The Bankruptcy Act

In the Estate of CHARLES HAMILTON, of the Township of Ernestown, in the County of Lennox and Addington, Formerly known as Ernestown, in the County of Lennox and Addington, did on the 27th day of July make an authorized assignment of all his property for the benefit of his creditors, and that T. Milne Asselstine, official receiver, has appointed me to be the custodian of the assets of the debtor until the creditors at their first meeting shall elect a trustee to administer the estate of the debtor.

NOTICE is further given that the first meeting of creditors in the above estate will be held at the Official Receiver's Office at the Court House, in the City of Kingston, on Friday, the 15th day of August, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon (Daylight Saving Time).

To entitle you to vote thereat, proof of your claim must be lodged with me before the meeting is held.

Proxies to be used at the meeting must be lodged with me prior thereto.

And further take notice that if you have any claim against the debtor for which you are entitled to rank, proof of such claim must be filed with me within thirty days from the date of this notice for, from and after the expiration of the time fixed by subsection 5 of section 21 of the said Act, I shall distribute the proceeds of the debtor's estate among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which I have then notice.

DATED at Kingston, Ontario, this 5th day of August, 1924.

CYRIL M. SMITH,
Custodian.

AMUSEMENTS

STARTLING DRAMA AT CAPITOL

"For Sale" is an elaborate society drama at the Capitol Theatre today and Thursday. The theme of "For Sale" is—should a daughter be sacrificed at the altar of love to save her family their social position? This was handled with extreme delicacy and acted with sincerity by a splendid cast.

Claire Windsor is charming as Eleanor Bates, whose battle between love and duty to parents almost ruins her life. Adolphe Menjou takes a part that is finer and more likeable than any he has ever had. Mary Carr is a distinct surprise as the snobbish, selfish society matron. Opposite Mrs. Carr is Jim Bridger of "The Covered Wagon." Tully Marshall, and this actor lends his experience and sincerity to one of the best performances in the picture. Robert Ellis who plays the hero, is equally well-cast and does some splendid acting. The balance of the cast includes Vera Reynolds, John Patrick, Finch Smiles and others.

GYPSY MARRIAGE DIDN'T HOLD

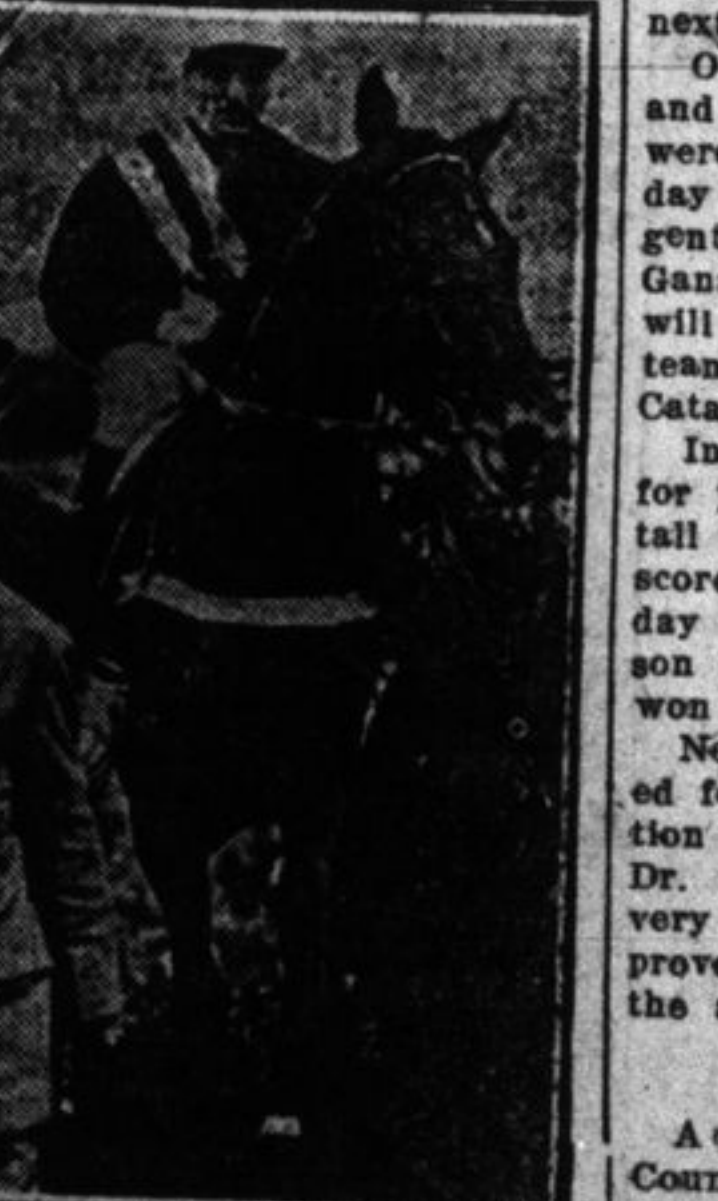

Queen Annie Butch of a gypsy tribe became the bride of a "gypsy king" when she jumped over a broomstick on the arm of her husband-to-be. Incidentally, her father received $2,500 from the groom.

