Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McVannell are holidaying at Mr. McVannell's old home in St. Mary's.
Miss Symonds of Brockville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ida Thompson, Centre street.
Welbanks and Wright are exhibiting horses and ponies at the Cobourg Horse Show.
Earl Lambert of Beaverton has accepted a position in Hadden's hardware store.
Mrs. Richard Hadden and daughter, Catharine, have returned from a holiday at the Sand Banks.
Mrs. Jones, of Belleville, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Jones at their cottage, Hickory Park.
A wedding of much interest to Pictonians was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Warkworth, when Miss Annie Laurie Baker became the bride of George A. Barker, of the Collegiate Institute staff of Picton. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will take up their residence in the home of the groom on Ferguson street.
Miss Mary McKay of Collin's Bay is the guest of her niece, Mrs. William Tait.
Mrs. James Johnson and son, Floyd, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Baird of Napanee at Camp Sans Souci.
Guests with Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert White, "Lilac Lodge," are Mrs. Grover of Paris, France, Mrs. Hunter of Chicago and Mrs. Craig Wolfe of Chicago.
Guests at the home of Mr. Thomas Welsh, Washburn street, are Miss Marcella Welsh, Mrs. Winch and daughter, and Miss Hitchcock of New York.
John Carson of Sisco is spending several weeks at the presbytery with his brother, Rev. Father Carson.
Miss Phyllis Brown is visiting friends at Toronto and Niagara Falls.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morden have arrived from North Vancouver to make their home in Picton.
Allan Christie of Hamilton is holidaying with his family at the home of Mrs. Christie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davidson.
Mr. and Mrs. Russel C. Widdfield of Galt are holidaying at Glen Island and looking up old acquaintances in Picton.
Mrs. A. C. Bostwick and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Low of Rochester, N. Y., are the guests of Miss Beattie Robin and other friends in the county.
Mrs. Harry Gibson of Cobalt is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terwilliger, Main street west.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

In the Death of Mr. Braden, Late Of Pittsburg.
Pittsberry, Aug. 11.—A gloom was cast over this community on Friday morning, when word was received that Mr. Braden had passed away at an early hour that morning after only a few hours' illness. Deceased had resided opposite St. Lawrence church for the past eight years and previous to that time had lived on Wolfe Island and was at one time lighthouse keeper at Snake Island lighthouse. He was fifty-seven years of age and highly respected by all who knew him.
The funeral took place at his home on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. F. L. Barber, rector of Christ church, Gananoque, conducted the funeral service assisted by Rev. Dr. R. Cooper, Gananoque East. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife, two sons and seven daughters, also one brother, Lucius, Kingston, and four sisters. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the family in their bereavement.
Miss L. Hoppins, Kingston, is visiting with Mrs. R. Brash and other relatives here. Mrs. W. Tomlinson and son, have returned home to Kingston after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Paddle. Miss Mabel Bell, New York City, also Miss G. Bell, Kingston, are with their sister, Mrs. William Brash. Miss Mary Harpell, Kingston, and brother, Thomas, are visiting with their aunt, Mrs. Robert Barclay.
Miss Emma Scott spent the past week with her friend, Miss Maude Cooper, Gananoque. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts and daughter spent Sunday at Joseph Lane's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edgar and son, Charles, Belleville, have returned home after spending the past week with his father, Joseph Edgar and other friends here.

Caines-Harris Wedding.

St. Luke's rectory, 311 Albert street, was the scene of a very pretty event on Monday when Helen Elizabeth Inez Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris, of Gananoque, was united in marriage to James Osborne Caines, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Caines, Queen street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. dePeneter Wright, rector of St. Luke's Church.
After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Caines left on a motor trip to Toronto and on their return will reside in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Caines are most popular among a wide circle of friends, who extend to them most hearty wishes for a long and happy married life. Mrs. Caines was one of Gananoque's most popular young ladies, and her many friends there showered congratulations and well wishes on her.

Rotary Club Activities.

Rev. Dr. Solater, of Toronto, who is holidaying at Collins Bay, will be the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Kingston Rotary Club, to be held in the British-American hotel on Friday at 12.30 (noon). Dr. Solater is one of the outstanding preachers of Canada and the members are assured of a fine address.
The members of the club are delighted over the success of the moonlight excursion held to Gananoque on Friday evening last, but the members were very sorry they could not accommodate all who wanted to take in the trip. The club was forced to turn down over a hundred persons on account of lack of accommodation. Another moonlight excursion will be held on Friday evening, Aug. 22nd., and another record crowd is looked for.
The Rotary club is bringing the Welsh choir to Kingston on Sept. 9th. One of the best entertainments of the season is promised and the appearance of this noted choir in Kingston is awaited with keen interest.
The Rotary club will hold a service at the Union church in Battersea on Sunday evening next. The speaker for the occasion will be Rev. Mr. Beecroft, who is spending his vacation in Kingston. Rotarians will provide the music. A collection will be taken up and this will be turned over to the birthday or shoe and stocking fund of the club. The ladies of Battersea are serving refreshments after the service, which will commence at 8.30 p.m. (daylight saving time).

Burial of a Child.

The funeral of little Virginia Louise Smith, who died as a result of being hit by an automobile on Monday evening, took place from the residence of her father, C. M. Smith, 179 Stuart street, on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in charge of John Cornelius. It was of a private nature, but the little casket was banked with many beautiful flowers, and hundreds of expressions of sincere sympathy were conveyed to the stricken parents. The remains of the little girl were laid to rest at Caparaqui, the Rev. W. E. Kidd, conducting the last services.
Reduced rates will be put into effect by the railways for the Canadian National Exhibition from August 22nd, covering the country from White River to the Atlantic. The American roads will give a rate of one and one-half fares over a wide territory.

At Charleston Lake — The Fishing is a Decided Attraction.
Charleston, Aug. 11.—Miss Muriel Kenney, Elgin, is the guest of her uncle, Percy Alford, Kozzy Cove. S. L. Snowden, principal of the Athens public school; Mrs. Snowden and little sons, are holidaying at Camp Restalotte. Mr. Snowden's sister is a guest of the party. C. Percy, of the Standard Bank staff, Athens, was host last week at Louetta Lodge. His guests were his mother, sister and brother-in-law, Dayton, Ohio.
Attracted by their friends' success, two more Americans from near Rochester, N.Y., arrived on Wednesday to try their hand at fishing. They secured parking privileges at Louetta Lodge and are enjoying their days on the lake. W. Dowseley, I. P.
