NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

ed an invitation to be present at the "Come again next year." "Guest Day" at Camp Frontenac, Milton Island, where some of our herming American cousins have Maples," gave made their home for the last two marshmallow roast the girls who were grouped on the ter. wide verandah. All sorts of interesting things were going on; volley afterwards wandered around the is- W. H. Stylis, of Hamilton. land seeing its many beauties. Pass- ceremony was performed at ing through the big living room of noon Wednesday, Aug. 20th. the camp one was shown the bas- Stylis is the daughter of Mr. A and very clever it was. On the ve- hardt, Stratford, randah were the snap-shots taken during the summer and treasured to A Dutch luncheon was given at cloth, dyed and made by the wearers, ame in to music and danced deing of a dead bird. Later the same Cunningham and Miss Leo Ross girls did clog dances to everyone's Vancouver, B.C. enjoyment. At the wharf, swimming and diving were the attractions and the guests who had paid visits to Camp Frontenac earlier in the season could see the great adand some girls who could not swim | nolds, Toronto; Miss Boyle, R.N. water, and two girls who upset a Baumgartener, Nasteth, Long and fruit punch were at the house. the week. Miss Millie Ferns presided at the tea table with its centre of great pink, white and mauve asters, and after Florence Margaret Rolt, daughter of tes the camp songs, including one the late Robert N. O. Harrington and extolling the joys of Camp Frontenac and the desire of everyone to Rev. Melville Staveley Mann, son of return to it next year, were sung. Mr. and Mrs. George Mann, Co-It was with reluctance that the bourg, Ont., formerly of Montreal. guests embarked on a steam yacht The marriage will take place whose captain kindly took them to September. the mainland where the motors

Sure Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe, and sure ay that never fails to get rid of blackfrom any drug store— sprinkle a Mrs. Harper's home for bridge. sekheads briskly-wash the parts nd you will be surprised how ids have disappeared. beroxine powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in Geiger, Kingston, the marriage

GALLAGHER'S SERVICE DAY AND NIGHT

Kill them all, and the of September. germs too. 10c a packet at Druggists, Grocers and General Stores.

our

where everything is fresh and everything on ice.

382 PRINCESS STREET 'Phone 2678.

On Saturday afternoon many of awaited them and to the "goodthe Kingston people who had receiv- byes" to staff and pupils was added months, motored to Capt. Comeau's day evening for their nephew, cottage on the banks of the St. Law- Mr. Billy Cartwright, Toronto. The rence, about five miles from town, party gathered on the shore around and were taken across the river to a big fire, sang songs, and watched the camp. Here they were met by Mars rise in the south east. The the Misses Loofburrow and their planet was so bright that its light staff with a hearty welcome from made a path of radiance on the wa-

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neal, King ball was played on the tennis court street, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter where the spectators were given Neal, Lyndhurst, motored to Stratseats under the trees where a ford last Tuesday to attend the wedclimpse of the dancing blue waves ding of Mrs. Olive Pearl Drinkall of the river could be caught, and who was united in marriage to Mr. ketry and painting done by the girls Neal's sister, Mr. W. H. Bainrevive pleasant memories of Canada | the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club and the St. Lawrence. An exhibition today when those present were Mrs. of natural dancing was much enjoy- Victor Anderson, Mrs. G. Hunter d by the visitors. Slim, graceful Ogilvie, Mrs. Arthur Macnee, Mrs. figures in simple frocks of cheese- W. Bartlett Dalton, Mrs. W. H. Craig, Mrs. Reginald Brook, Mrs. Hamilton Roberts, Mrs. ightfully interpreting first the Constantine, Mrs. Heber Lafferty, blowing of bubble, and then the find- Miss Amy McGill, Miss Florence

Mr. and Mrs. H. Saunders, and Mrs. T. Duncan, Miss McCanfrey, Miss Weldon, Watertown, N.Y. Messrs. Roofrerener, Shaw, Wissul vancement made in these directions, Hombourg, New York; Mrs. Reyat all were quite at home in the Gananoque; Mr. and Mrs. Albert cance climbed into it and paddled it land, and Mr. A. Milroy, were guests to the shore amidst applause. Tea at "The Echo," Brock street, during

> The engagement is announced of Mrs. Harrington, Montreal, to the

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Harper, Nelson street, entertained at dinner, at the Cataraqui Golf Club, on Saturday evening in honor of their visitors. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Carpenter, Re eads; that isoto dissolve them. To do gima, Sask. Covers were laid for his, get two dences of peroxine poweright. Later all went to Mr. and

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Bartels nounce the engagement of youngest daughter, Annie L. (Gol dust and dirt and secretions that die), to Mr. Douglas George Geiger B.Sc., (M.E. and E.E.), of Montreal take place Sept. 25th.

