JOLLY PICNIC HELD AT BROPHY'S POINT

Employees of the W. J. Crothers Company Had an Outing.

The annual picnic of the employees of the W. J. Crothers Company, held at Brophy's Point on Wednesday afternoon, was the most successful of the four outings which they have held. The steamer Waubic, leaving at 2.15, carried a happy crowd of over 150 people, accompanied by Art Christmas' Harmony Orchestra, to the Point, where first a programme of races and baseball was run off. At 5.30 supper was enjoyed and dancing commenced at six o'clock in the pavilion under the able leadership of Christmas' Orchestra. The light fantastic was enjoyed till 9.30 p.m. when the picnickers left for the boat for home after a very splendid afternoon. The many fine-looking babies on the grounds was commented on by many and the committee intends to hold a baby show when the picnic comes round next year.

The committee responsible for the excellent outing provided included Messrs. W. Marshall, F. Harper, B. J. Gilbert, T. Flint, B. Turner and W. Spence. The special prizes for sports were donated by W. J. Crothers.

The baseball game was won by 22 to 19. The battery for the bakeshop was McCartney and Desrosiers, and for the candy room Spence and Billings.

The results of the races were as follows:

100 yards, single men, special prize—Harry Kelly.
100 yards, married men, special prize—Ed. Watts.
100 yards, single ladies, special prize—Miss May Powell.
100 yards, married ladies, special prize—Mrs. W. O'Reilly.
Men's donkey race, 50 yards—Wm. Desrosiers and E. Watts, Walter Spence and W. O'Reilly.
Mollusks bun eating contest—Wm. Desrosiers.
Boys under 15 years, 50 yards—L. Muchmore, W. Martin.
Girls under 15 years, 50 yards—Alice Kelly, Alice Medley.
Soda biscuit eating contest—Wm. Desrosiers.
Married and single men's race, open, special prize—L. Muchmore.
Find the lost sheep for children—Alice Medley.

Frances Ruppert, holding three national championships in the 30, 40 and 100-yard dash events for women, Frances Ruppert of Philadelphia is one of the nation's outstanding girl athletes. And even more remarkable than her titles is the fact that she has run the 40-yard dash within one second of the championship time established by Loren Murchison, the Newark flash, who starred in the Olympics.

OBITUARY

Late Miss Mary Sloan.
The sad death occurred very suddenly on Sunday evening of Mary Elizabeth (Minnie) Sloan at her residence, 22 Dufferin street. She had been for a number of years, a most faithful employee of the Dominion Textile Company and was beloved by all she came in contact with both young and old. Her cheery disposition always brightened those who were sick or in trouble. Living alone with her mother whom she ministered to and gladdened her life at every opportunity, she surely fulfilled one of life's most beautiful tasks. For many years she was an active member and worker of Calvary church, and as at work, won the love and respect of all.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Cataragui cemetery. Rev. Frank Saunders officiated.

Deceased is survived by her mother, two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Kingston, Albany, N.Y.; Mrs. James Keates, of this city, and three brothers, Harry, of Montreal, Robert and Albert of Kingston.

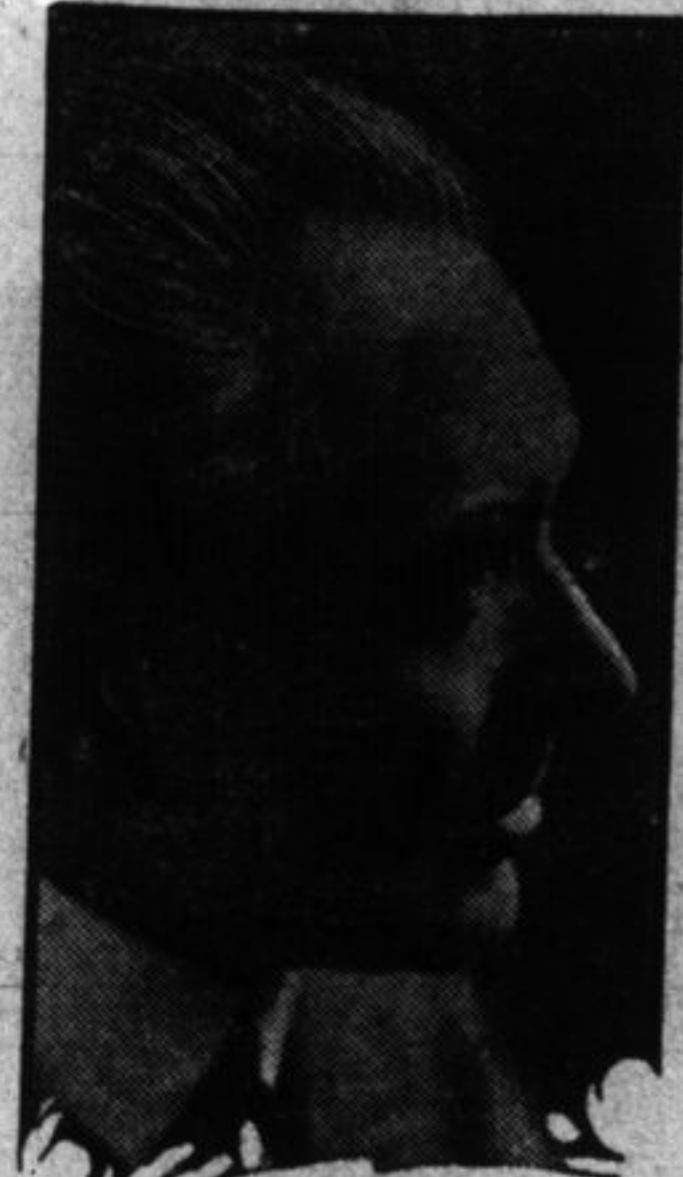

The pallbearers were James Keates, Fred Paynter, John McClement, George Williamson, Bert and James Revell.

Late William McMahon.
The funeral of the late William McMahon was held Thursday morning from the parlors of the James Reid firm to Cataragui cemetery. It was conducted by the Salvation Army, to which the deceased had belonged for many years.

Late Mary Jane Behan.
The funeral of the late Mary Jane Behan took place to St. Mary's Cathedral Thursday morning in charge of the James Reid firm. The pallbearers were N. E. Connor, Thomas Nicholson, T. Doolan, Dr. Daly, O. Cheddik and James Keating. The mass was sung by Rev. Father Hyland and interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Late Teresa Stanford.
The funeral of the late Teresa Stanford took place on Wednesday morning to St. Mary's cathedral. The pallbearers were A. Seaton, E. Goby, G. Seaton, B. Menard, A. Stanford, C. Stanford. Rev. Father George Martin sang the mass. Arrangements were in charge of the James Reid firm.

IRISH ENVOY ?

Prof. Timothy A. Smiddy of Cork is practically certain to be the Irish Free State's first minister to the United States. His appointment is expected to be confirmed within a few days. The professor has been the Free State's agent in Washington for some time.
