KINGSTON AND DISTRICT

A Great Bargain in Boys' Bloomers.
Get your boy a pair of these good, strong bloomers for $1.39 a pair, size 28 to 34; just the thing for school. The Lion Clothing Co.

Financial District Meeting.
The financial meeting of Kingston Methodist district will be held in Queen street church on Wednesday, Sept. 10th, at 2 p.m. A missionary banquet will be held in the evening in Sydenham street church, followed by an open session in the church auditorium.

Rev. D. P. Casey Recovering.
Rev. D. P. Casey, P.S.M., Thurles, Ireland, who was operated upon in the Hotel Dieu, is getting along splendidly. He is the brother of Rev. Dr. Casey, editor of the Canadian Freeman of Kingston.

The Schools Open Tuesday.
The public schools and the Collegiate Institute will open on Tuesday next. It is expected that the Collegiate Institute will have a larger attendance than ever. The schools are fully equipped with teachers, three or four new ones in the Collegiate Institute and as many more in the public schools.

Should Stand Together.
The citizens of any prosperous town are always public spirited and united. Stand together, work for the interests of the whole town. Always stand ready to do your part. Don't grumble and spend your time in prophesying failures, but help to make every enterprise a success, be it great or small.

Travelling Is Abnormal.
This has been a great season for holidays. The travel is huge by rail, steamer and auto. The number of residents of the United States visiting Canada is very large. Every day cars are seen from all parts of that country. Missouri turned in one a few days ago. Every province in the Dominion has been represented on Ontario's fine highways.

Engagements Announced.
The engagement is announced of Miss Annie Genevieve MacPhee, eldest daughter of Mr. James MacPhee, Alexandria, to Mr. Hugh MacMillan, of Seattle, Wash., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O. MacMillan, of Alexandria. The marriage will take place early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilson, Arnprior, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel, to Dr. D. L. MacKerracher, Arnprior, the wedding is to take place early in September.

Planning Repairs to Street.
McKay street, Pembroke, will at last be paved from the Canadian Pacific Railway corner to Bell street, the work to be of a permanent character and to cost $74,000. This work will be begun this fall, that is, stones will be got out, and next year the work will be done. As McKay street is a connecting link in the county good roads system, it is likely that the county council will remember this fact by way of a substantial grant towards the work.

Pembroke Building Sold.
By the purchase at Ottawa of the stock, building, assets and liabilities of the estate of Delahays Ltd., by Harry Cleaver, Toronto, it is likely the name of this firm, which has been one of the business landmarks of Pembroke for over two score years will pass out of existence. Several interested parties were present at the meeting of the creditors of the estate at Ottawa prepared to make an offer for the stock and building and Mr. Cleaver's offer was accepted. By the terms of the offer Mr. Cleaver and baby, Adolphustown, spent Sunday at John Thompson's.

Additional Donations.
Frank Terwilliger has donated an interesting lot of relics for the pioneer house on the Prince Edward county fair grounds. Among them a fall, ox-yoke, hetchal, muzzle-loading shot gun, powder horn, shot pouch, steel brand for branding cattle, cast iron bake pot and lid, saw-axe stuffer, candle lanterns, bed wrench and many other articles. The articles, coming from Eden, Manitoba, were donated by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Scott of that place.

Only Women Present.
Rentfrew Model school has reopened with an attendance of twenty-one teachers in training, the majority of whom came from Rentfrew county homes. Last year the number was much larger, with some coming from points farther away. Last year a few young men were enrolled; this year the fair sex only is represented. W. T. Baker, who has been principal of the school for some years, is again in charge. He spent most of the summer vacation as a teacher in Madoc summer school.

Passed At Mallorytown.
The following Middle school candidates of the Mallorytown Consolidated school passed the examinations set opposite their names:
Lawrence Guld—Algebra, physics, Jean Hodge—Eng. liter., Eng. comp., algebra, French auth., French comp. Mildred MacDonald—Eng. liter., British history, algebra, physics, French auth., French comp. Things Old And New
By ELEANOR GUNN

Something Old and Something Blue.
By Eleanor Gunn.
Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. The old adage is as good today as ever and the something blue, more important than ever and easier of accomplishment. Something old means of course the antique fabrics and something blue is of course powder blue, fashion's choice of spring colors. The August bride will not have to resort to a blue parter for her trousseau. Her smart blue topcoat will be an omen of blue skies and its cloth will be no less assure. Madonna blue, some call the lovely shade which is so much in evidence for topcoats worn at Southern resorts this winter. Powder blue is another interpretation. Parish blue a name graphically descriptive to those who know the blue of a Parish picture.

For town wear there are deeper blues, for evening and of course for accessories, porcelain blues and myriads of tones suitable for myriads of types of womenkind. Among which might be mentioned the blue Gobiin tapestry. Tapestry weaves as well as tapestry colorings find favor just now and while one's choice of bags may have turned from beads to embroidery the beautiful fine beaded tapestry bags hand-somely mounted are still a valued possession.

A DECIDED SUCCESS.
Was the Dance Held in Both Masonic Hall.
Bath, Aug. 25.—Rev. and Mrs. Murray, Martinstown, Ont., who have been visiting at T. W. Cuppage's, returned home on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thompson and family, Napanea, spent Sunday at Fred Hagerman's. Mr. and Mrs. F. Mallory