> Mrs. Manley B. Baker entertained at dinner at the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club on Saturday in honor of Mrs. S. Swalm, Wheeling, and bordered by a brook shaded one's ears. Varginia. Mrs. C. H. Hutchins, Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. Noble Armstrong, Hamilton. Bridge was played afterwards. . . .

Mrs. Logie Macdonnell and her son, Ronald, Winnipeg, have turned home from their visit to Britain, and are for a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs Macalister of Barrie street.

Mrs. I. R. Pulcifer, Miss Harriet Wallace, Miss Doris Stedman and Mr. Fred. Wallace motored from Detroit, Mich., on Saturday, and are the guests of Mrs. G. H. William son, Brock street.

is to take place about the middle

Mrs. J. H. Elmsley gave a pleasant tea and mah jongg on Saturday afternoon at the Cataraqui Golf and Miss Mona Drummond, Ottawa, respending the week in town, the guest of Mrs. R. Davis, University a Canadian farm. School is, of at this outing and said: "This is

The Misses Elizabeth, Alberta and result of the year's work when he re- great interest in the farm, came in Florence Pelow have returned to Toronto, after spending the two weeks in Kingston and Morris-and Mrs. Hopkins for a week.

land visiting friends.

Mrs. George McLean, Kingston, is and here too were the vegetable gartertained as guests Mr. and Mrs. G. Holland and her children, Kingston.

Mr. William Medcof, M.A., of the staff of the Woodstock Collegiate Institute, was a visitor in the city for the week-end.

Rev. J. A. Waddell, of Winchester, spent the week-end in the city. Mrs. Waddell, who has been ill in the General Hospital, hopes to be able to return home this week.

Mr. Thomas Dickson, Chicago, has seen visiting Mrs. John Dickson, Ordnance street.

Mr. Thomas Dickson and Miss Catherine Dickson are visiting in Ogdensburg, N.Y.

Mrs. George Sudds, and Mrs. A. Pallister, Ordnance street, left on Saturday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Roy Rutherford, Roches-

Miss Helen Anglin has returned from Montreal and is at Mr. Frank Anglin's cottage at Dead Man's Bay. Rev. T. McCree and Mrs. McCree, who returned from England last week on the SS. Montcalm, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bruce, 98 Bagot street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brundage, York street, have returned from a visit to the former's parents, Rev. Manley and Mrs. Brundage, East An-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anglin, Miss Marion and Arthur Anglin left today for a motor trip through the Adirondack Mountains.

Miss Constance Boulton, who was with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Elmsley, and Major-General Elmsley, King street, returned to Toronto on Sun-

Mrs. William Harty, Miss Nadine and Miss Betty Harty, "Roselawn," have returned from Bronte where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Osler.

BOYS CANADIANS

The Editor of the Whig's Wo- cup of diced celery and 15 stuffed and state. man's Page Tells of Farm at Georgetown.

dread phase of the age-long conflict this year. between the crescent and the cross, the farm where the boys have been the visitor was the singing. One Canadian home. A big maple cast to hear the childish voices singing in the city. an alluring shade and suggested a the words of promise for a meeting the fields starred with blue chicory told by Mr. Alexanian ringing in with magnificent willows, came the Most of the boys saw their parsound of happy voices with much ents done to death by the Turks. merry laughter and snatches of many of them bear wounds in their song. Following the lane, gaily own bodies and in a lowered voice bordered with tail purple teasel, blue the young Aymenian, himself enslavvervain and great plumes of golden ed by the Turks, said: "One of the rod, the way led across the brook to older boys saw his father and mother the long low building on the hill. A die as the Christ died, he will tell small brown-eyed boy in khaki shirt you if you ask him." But who would and trousers, with bare brown feet, ask the poor child to recall such understood quite easily that the visi- horrors? In the dead of night even tor wanted to see Mr. and Mrs. Ed- yet, the silence of the dormitory is wards, the superintendent and his broken by bitter weeping and one wife. They were away on their holi- night the cry, (strange indeed in our days, he said, but Mr. Alenanian happy land), rang out: "The Turks! would come. He ran off and pre- The Turks! They are upon us!" And sently returned with the Armenian the terrified child dreaming of byteacher and interpreter, Mr. Aris- gone tragedies, rushed madly round takes Alexanian. This kindly young the room trying to escape from the man was delighted to show the visi- savage enemies of his race. Mr. and Mrs. H. Keech, announce tor everything and to tell her just But on the whole the boys are the engagement of their only daugh- what was being done to make these happy. They love Canada and every ter, Helen, to Mr. R. K. Dawson, little lads under his care forget their morning with some ceremony salute of Winnipeg, Man. The marriage tragic past and able to enjoy the the flag of their new country. They privileges of the great free land enjoy sports, have a baseball team. where they have found a home. He and a "swimming hole" just like explained the group system by which other Canadian boys. Sliding down the work was done. Seven or eight hill is a joy indeed and even on this boys in a group with a captain, as- bright August day one of them was sisted in all the work of the farm. found making a bob-sleigh to be Country Club for her sister, Miss Washing dishes this month, picking ready for winter when it comes. Refruit, potatoes, the next and doing cently the Girl Guides took them for some other work the following month a motor picnic to Erin where their so that these children, ninety per is a park beside a small lake, a in', Pa gets a sanitary spell and deturned home on Saturday after cent. of whom are sons of farmers, merry-go-round and unlimited cake cides to change underwear ever may learn the way work is done on and ice cream. They were over-joyed day."

