That the Horticultural Society will indeed confer a benefit on Kingston with free lectures on gardening. There are some very beautiful gardens in the city-Just enough to show us what can be done with work and a little money. How splendid it would be if our fine old town had many such gardens to beautify its quiet streets! Prizes for the best gardens would be an incentive, and after the citizens saw what could be done with even a small plot of ground they would want the flowers for their beauty as well as for the

That about 300 members of the Junior Institutes were guests of Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, during the entire day. Early in the morning the girls began to arrive, and, after announcing themselves at the Women's Institute headquarters, proceeded to scatter over the grounds. At noon they were entertained at dinner, and in the afternoon assisted in the demonstrations. A high tea and a visit to the Grand Stand topped off the day for rural Young Canada.
