Imperial Order of Crusaders.
 Kingston was visited early this week by S. L. Heaton, programme master of the Imperial Order of Crusaders for the Dominion of Canada. During his stay here he had a conference with several citizens with a view to organizing a convolve in Kingston. The order is making great advance in Canada, having at present four convolves organized in Hamilton, and others at Ottawa and Toronto, and in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Especially in the west it has been making great strides and two provincial commands have been organized. It is stated that other orders of this character are contemplating affiliation with the British Order.

Damaged By the Storm.
 A portion of the roof of the Canadian National Railway shop, William street, Brockville, was blown off by the wind. A silo attached to a barn on the farm of Harold Pettem, Seely's, was struck and demolished. The loss is covered by insurance. In Athens damage was done through uprooted trees. The barn and contents on the farm of Henry Dickson, North Augusta, were destroyed by lightning, but fortunately none of the livestock were lost.

Only One Harvesters' Excursion.
 Railway officials on Friday made the announcement that there will be only one harvesters' excursion to the western provinces this year, namely that leaving here on Aug. 22nd. In past years there have been several such excursions, giving easterners the choice of different going dates. Just why the railways have adopted such restrictions this year is not clear.

"Buy Lime Juice" at Gibson's. The poor workman is usually one of the first to advocate a strike. Yardley's at Gibson's.

R.M.C. Graduates Must Serve Three Years in Militia

In accordance with amendments in the Regulations and Calendar of the Royal Military College, cadets, not appointed to permanent commissions on graduation, must obtain an appointment in a unit of the non-permanent Active Militia and serve therein for at least three annual trainings. If residence in a foreign country makes this impossible, they must arrange to return for training, within a reasonable period, to the nearest convenient unit within the British Empire.

P. W. O. R. Band Concert.
 A very large crowd enjoyed an excellent concert by the P.W.O.R. band under Bandmaster W. J. Christmas in Macdonald Park Thursday evening. There was an unusual number of tourists present and several of them personally complimented Mr. Christmas afterwards. Winning the most applause were the sketch, "In Cooland" and the selection from "Chu Chin Chow." So well was the latter received that it may be repeated at the band's concert in Macdonald Park next Thursday night.

Dr. Skelton For Geneva.
 Hon. Raoul Dandurand and Hon. E. M. Macdonald, minister of national defence, will represent Canada at the League of Nations Assembly in Geneva. They will be accompanied by Dr. O. D. Skelton, counsellor for external affairs. It is expected that all three will remain in London for the conference on imperial relations, should the conference be held.

Crop Conditions.
 Crop conditions in the prairie provinces have been improved by cool weather and rains over practically the whole area. In Quebec province ideal growing weather has greatly improved conditions. In Ontario conditions throughout continue favorable and recent rains and warm weather have benefited all growing crops. In the maritime provinces rain is needed and condition of crops generally is fair to good. In British Columbia rains throughout the province have benefited roots and pasturage material.

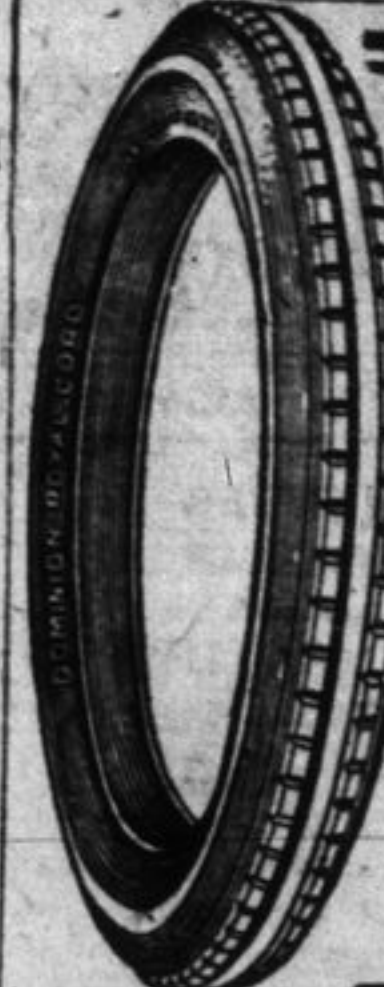

To Reside in Kingston.
 Mrs. Frank Patterson, Miss Louise Patterson and Norine, Picton, have come to Kingston to reside. Mrs. Patterson and Louise were zealous workers in the choir and Sunday school of St. Mary Magdalene church. They will be missed by their many Picton friends.

Fractured His Arm.
 Mr. Stratford Dawson, son of Mrs. Stratford Dawson, Montreal, had the misfortune to seriously fracture his arm while cranking his car. Mrs. Dawson, visiting her mother, Mrs. Loucks on Division street, was summoned home.

CAMPING AT CHARLESTON.

There is Splendid Fishing Just Now In The Lake.
 Charleston, Aug. 4.—W. D. Thomas and family, Athens, are holidaying at Derbyshire Point, Ronald Gray and Dwight Sexton, visiting musicians, assisted the orchestra on Friday evening and delighted the gathering with some very fine music. A number here attended the circus at Brockville on Wednesday. A large number here attended the funeral of Mrs. Arthur McLashan, Humboldt, Sask., which took place from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morris, Glen Morris, at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon. The remains arrived on Friday, accompanied by her husband. Before her marriage, about eight years ago, she taught school here and had many warm friends here who knew her as Miss Mabel Morris and deeply regret her unexpected demise.