cently visited the farm. A visit was paid to the dormitory ways, where the little beds made by the Miss Elizabeth Elmsley, A.T.C.M., dining room, the hospital in winter sets in, so more funds still has returned to Ottawa after a visit case of emergencies, and the big will be needed to carry on this work kitchen where wholesome meals are which is surely a Christlike one. cooked, were visited in turn and then Miss Lois Saunders and Mrs. Ken- we walked down to the gardens nedy McIllwraith left for Toronto on where the boys who are fond of flowers each have a little patch. They Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Hopkins and were playing about here, for it had little Miss Helen returned on Sun- grown late in the afternoon and work day from Sturgeon Point. Mrs. Mait- was over for some of them at least, land Hanniford, Montreal, is with Dr. and they were good enough to give the Kingston historical pageant from their visitor some of the lovely flow- descendants of United Empire Loyal-Dr. H. L. and Mrs. Field, Hamil-on, spent a week on Amherst Is-On the pill was the big barn where ston about 1784 offering assistance the baby's mother, father or even the harvest was being stored by the in the production of the U.E.L. its grand or great-grandparent. visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. dens of the young gardeners. Mr. That much interest is taken not cannot be regretted.

Efficient

TOMORROW'S MENU Breakfast Berries Cereal Coffee Boiled Eggs

Toast Luncheon Boiled Rice and Cheese Wholewheat Bread Celery Dinner

Cream of Onion Soup Corned Beef Potatoes Spiced Beet Salad Tapioca Pudding

Dishes In This Week's Menus. bread flour; season with a pinch of keep a week. salt, then add two well-beaten eggs. serve at once.

small pieces; sprinkle these pieces slightly cooked on both sides. Place on buttered toast and flour over the tomato pieces the following dressing: Put into a saucepan one tablespoon of butter, add one-third teaspoon of dry mustard, a pinch of pepegg, two teaspoons of vinegar and two tablespoons of sugar. Let mixture cook a moment, then add one well-beaten uncooked egg, and when thickened pour over the tomatoes on the toast. Serve hot.

to the society, and sixty acres more dinghy races held at Chaumont Bay, had been leased. A splendid orchard N.Y. on the hill had yielded six hundred On a farm near Georgetown fifty barrels of Northern Spy apples last Armenian boys, rescued from the last year, and they expected a good crop had the pleasure of hearing Miss Po- ed by a whistle, they come running ladian, the young Armenian girl who from all over the place and gathered visited Kingston last winter, the in the schoolroom where they proeditor of the Whig's Woman's Page, duced their dictation books neatly finding herself near Georgetown dur- written and read and spelled very placed by the Armenian Relief So- fair-haired little chap was choir ciety. Along the streets of the pretty leader and mounting a chair put rest. Here, from the garden beyond with their loved ones with the story course, held and the inspector of surely the king's palace." Some Halton county was delighted with the ladies from Georgetown, who take a and we were told they help in many These boys came out in June, 1923, boys looked exceedingly neat. The and fifty more will join them before

The Editor hears

That several letters have been re

A. Lytell, Cardinal.

Alexanian said there were one hun- only in yacht club circles but by the Property its rights.

clives cut small. Chill the mixture and serve on crisp lettuce topped with the following:

Boiled Dressing: Mix together one fourth tablespoon of salt, one and one-half tablespoons of sugar, a pinch of cayenne, one-half tablespoon of flour and one-fourth teaspoon of dry mustard (the mustard may be omitted if not liked). Put these ingredients into a saucepan with one and one-half tablespoons of butter melted, three-fourths of a cup of sweet milk and the beaten yolks of two eggs and let heat over mild heat stirring constantly. Just before it boils add one-fourth cup of vinegar, let boil up once or twice, then cool Clams Club Style: Make a batter and keep on ice, using as needed and by stirring two-thirds of a cup of thinning when necessary with a litsweet milk into one cup of ordinary the sweet milk. This dressing will

