THE KIWANIAN CLUB PICNIC AT EASTVIEW

A Delightful Time Was Spent on Monday Evening at This Park.

The first regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club since June took the form of a picnic at Eastview Park on Monday evening when the boosters were Kiwanians John D. Boyd, Harold Davis and Thomas Copley, all cottagers at the popular summer colony.

The party left the city between four and five o'clock, the main body going early and others coming in carloads as they managed to get away from offices and stores. About eighty people in round numbers had gathered by tea-time.

The proceedings opened with a soft-ball game between teams chosen by President W. Y. Mills and Vice-President William Moore. Strange straw hats, relics of a style of twenty years ago, were worn by many of the players. The score was so close it was called a tie and a box of cigars presented to each team.

A programme of races was run off, three before supper and the rest after and resulted as follows: Men's blindfold race, driven by ladies—1, Mrs. W. M. Moore and Dr. Broom; 2, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kent Macnee. Men's, running backwards—1, George VanHorne; 2, George McLean.

Needle Threading Contest—1, Mrs. J. H. Sutherland and Garnett Lockett; 2, Miss E. McGowan and Dr. Broom. 50 yards dash for ladies—1, Miss Copley; 2, Miss Hombry. Ladies' walking race—1, Mrs. W. M. Moore; 2, Mrs. J. Asseltine. Men's back-to-back walking—1, Dr. Broom and George VanHorne; 2, A. J. Minnes and K. Crawford.

Three-legged race—1, W. K. Macnee and George McClean; 2, Dr. Broom and George VanHorne. Ball-tossing, ladies—1, Miss Copley; 2, Miss McGowan. Arnell and Hambrook served a splendid supper, which was conducted in the usual lively Kiwanis manner. A sing-song was held, led by Rotarian Jack Elder, a guest, Garnett Lockett and Joseph Andre, guest of the president, who is shortly to open a studio in Kingston.

In the evening one of the cottages was cleared and used for dancing until shortly before midnight. The supper table was laid out on the lower terrace in the form of a "U" and was very pretty. Prizes for the events, together with ice-cream, cigars, chocolates and other refreshments, were donated by the boosters of the day.

SISTERS TAKE VOWS

At Religious Ceremonies Held at House of Providence on Monday.

Monday, the closing day of the annual retreat of the House of Providence, was marked by the holding of the ever impressive religious ceremonies of profession and reception. Six sisters pronounced their perpetual vows and eight received the holy habit of the order.

His Grace, Most Rev. M. J. Spratt, D.D., officiated, assisted by Rev. P. J. Keane and Rev. E. M. Leacey. There were also present in the sanctuary: Right Rev. Magr. Macdonald, Glen Nevis; Rev. H. L. Cormier, S.J., Guelph, director of the retreat; Rev. D. O'Sullivan, C.S.S.R., Brockville; Rev. T. O'Sullivan, C.S.S.R., Edmonton; Rev. A. J. Hanley, P.P., Gananoque; Rev. P. Boulanger, Billings Bridge; Rev. F. D. Hyland, rector of St. Mary's cathedral; Rev. J. J. Keelery, P.P., Stanleyville; Rev. M. J. Brady, Rev. G. T. Martin, and Rev. S. LeSage, Kingston; and Rev. Brother Michael O'Sullivan, Brockville.

A very eloquent discourse was preached by Rev. T. O'Sullivan, C.S.S.R., taking for his text: "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me." He dwelt particularly on the love which animated the young maiden, enabling her to leave home and friends to devote herself to the service of God, in the person of the poor, the sick, the little children, or in any way marked out for her by her superiors. In making this sacrifice, she loses nothing, but gains everything, since she receives the "hundred fold" promised by her Divine Master. He congratulated the parents, who were present on having one of their children called to so noble a life, and the sisters on their extreme happiness, exhorting them to be ever faithful to their sacred obligations and not to be unmindful of those they had left behind in the world, but to raise unceasing supplications to heaven on their behalf.

The names of the sisters who pronounced their vows for life were: Sister M. Grace, Sister M. Carthage, Sister M. Laurina, Sister M. Iona, Sister M. Electa and Sister M. Jane.

MAYOR LEVIES FINES IN THE POLICE COURT

Another Intoxicated Auto Driver Goes to Jail for Seven Days.

Mayor Angrove did a big business in the Police Court Tuesday morning and, aside from costs, collected a total of sixty dollars in fines.

On a charge of being drunk a citizen was fined ten and costs or thirty days. Liquor procured on a doctor's order. Another citizen had been drinking dandelion wine and got into his car while "under the influence." He paid ten and costs on the first charge and will serve seven days in jail on the second.

A large number of traffic charges were laid. One citizen paid a fine of ten dollars and costs or thirty days in jail for passing a street car on the left side, and six others paid five and costs or ten days in jail for speeding. The speeders included a banker, an alderman, a well-known young barrister and other prominent citizens. One of them, with the reputation of being a very careful driver, objected to the charge and the evidence showed that he was going 23.6 miles an hour, crossing no intersections and that two constables took the time.

Doctor Had Wrong "Hunch" About Two Girl Hikers.

Oswego, N. Y., Times. Two smartly attired hikers, Helen Underwood of Colin, N.Y., and Jane Baxter of Kingston, Ont., were picked up on the highway near Sterling by Dr. J. T. McNally, a Woonsocket, R.I., dentist, who rushed them to the office of Sheriff Vincent on the strength of a conversation he heard in the lobby of a Sodus hotel, in which he heard a young man state he was looking for two girls to tell them that a brother of one had been drowned in Buffalo.

Dr. McNally forgot all about the conversation until he passed two young women walking along the road near Sterling. He was coming to Oswego and remembering the stranger's remarks in the Sodus hotel lobby to a Sodus deputy sheriff, he stopped the car and repeated the conversation to the young women and offered to drive them to the sheriff's office here for information.

Undersheriff Nichols on duty at the sheriff's office was informed by the girls that they were hiking from Buffalo to Kingston, Ont., on a vacation trip. The undersheriff called up the sheriff's office in Erie county and the Buffalo police and could get no information of a drowning or that the authorities were looking for the two young women. Similar telephone message to Kingston were fruitless.

The girls then called up their homes as both were safe and sound. The hikers left the Sheriff's office with thanks and more light hearted than from the time they started the good intentioned Dr. McNally who thought he was performing a real service and is now heading toward Rhode Island wondering what was in the back of the head of the young man who told the hotel lobby story.

St. Luke's Moonlight Excursion. A capacity crowd flocked to the steamer Waubic on Monday evening for the St. Luke's church moonlight excursion to Gananoque and through the islands. The popular steamer was a pretty sight as she made her way over the water. A splendid evening added further to the enjoyment of the trip. An orchestra was on board and dancing was enjoyed by many of the excursionists, the steamer returning to Kingston at a seasonable hour after a delightful cruise.

RICH SALT PROPERTY—The Alberta government is preparing to begin drilling operations in the salt fields near McMurtry. Test wells have revealed from 25 to 40 feet of salt at a depth of 630 feet, much of it in the form of transparent colorless rock salt.
