FORMER OTTAWA GIRL IS SHOT IN DETROIT

Victim Calls Her Lover a Coward But Says She May Marry Him.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 3.—On a cot in the receiving hospital lies Dorothy Hunter, pretty 18-year-old Ottawa girl, with four bullet wounds in her body; and in a steel-barred cell at police headquarters Kenneth Gowlett, 19, her lover, is held awaiting the outcome of her injuries before a formal charge is preferred against him.
Gowlett was located in a house at 2974 West Pennsylvania avenue, where he had been in hiding since the shooting, which occurred on Sunday night.
Doctors at the hospital say that Dorothy has about an even chance for life. Two of the wounds are in her neck, the others in her shoulder and back.
Miss Hunter tells this story of the affair: "Two weeks ago, with my sister, Ida, I attended a party with Gowlett. A discussion arose as to the value of the Dodge home in Grosse Pointe. Ida expressed the belief that it was worth $5,000,000, and Gowlett called her 'a little fool.' I took my sister's part, and Gowlett threatened to shoot us both. Sunday night he made good his threat, but he was too much of a coward to shoot himself after shooting me, as he said he would do. He put the pistol to his head and then announced that he had changed his mind."
Dorothy says that she still loves the man who tried to kill her, and admits that she may wed him if she recovers.
The Hunters are natives of Ottawa. They came to Detroit about 18 months ago and have made their home with their parents at 4225 Fourth avenue. Both are attractive looking girls and are employed in offices here.

LIEUT. LOCATELLI
The Italian aviator, who had to abandon his round-the-world flight owing to an accident.

TO OBSERVE CENTENARY.
Building Still Standing in Which Sermon Preached in 1824.
Cobourg, Sept. 3.—The Methodists of Newcastle are planning to celebrate the centenary of Methodism in that village and vicinity from Nov. 2nd to Nov. 10th. The house in which Rev. Anson Green preached at Newcastle, 100 years ago this coming November, is still standing in good condition and is occupied as a dwelling at the present time.
Newcastle, 100 years ago, was a part of the Cobourg circuit, which extended from the Carrying Place to Bowmanville and as far back from the lake junction as there were any settlers.
There were over 30 appointments in the circuit and these were visited once a fortnight, or as often as it was possible.

McLean News.
McLean, Sept. 1.—The farmers are nearly all through haying. School will start this week with the teacher, Miss E. McDonald, back again. Miss Madeline Brown has returned to her home after spending the past four weeks with her aunt, Mrs. W. Cousins. Mrs. Rufus Wagar and Garnet and Fred Vayvolkenburgh and Phyllis spent Saturday night at Mrs. M. Foster's. Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown and family were at C. Peters' on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. McCulla and two small children visited at W. Hare's and A. Embury's. Mr. and Mrs. W. Cousins and Nina spent Sunday at V. Kirkham's. Andrew Hare, Billy Keller and Kay Cousins spent Sunday at Mountain Grove. Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood spent the week-end at Sharbot Lake. Mrs. Wood is under the doctor's care. Mrs. Alton, Mrs. Hempton and Mr. Hays, all of Tichborne, were at W. Cousins' on Sunday evening.

At Bunker's Hill.
Bunker's Hill, Sept. 2.—The weather has been quite dry in this district. T. Babcock has some men working on the road. Quite a number attended the picnic at Bedford. Potatoes and corn are a good crop. Some of the farmers are cutting marsh hay. Road work of various kinds is progressing in this district.
The Garden Fete at Mowat Hospital will be the talk of the Town for months to come. There will be something doing every minute to please and amuse you. Will eclipse everything of the kind for decades. We are expecting you. Let's go.
