Resigned Government Position. H. T. Noonan, an efficient and popular officer in the customs and excise department in Perth for the long term of twenty-four years, has resigned that position to accept the district agency of the Canada Life Insurance Co., with headquarters in Perth.

Fort Wellington Repairs. At Prescott, Fort Wellington of historic fame, which is now under the supervision of the Department of the Interior, is undergoing extensive repairs. W. G. Webb, who served overseas, has been appointed supervisor, and is thoroughly conversant with the history of the place which is becoming the Mecca for tourists.

To Repair Bridge Warden Fowlds and the members of the Counties Road Commission for Northumberland and Durham have let a contract for the repairing of the bridge at Campbellford, to the Ontario Bridge company, for $9,212. Work is expected to start Aug. 15th. The government, it is understood, will pay two-fifths of the cost, the united counties are to pay three-fourths of the remainder and the Town of Campbellford, one-fourth.

Clayton Ferry Breaks Record. The steamers Missisquoi and Yennek of the Thousand Island Navigation Company, which piles between Clayton and Gananoque, broke all records for a single day last week when seventy-six cars were carried to do this an extra trip was required. Last season on this line was regarded as a record season, but to date this season has been far ahead of last and business is rapidly increasing.

Goodrich-Crozier Wedding. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Morven, on Wednesday, when Miss Minnie Pearl Crozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Crozier, Switzer ville, was united in marriage to George E. Goodrich, Marmora. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of sandalwood silk canton with hat to match. After the ceremony the happy couple left by motor to Kingston, taking the boat for Rochester and Watertown, the bride travelling in a suit of navy port twill. On their return they will reside at Marmora.

About Outside Contractors. A resident writes the Whig complaining about the number of building contracts awarded in Kingston to outside firms by Queen's University, the General Hospital and various citizens who are constructing residences. Enquiry shows that local contractors were given the same chance of bidding as the outsiders, but the figures of the latter were the lowest. It is pointed out that a Kingston contractor is building the new arena at Queen's.

No Cheese Sold. No cheese were sold at the Frontenac Cheese Board on Thursday at the price offered, 16 1/2-16th cents. The cheesemen considered it a big drop from last week's record of 17 1/2-16th cents. Bidding started at 16 cents. The last bid was made by Mr. Hamilton. The following cheese, all colored, were boarded: Glenburnie, 60; Howe Island, 40; Model, 60; Silver Springs, 62; Thousand Islands, 26; Wolfe Island, 52.

School Plan Impractical. Addressing the Renfrew Rotary Club, Dr. G. G. McNab, Inspector of public schools for South Renfrew, said he did not think consolidated schools would settle the rural school problems of the Ottawa Valley and Eastern Ontario. He holds that the winters are too cold and stormy to admit of a proper transportation of children in vans to schools. Dr. McNab has been for fifteen years Inspector of public schools for South Renfrew. Conditions are such in Full particulars regarding fares, train service, etc., apply to J. P. Hanley, C.P. & T.A., C.N.Ry., corner Johnson and Ontario streets, Kingston, Ont. Phone 99 or 1432.

ANOTHER LEAGUE TIE. By Tamworth's Victory—Sudden Death Games Saturday. Napanee, Aug. 14.—In the second game of the play off for the leadership of the Lennox and Addington League, played at Tamworth on Wednesday afternoon, Tamworth reversed tables on the Gibbard Furniture team of Napanee and won by score of 4-3. This game again ties up the league with one win each and a sudden death game will be played in Napanee on Saturday afternoon to decide the leadership and the right to continue in the O. B. A. Intermediate series. Kenneth Shaver, of Calgary, who has been attending Summer School at Toronto University, arrived in town on Thursday, and he will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. Ralph Ham. Miss Maude Anderson, Miss Helen Grange, Miss Ila Hamby, Miss Vivian McLaughlin, who have spent the past six weeks attending Queen's summer school, returned to town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knapp and daughter, Doria, who have been on a motor trip to Toronto, St. Catharines, Buffalo and Watertown, returned yesterday. Mrs. Fred Bradley and two young sons, Paul and John, who have spent the past year with her mother in England, returned home on Sunday last. Mrs. D. A. Valicau, Oshawa, who has been spending a few days in Newburgh, with her sister, Mrs. Sutton, returned to Oshawa yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Knight left yesterday for St. Catharines and Toronto where they will visit friends. Mrs. W. H. Hunter and daughter Kathleen left yesterday on a motor trip to Watertown, N.Y. Robert Dougan, Camden East, left yesterday to spend the summer with his daughter in Winnipeg. Gentleness is revealed in the last analysis of greatness. The blusterer is always weak.
