KIWANIANS ARRANGE FOR A BOYS' CAMP

To Be Held the Next Two Weeks at Redden's Point, Front Road.

The Kingston Kiwanis Club is now busy on the preparation of another of its numerous activities, the Kiwanis Boys' Camp, which is to be held for two weeks commencing Monday next at Redden's Point on the Front Road, kindly loaned for the purpose by the owners.

The committee in charge of the camp is made up of Harry Wilder (chairman), Harry Law, Albery Hughes, J. D. Boyd, Stewart Crawford, William Moore, Ernest Smithies, Dougall McKnight, James Sowards, A. C. Hanley, and M. Cherdorfer.

An efficient cook is being secured to look after one of the biggest parts of the programme (so far as the boys are concerned) and every precaution is being taken to ensure general safety and welfare.

The members of the Kiwanis Club will be expected to pay visits to the camp during the two weeks and to help liven up the proceedings.

THE USUAL STRANGER GAVE THEM LIQUOR

Two Tipplers in Police Court Are Remanded by Ald. Percy Chown.

In the absence of Mayor Angrove, Ald. Percy Chown handled the scales of justice at the police court on Friday morning. Two tipplers were in the line-up.

"I was drunk and I do not deny it," said the first one to be charged.

"Where did you get your liquor?" asked the acting magistrate.

"I met a man on the street and he gave me what you call 'moonshine'. The man was a stranger to me. He asked me if I wanted a drink and I told him that I would take a drink."

"And you cannot tell me the name of the man who gave it to you?"

"No, I cannot do that as he was a perfect stranger to me."

"Well, I will remand you for a day to give you time to think it over," replied the acting magistrate.

The second tippler stated that he had been drinking extract of lemon. He had secured two bottles of lemon in a cupboard at his own home. The case was remanded for a day.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD LAD INJURED BY AN AUTO

Little Fellow Walked off Sidewalk Directly in Front of The Car

Andrew Keyes, a four-year-old lad, living at 264 Earl street, was struck by an automobile on Clergy street west, between Barris and Division streets, early on Thursday evening, and suffered severe cuts about his head but at the Hotel Dieu it was stated that his condition was not at all serious.

From what can be learned of the accident, it appears that the youngster walked off the sidewalk directly in front of the car. The driver, a visitor in the city, picked up the child and rushed to the Hotel Dieu where the youngster was given prompt attention. Four stitches were required to close up one of the wounds.

Auto Speeders Are Fined.
Two city motorists pleaded guilty to speeding through Portsmouth and paid their fines to Magistrate J. W. Bradshaw Friday morning. Information was laid by Constable Walker. On the morning of the 21st inst. three local speeders on the provincial highway, who were caught by Constable Dowseley, will appear before the county magistrate.

The New South Wales and West Australia state governments have agreed to join with the Federal Government in guaranteeing the financing of the wheat crop through voluntary wheat pools.

Manager C.P.R. Telegraphs McMillan, Montreal, talked direct with London, England, by trans-Atlantic submarine cable on Thursday.
