ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER A GUARANTEED RELIEF

"I have arranged with all druggists here, as well as in all other towns of Canada, that every sufferer from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchial Asthma in this city can try my treatment entirely at my risk." Dr. R. Schiffmann announces. He says: "Buy a package of my Asthmador, try it, and if it does not afford you immediate relief, or if you do not find it the best remedy you have ever used, take it back to your druggist and he will return your money, cheerfully and without any question whatever. After signing the grateful relief it has afforded in hundreds of cases which had been considered incurable, and which had been given up in despair, I know what it will do. I am so sure that it will do the same with others that I am not afraid to guarantee it will relieve instantaneously. Druggists anywhere handling Asthmador will return your money if you say so. You are to be the sole judge and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying Asthmador." Also sent on same guarantee per parcel post C.O.D., or of receipt of price, 50 cents, if not kept by your Druggist, by addressing Lyman-Knox Co., Montreal.

Boy's Legs Severed by Train. Ogdensburg, N.Y., Sept. 3.—Falling beneath wheels of a Rutland railroad freight train as it was moving out of Ogdensburg yards cost Edward Brassolis, 12, son of Mrs. Nelson Brassolis, widow, of 1070 Washington street, his legs. They were severed just below the knees.

KINGSTON AND DISTRICT

Acting Collector.
A. W. Cathcart is acting collector of customs during the absence on vacation of Collector A. Strachan.

Goes To New Charge.
Rev. F. G. Kirkpatrick has resigned his charge at Wolfe Island and has been appointed by the Bishop of Ontario as rector of Ameliasburg.

Refund For Tickets.
Owing to the inclement weather, the moonlight excursion arranged by the Kingston Rotary Club on August 22 had to be cancelled. People who purchased tickets for this excursion can secure a refund if they call at Abernethy's shoe store.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Willis, Portland, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Gladys Ellen, to Mr. Ross Herman Wilde, Windsor, the marriage to take place early in September.

What U.S. Revenue Men Say.
The Main Ducks, a group of islands at the eastern end of Lake Ontario, beyond Prince Edward county, have been termed the Bootleggers' Paradise and the Bootleggers' Chamber of Commerce by U.S. revenue men.

Ganaoquo Would Like It.
The Ganaoquo Journal says: Kingston is still agitating for its new hotel. Many meetings have been held, but so far no start has been made. If the promoters would bring their money down here and invest it in a similar enterprise, they would be sure of a good return.

To Stand Before Town Hall.
In Arrprior the German gun presented to the town as a war trophy has been moved from the place near the wharf where it has remained for some years to the town hall and it will be mounted on a concrete base in accordance with the decision of the council some week ago.

Permanent Appointments.
The list of permanent appointments listed in the Canada Gazette for the Civil Service of Canada includes: David J. H. Coughlin, William Harper and James W. Kenny as prison guards, Kingston.
There are three vacancies at the R.M.C. for the positions of seamstress.

Military Appointments Gazetted.
The Canada Gazette announces the appointment as lieutenant in the 32nd Kingston Battery of William Reginald Sawyer, of this city, a graduate this spring of the R.M.C.

Dr. L. H. Leggett, who graduated in medicine at Queen's this spring, has been appointed provisional lieutenant in No. 7 General Hospital, C.A.M.C.

Major G. H. S. Campbell, of the Frontenac Regiment (146th Batt., C.E.F.) has been transferred to the reserve of officers.

Col. J. F. Foulkes, D.S.O., has been retired to pension and is placed on the reserve of officers. To be Col. and to remain seconded: Lt.-Col. (Temp. Col.) A. O. Lambert vice Col. Foulkes, D.S.O., 1st August, 1924.

To be Lt.-Col.: Major H. M. Hitchcock Lt.-Col. Foulkes, D.S.O., promoted, 16th Feb., 1924.

One Month Added to Term.
Harry Whaley had one month added to his present sentence of six months for stealing mica, when before Judge Lavell on Tuesday afternoon he pleaded guilty to escaping from the county jail.

