Ralph Pulver, who was shot by bandits in Detroit on Monday last, was an old Picton boy, having learned the drug business in C. B. Allison's store.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Mounce and daughters, Thora and Phyllis, are spending a couple of weeks in Rochester, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Shortt.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macklin are visiting friends at Cobourg.

Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Grover, Chicago, are spending some time with Dr. and Mrs. White, Lilac Lodge.

RULE BRITANNIA. (Aerial.)

When Britain faithfully at Heaven's command,
 Arose in righteous wrath her treaty to maintain;
 (Repeat second line.)
 Forth went the mandate, the mandate that shall stand
 And guardian angels sang this strain:
 Rule Britannia! Britannia rule the air.
 Britons evermore on wings shall dare.

The spacious firmament in azure wave
 Shall yield new paths of glory for her sons to share,
 (Repeat second line.)
 In freeing nations, the war-lord did enslave;
 Then sing right loyally, the truth declare:
 Rule Britannia! etc.

Where lightnings gleam and thunders roll,
 In aerial combat dauntless they shall victory attain;
 (Repeat second line.)
 Sound forth the mandate, encircling pole to pole,
 Britons everywhere shall Right maintain.
 Rule Britannia! etc.