Date Cakes: Put into a bowl one-Dip clams into this batter and fry fourth cup of soft butter, one and them in deep fat which is hot enough one-fourth cups of brown sugar, two to brown a cube of bread in a few eggs, one-half cup of sweet milk or seconds. Drain on brown paper and water, one cup of stoned and shredded dates, one-half cup of dried cur-Devilled Tomatoes on Toast: Wipe, rants, one and three-fourths cups of peel and cut three large tomatoes in pastry flour, three teaspoons of baking powder, a pinch each of salt, with a little salt and pepper, dredge ground clove and nutmeg, and onewith two tablespoons of butter till half teaspoon of cinnamon. Beat all together and bake 25 minutes in cup cake pans in a hot oven.

Tomorrow-Answered Letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss per, mashed yolk of one hard-boiled Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamp-Macaroni Salad: Boil one and ed and self-addressed envelope must one-fourth cups of macaroni (broken be enclosed with the question, Be small) in salt water till tender, then sure to use YOUR full name, street drain and cool it. Mix with it one number, and the names of your city

That the sad accident which took the life of a young girl swimmer in the St. Lawrence river, shows the Before the visitor left she had the need for more caution both for swimare being made into Canadian citi- pleasure of hearing what the little mers and for the captains of motor zens. Having been as much inter- lads could do in the way of reading, boats. As we have repeatedly said ested as the other Kingstonians who writing and singing in English. Call- more than half the accidents are preventable with ordinary caution,

That many preparations are under way to make the annual dinner on women's day at the Canadian Naing a recent holiday, paid a visit to well indeed. But the great treat to tional Exhibition an outstanding success. As this is Empire Year it was thought advisable to write to the representatives in London of the diflittle town where, between the fine heart, soul and body into conduct- ferent units of the British Empire old trees, handsome houses looked ing the choir in "O Canada" and and ask them to send words of greetdown from their flowered terraces, then when asked for another song ing, the messages to be read at the the visitor found her way to the the boys sang, "We Shall Gather At dinner. The guests will include the farm lane which led to the boys the River." Pathetic It was indeed presidents of women's organizations

> That Madame Louise, a Chicago beauty expert, says: "If one is to be just as careful attention as the eyes. But that doesn't mean giving them two coats of red paint, like a barn. Often, little or no lip rouge is needed. Too much is always bad. The style to-day is to use a minimum of

> > AUNT HET

"It looks like ever' time I git a back-ache and don't feel like wash-

CHRISTENING DRESS

That which cannot be repaired Property has its duties as well as

The Only Tea Grower Selling Tea in Canada

30 Cup "Just a Taste" Packet So sure are we that, once having tried LIPTON'S TEA, you will use no other, we have supplied pecial value packets of LIPTON'S RED LABEL TEA, which will make $0 cups of delicious tea and

10c

NLY by buying LIPTON'S Can you buy tea direct from the grower. No other tea grower sells tea in Canada. But in the LIPTON package you get tea guarded with jealous care right from the plant to your pantly. No wonder LIPTON'S is the largest-selling tea in the world. No wonder LIPTON needs plantations in all the finest teagrowing sections of Ceylon. Your grocer has LIPTON'S

RED LABEL TEA at 75c lb. A level spoonful of LIPTON'S TEA equals a spoonful of any other good tea at any-where near the same price —Economy !

MAKE YOUR WORK EASY

Have the Hotpoint Electric Goods in your home. We have everything you may need to bring comfort-Irons, Toasters, Heaters, etc.

HALLIDAY ELECTRIC CO. PHONE 94. CORNER KING AND PRINCESS STS.

Special From Our Department

Oyster Linen Squares and Runners, hemstitched and scalloped edges.

Squares 36x36 at $1.75 and $2.00

Runners 38x45 at $1.25 and $1.50 each.

Madeira Serviettes, beautifully embroidered in six different patterns from $6.00 a dozen.

Baby Pillows in Madeira or Irish embroidery, very neat designs at $1.00 $1.25, $1.50 to $3.00 each.

W. N. Linton & Co. Phone 191. The Waldron Store

ORGAN BARGAINS AT

$40 EACH

WHY BE WITHOUT MUSIC

in the home when you can install it at such small cost? These Organs, which we have specially priced for quick sale, are exceptional bargains, and to accommodate those not wishing to expend the full amount at one time, we will arrange

EASY TERMS OF PAYMENT

"KINGSTON'S MUSIC CENTRE" 121 PRINCESS STREET KINGSTON