Now Queen Annie has been declared single by the police of Boston, Mass., after her husband beat her. And her hubby will not get back his money. It has been used to establish Annie's father in business.

'WALLIE' CUSICK PRESENTS BEAUTIFUL TENNIS TROPHY

The Kingston Tennis Club has been exceedingly fortunate in having presented by "Wallie" Cusick, one of its members, and proprietor of the College Inn Cigar Store, a magnificent silver trophy for competition in men's doubles play. The trophy is about eighteen inches high and of a unique and pleasing design. It is one of the finest of any kind ever seen here.

The rules for competition are that the cup must be played for at the end of the season. It is the permanent property of the Kingston Tennis Club and can never be owned by any individual. The winners may hold it from year to year and it is to be turned in to the club secretary each season.

Needless to say the executive of the Kingston Tennis Club is "tickled pink" with this fine present from Mr. Cusick.

Circle Six Left.

The Circle Six team, with Umpire George Sullivan, President Kane of the City League, and Secretary Bufam, left early this morning for Ottawa to meet the Ottawa Boys' Club in the first of the Junior O.B.A.A. playoff games. Efforts will be made to have Desmond Burke, winner of the King's Prize at Bisley, throw the first ball. The return game is in Kingston next Wednesday.

Gananoque Golf Notes.

Gananoque, Aug. 5.—The match for the Mullin cup was played last Saturday and won by Dr. Bird with a score of 66. W. T. Sampson came next with a score of 71.

On Monday, P. P. Jones, Montreal, and Dr. R. E. Webster, Ottawa, were in Gananoque and spent the day on the golf links. Both these gentlemen, who are members of the Gananoque Golf and Country Club, will go to Kingston today with the team that will play a match on the Catarqui links.

In the match for the semi-final for president's shield, Hubert Shortall defeated Dr. C. H. Bird with a score of 7 up and 6 to go. Yesterday Dr. Bracken and W. T. Sampson played their match, which was won by Dr. Bracken.

Next week the finals will be played for the shield and the competition between Hubert Shortall and Dr. Bracken and should prove a very keen one and will undoubtedly prove one of the most interesting of the season's programme.

Will Play In Kingston.

A team representing the Brockville Country Club will play a return match on the links of the Catarqui Golf Club, on Saturday next.

INTELLECT THE BIG FACTOR IN SLAYING

Chicago State Attorney Starts to Shatter the Leopold-Loeb Defence.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 6.—State's Attorney Crowe has started to shatter the "Teddy Bear" defence, the baby talk defence, and to blow up the phantasies of Leopold and Loeb as being causes of their committing the Franks murder. Mr. Crowe is coming out able and strong. He forced Dr. Healy, not by declamation or force, but by an appeal to his intelligence, to agree that it was intellect, not phantasy, that governed the accused when they confessed, and that caused them to exhibit fear as to their final safety.

Dr. Healy explained that he and his colleagues among the defence's specialists had agreed to come together to make a fair scientific study of the defendants, to accept no extraordinary fees and to give their findings to the state's specialists and attempt to agree on a joint report.

"The approach was made," said Dr. Healy. He and Dr. William A. White, he said, talked with the state's alienists, but the offer to join in a report was not accepted.

"What compensation was agreed on for your making the investigation?"

Dr. Healy replied: "Two hundred and fifty dollars a day. There was a distinct understanding that no one was to receive any more."

Mr. Crowe asked where Dr. Healy had got his facts of the murder of Robert Franks. From the newspapers and from a report by other medical men who examined the boys, was the reply.

Dr. Healy, whose specialty is the study of behavior, particularly in youths, seemed little interested in the facts of the crime. He had said that his interest was to make a scientific study of the boys.

Loeb Admitted Killing Boy.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Dr. Bernard Glueck, New York, testified at the Franks hearing to-day that Richard Loeb, throughout his mental examination of him, had admitted that he struck the blow which killed Bobbie Franks. Throughout the investigation the connection of Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., with the murder, the matter of who actually struck fatal blow had been an unsolved mystery. Both youths, while confessing to kidnapping and slaying, accused each other.

Describing his conversation with Loeb, Dr. Glueck stated that the boy had related details regarding planning and the execution of the crime without squeamishness, remorse, regret, passion or love. He seemed to be devoid of emotional responses. He even did not take seriously his present situation.
