CLOSING OF THE CAMP FOR THE SEA CADETS

Lieut.-Col. F. C. Hodgins, D. S. O., General Staff Officer, Inspected Corps.

Lt.-Col. F. O. Hodgins, D.S.O. General Staff Officer, Militia Headquarters, M.D. 3, inspected the Sea Cadet Corps at Brown's Bay on Friday, August 1st.

Col. Hodgins, who was accompanied by Col. J. N. S. Leslie, Mrs. Leslie and Mrs. Charles Constantine, crossed to Brown's Bay in a motor launch which was brought to anchor off the bay and the party came ashore in a ten-oared cutter manned by the Sea Cadets.

The inspecting officer was received with a general salute, and the cadets marched past to the martial strains of Pipe Major Fraser's pipes, after which he minutely inspected the Cadets, the tents and equipment. In addressing the boys he expressed himself as greatly pleased with their smart appearance, and with the precision with which they did their drill. He was specially pleased with the tidiness of the camp, and the very perfect manner in which the blankets and equipment were arranged. A prize was given for the best tent, and Col. Hodgins had great difficulty in picking the winners. Petty Officer Jack Day's tent, however, got the prize.

The inspection over, a bathing parade was held and an exhibition of swimming and diving, life saving and resuscitating an apparently drowned cadet, given.

Col. Leslie, in addressing the boys, complimented them upon their turnout and upon their good behaviour during the camp. He called for cheers for Mr. Brophy, of Brophy's Point, who made no charge for the use of the grounds, for Instructor Arthur Raven, who had given up his holidays to voluntarily take charge of the camp, for Mr. Whalley, of the Bank of Montreal, who had made a most efficient transport officer, for Mr. and Mrs. Pearn, who did all the cooking, also voluntarily, for Major Larter, of the R.C.A.S.C., and Capt. Trudeau, who had visited the camp and donated prizes for competition, for Pipe Major Fraser for his kindness in coming over to play for the boys, and for Capt. Macdonald, Camp Commandant.

After being served with tea, the inspecting officer and his party were rowed out by the boys to their launch and returned to the city.

In the evening, through the kindness of Lt.-Col. H. E. Penne, D.S.O., the boys were entertained at Brophy's Point, to which they marched with the pipes and drums. The evening of a perfect day was brought to a close by a camp bonfire.

The camp broke up on Saturday afternoon, when Capt. Macdonald towed the boats containing the boys and equipment to their headquarters at Barrieffield huts.

The camp was altogether a success and there was no sickness nor accidents during the week.

MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR KINGSTON FAIR

Enquiries for Space Are Pouring in From Far and Near.

A regular post office, such as the Canadian National Exhibition operators will be a convenient feature of this year's fair in Kingston.

Two interesting moving picture displays are promised in the decisions of the Post Office Department and the Tuberculosis Association to exhibit their activities. Mr. Bushell is also trying to have the Ontario Department of Agriculture put on a similar exhibit, which should be of great interest to the farmers.

Many congratulatory letters are coming in regarding the excellent make-up of the fair prize list. Possibly the most pleasing was that received by Mr. Bushell from the Hon. H. C. Cody, ex-Minister of Education, who commented very highly on the verse and prose pages contained in the booklet. He considered them to be of a very high standard.

The Kingston Industrial Exhibition directors held a meeting on Friday afternoon when plans were being made for the big event next month. Enquiries for space are pouring in from far and near, by mail, telephone and telegraph. A Buffalo establishment is the latest applicant.

LETTERS To The Editor

Under Different Conditions.

Inverary, Aug. 4.—(To the Editor): The front page article in Friday's Whig, seeking to prove that drunkenness in Ontario is worse than in government controlled Quebec, is misleading and is just such propaganda as the enemies of the O.T.A. would just now broadcast.

The facts are that in Ontario any suspicion of drunkenness are apprehended, while in Quebec the arrests are only made if there is violence or disorder. The government is in for money and is very lenient with its own customers. Dr. E. J. Hart and others have brought this out beyond dispute in the press recently.

I have just come from a residence in Quebec province, and in a meeting of citizens comprising three countries where government control in part had taken the place of the Scott Act, it was declared, without exception, that the present condition was a thousandfold worse than under even the imperfectly enforced Scott Act.

Quebec is trying to provoke the hostility of the prohibitionists in the United States by bootlegging directly fostered by the government and commission, and sections of the province are getting disreputable. It would be a calamity if progressive Ontario should revert to the example of Quebec in many particulars and especially in this.

—L. M. ENGLAND.

A PICNIC ENJOYED.

By Kingston Christian Endeavor Union at Grass Creek Island.

A very enjoyable picnic was held by the Kingston Christian Endeavor Union, on Monday, at Grass Creek Island. Members from Cooke's, Calvary and Bethel societies were in attendance. The heavy showers, in which the young people were caught, did not dampen their spirits, and a good line of sports and races was enjoyed. The races resulted as follows:

Bobbed haired girls, pigeon-toed race—Beatrice King.

Nail-driving contest—Inas Gates.

Sewing on button—Robert H. Treneer.

Backward race—Beatrice King.

Girls' coat race—Miss Isabel Vesale.

Boys' coat race—Herbert Porter.

Balloon race—Lucille Wilson.

Long-haired girls' good Samaritan race—Miss Mildred Orser.

Junior boys' race—Norman Smith.
