A PUZZLE

A group of soldiers were stationed at an outpost. Half of them were sent out to reconnoiter; one-fourth were given leave; one-seventh were sent to another post, which left only three soldiers in the post. How many soldiers were there?

Yesterday's answer:

The professor explained that the ign not only granted him the privilege of smoking, but also intimated that it would be preferable for him to smoke, for the following rea

If the sign had said, "Smoking Allowed," it would be clear that it would be preferable not to smoke, out any one might enjoy a smoke if he so wished. Therefore, the sign, "No Smoking Allowed," could only be construed to mean that it would be preferable to smoke; but "no smoking" would be allowable." In other words, a person would not be forced to smoke if he preferred

Captions That Capture

Thanks to the captions that head the different groups of opportunities in the Whig's A-B-C Classified Section, you don't have to read the whole section to find some specific opportunity.

These captions will capture your attention immediately-and enable you to capture your own little opportunity instantly. But, as the saying goes, "We haven't said the half of it yet." The captions which designate the main groups are amplified by sub-captions which in turn include a large number of smaller captions known as index terms. As soon as you notice that captions, sub-captions and index terms are all alphabetically arranged in numerical classifications-you will realize the pains we have gone to in order to assure the reader convenience.

If the A-B-C Classified Section isn't worth your daily attention-nothing is! THE A-B-C CLASSIFIED ADS.
