STARTER IS WANTED FOR MONTREAL RACE

But Kingston Fair Directors Hold Him to His Contract Here.

Mr. Felix St. Vincent, who is so ably officiating as starter at the races at the Kingston Fair, is in great demand.

On Wednesday morning, R. J. Bushell, manager of the Kingston fair, received a telegram from Montreal, asking that the fair directors release Mr. St. Vincent, in order that he might start the $10,000 race at Montreal on Thursday, but as the races are a most important event at Kingston's big show, the fair directors cannot afford to allow Mr. St. Vincent to leave, and so he will be held to his contract here.

OLD THEATRICAL MAN HERE.

Henry J. Sayers, Ahead of Robert B. Mantell Coming to Grand.

Kingston had a distinguished theatrical man in the city on Tuesday in the person of Henry J. Sayers, advance agent for Robert B. Mantell, who will be at the Grand on September 29th and 30th. It is several years since Mr. Mantell played in Kingston, and his coming is awaited with keen interest. By special request, Mr. Mantell will play "The Merchant of Venice," on the evening of Sept. 29th, and on the 30th will put on "Richard the Third."

Mr. Sayers, who is ahead of the production, is "seventy years young." He has been in the theatrical business all his life and is still going strong. Mr. Sayers produced that old-time favorite song, "Ta-Ra-Ra-Boom d' A" and several other songs.

It is of interest to note that Clarence Gibson, a well-known Kingstonian is now with the Robert B. Mantell company as stage carpenter. Frank Grimshaw, another well-known Kingstonian was also with the company for some time.

Union Jack to Fly. Instructions have been issued from Militia Headquarters, Ottawa, for the flying of the Union Jack daily on the following buildings in Kingston: Armouries, Fort Henry, Tete de Pont barracks, headquarters, M. D. No. 3, Fort Frederick, and the administrative building at the R.M.C., during the winter season. The order also includes the armouries at Gananoque and Napanea.

At Carnovsky's Fruit Store. We will continue to sell plums at 50c big baskets all this week.

BLOTTERS

At Queen's University

On Wednesday morning twenty-one students had registered this week in arts at Queen's. They are mostly local students.

The removal of the executive offices into the new Douglas Library was expected to be made Wednesday afternoon.

Prof. J. A. Roy, who spent the summer in Scotland, arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon.

Rugby practices are now scheduled to begin on Monday. The players will use the former girls' quarters in the gymnasium for dressing rooms. The asbestos roofing is being put on the new rink.

Rotary Club Activities.

The stage is all set for another bang-up luncheon for the Kingston Rotary Club at noon on Friday, in the British-American hotel. The programme for the occasion will be under the charge of the boys' work committee and the special speaker will be E. O. Siltar, principal of the Collegiate Institute, and Mr. J. M. Root, principal of the Model school. Lieut.-Col. R. F. Parkinson, of Ottawa, managing director of the Ottawa Journal Dailies, will be the speaker at the weekly luncheon next week. He will give an address on "Advertising."

OBITUARY

The Late Robert Fairbairn. Robert Fairbairn, a well-known resident of the city, died in the Kingston General Hospital, on Wednesday morning, at the age of seventy-three years. The funeral will take place from R. J. Reid's undertaking parlors, on Thursday afternoon, at Calarqui cemetery. Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson will conduct the last services.

Very Ill At McLean. McLean, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Eliza Husband is very ill at the home of her father, John Smith, Sr. Very little hope is held for her recovery. John Embury, McLean, and Miss Iva Hearn, eldest daughter of Alfred Hearn, Wagarville, were quietly married in Kingston, on Thursday morning, Sept. 11th. School started last week, with Miss S. McDonald, as teacher.

Miss McMillan, aged seventy-nine years, died in a local hospital on Tuesday. The remains were sent to his home, in Alexandria, by John Cornelius and the funeral services and interment will take place there.
