me who said,

Dear Rudy: Ask us an easy one. King Solomon is the unhappy author. One day, while celebrating 41 wooden, 23 tin, 11 crystal, and 9 silver wedding anniversaries—all his own—he composed the following quatrain—

Mabel Mayfair—Can you supply me with the text of the following—

Dear Mabel: Why not? John Serleaf Whittier wrote the line. It occurs in a poem about a rakish maid called "Maude Miller" and it goes like this—

A girl must use whatever tricks she can— The proper study of mankind is man!

Readers, if they address Lost and Found Department, Fun Shop, will have requests for the humorous treatment of verse given prompt attention—if the subject is of general interest.

Auto-Suggestion. Friendly Motorist: "Little motor trouble?" Other: "No, only giving the parts an airing."

The Losers in Judgment. "Miriam tells me that she's marrying a man that will save a nickel out of every dime he makes." "Yes, I know him. And her, too. She'll save the other nickel."

Station. Ruggles: "Have you ever done any public speaking?" Tuggles: "Only once. I called a girl up on a rural telephone and asked her to go to a dance with me."

Zas So? Myers: "You know it is said that no house is large enough for two families."

A "Gadabout." Harper: "Let me sell you a run-about." Perkins: "None—got one."

One Of the 10,000,000. Blessings on thee, little can, Body black and wheels of tan, With thy fenders all askew, Caused by bumping a truck or two, When driving you I get naught but joy, You're such an inexpensive toy.

Model Husband. Hanna: "Am yo' husban' a good provider?" Mandy: "Deed he am. Dat man sure do provide mo' washin' fo' me den I kin handle."

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor: epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires, and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpublished.

DOINGS AT ATHENS. Rev. Mr. Leggett Is Engaged In Rescue Mission Work. Athens, July 31.—On Sabbath morning last, Rev. Mr. Leggett, a native Canadian, now engaged in rescue mission work in Springfield, Mass., occupied the Methodist pulpit preaching a powerful sermon on John 3:16.

GANANOQUE

(From Our Own Correspondent) July 31.—One of the prettiest weddings ever seen in St. John's church was that solemnized this morning when Helen Marcella, only daughter of William J. Phillips, became the bride of Edward Duval, New York. The bride was in a lovely gown of pastel shades georgette with lace over-dress. Her hat, a beautiful creation had long streamers effectively trimmed with ostrich feathers in shades to match her gown.

The bride travelled in a pretty little French gown of white silk crepe, a felt cloche and a fur-trimmed rose wrap. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brady, New York, Misses Sadie and Ann O'Connell, Orange, N.J., Rev. Father Reddy, New York, Miss Dora Cook, Kingston, Miss Mayne Monette, Miss Helen Kavanagh, New York, Misses Graton, Ottawa, Miss Claire Mitchell, Montreal, Mrs. C. S. Lee, Harry Donald, Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burns, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. J. McDiarmid, Toronto.

Wednesday an 18-hole medal play competition took place for the club championship. About forty members contested two medals presented by the president, a silver medal for the best gross score and a bronze medal for the best net score.

The Mullin Cup match for men over forty years of age will take place within the next few days. This match was scheduled for Wednesday the 6th of August, but as the Gananogue Club is sending a team to play a team of the Catarauq Club on the latter's links, the match for the Mullin Cup had to be postponed for a few days.

George M. Bryce, Toronto, a former resident of this town, renewed acquaintance among friends here yesterday. W. E. Brough, Brockville, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. McDougall, Brockville, sister of Mrs. J. Hubbard, of this town, passed away very suddenly on Monday last. The Christ church Boy Scouts broke up camp on Monday last after a most enjoyable outing. Last Sunday about seventy-five people were present at the service which was conducted by the Rev. Louis Barber.

Miss E. Lee returned Tuesday from Hamilton, where she has been visiting friends. She was accompanied by her sister, who will go on to the coast. Mrs. Herbert Cole, who was taken to the General Hospital, Kingston, last Friday for an operation for appendicitis, is progressing very favorably.

Mrs. Robert Ferris has returned after a two months' visit with friends in England. Last Sunday Mr. Taber, license inspector and his squad captured thirty-five cases of beer down the river. The beer was brought here and the accused taken to Brockville.