His Honor said he would like to deal leniently with the case, but escapes could not be winked at. He considered his act was one of folly throughout. He pointed out that the escape had been made without harm to anyone and he did not consider a serious offence had been committed, but some punishment must be imposed if others were not to be induced to do likewise.
C. M. Smith represented the accused.

Pembroke to Succeed?
The town of Pembroke is again in a mode to separate from the county of Renfrew in respect of municipal matters. Recently the county council voted the modest sum of $5,000 toward the cost of a bituminous penetration roadway on Miller street, Pembroke, on the ground that the roadway is a connecting link between the county-provincial road at the west end of the town and the provincial highway. The grant required approval at Toronto but the government declined to endorse it, its engineers taking the position that the road is not a connecting link. Pembroke is angry. It has paid toward good roads in the county over $70,000, and has got back only $14,000, which looks like a jug-handled arrangement.

Saved From Sinking Boat.
Twelve passengers and the driver were rescued from Claude Ellis' sightseeing sea sled Mies Thriller, yesterday morning shortly before the boat sank on a shoal near Hart Island after the shaft had broken. The sea sled which is powered by two 300-horse power motors and is capable of attaining a speed of 72 miles an hour was making one of its regular 15-minute tours of the islands when the accident occurred. The boat was just nearing the lighthouse near Hart Island when the main shaft broke. It immediately began to fill with water and slowly started to sink. The screams of the women passengers and the calls of the men for assistance were heard here in the village and soon scores of boats were off to the scene of this mishap.

Late S. C. Storms, Wilton.
Wilton, Sept. 1.—It is with feelings of deepest regret that we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mr. Sim C. Storms, Wilton, who departed this life Aug. 3rd, 1924, at the age of forty-six, after an illness of several months. The deceased was a devoted husband and father, and was esteemed most highly as a friend and neighbor by all who knew him. Being of a bright and genial disposition, he bore his sickness without complaint, putting his trust in the dispensation of Divine Providence, knowing that He does all things well.

The funeral was held in the Methodist church at Wilton, services conducted by a former pastor of the deceased, Rev. W. D. P. Wilson, of Belleville, assisted by Rev. Sford Dixon, of Odessa, and both pastors testified to the sincere Christian faith of the departed, and the high esteem of the community was apparent from the large gathering of friends to pay their last respects. Music was rendered by the choir with which Sim was affiliated for thirty years—always ready to give his musical talents freely in aid of church work.

A widow and one daughter, Margery, are left to mourn the loss of one who was nearest and dearest to them; also six brothers, Peter J. of Santiago, Cal., Robert, of Watertown, N.Y.; Albert N., of Odessa; John G., of Sydenham; Korah N., of Wilton, and William of Yarker. The remains were interred in the family plot, Wilton cemetery.

At Lee Valley.
Lee Valley, Aug. 30.—Mr. Ian McMillan and Clifford Jackson spent Sunday visiting at the island of Killcare. Mrs. William Bell has gone to Hamilton to visit her sister, Mrs. Bolton, also to go to Toronto exhibition. Miss Della Capes leaves on Sunday for her school in Bracebridge. Lee Valley was fortunate enough to secure Leonard Hill, Owen Sound, for this school term. Arnold Williams has gone as cook for Thomas Adams on the Indian Reserve near Spanish station. Stewart Tharret and his cousin from Kingston have also gone to this camp. Dr. G. F. Jones Webbwood was called to attend little Hazel Mollison, who had convulsions, last week. She is doing fine now. A party of young people spent Tuesday evening at M. Spencer's. Mrs. M. Spencer has gone to Sudbury for a few days.

Harold and Fred Williams and Donald and Ian McMillan motored to Webbwood to the concert there. The dance Friday night given by the baseball club was enjoyed. Corey brothers, Espanola, furnished the music. Mrs. F. J. Lee visited at Mrs. S. Andrew on Friday. Miss Isabella Coburn is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Root.
