TERBORO REPORTER HAS NIGHTMARE OVER KINGSTON

Speaks of Large Crowd of Wild Fans When Attendance Was Enough to Make a Good Tug-of-war. The nervous young reporter who wrote the Circle-Six-Lakeviews game for the Peterboro Examiner has conveyed the following impression: "The Lakeviews have to win here on Saturday or they will be fighting with their backs to the wail, when they play the return game in Kingston next Wednesday. By the way both teams are going, it would no be surprising of a fourth game needed to decide the winner, as Kingston, with their hard boiled crowd of fans, expect to scare the young Petes to death when they go to Kingston next Wednesday. "After the razzing the local boys got in Kingston yesterday, by the large crowd of fans, it would nothing but fair if the citizens this city would turn out and root for the homesters, but it is hoped that the fans here will not go at Kingston boys the way the Kingston fans went at the Petes. Since Batstone's gang has been thrown out of the O.B.A. finals and Peterboro has taken their place, the whole town has turned out to root for the 35 1/4 Circle-Six and do anything in their 40 1/4 power to put Peterboro out of the who is still in Europe. who will come with the juniors the Peterboro fans will turn out in a body and support the boys who are on the chase for the Ontario cham-
