

Soaking takes the place of rubbing

JUST by soaking the clothes in the suds of this new soap, dirt is gently loosened and dissolved.

Even the dirt that is ground in at neck-bands and cuff-edges yields to a light rubbing with dry Rinso. Not a thread is weakened. The mild Rinso suds work thoroughly through and through the clothes without injury to a single fabric.

Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. For the family wash it is as wonderful as Lux is for fine things.

All grocers and department stores sell Rinso.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL IS HELD AT WILTON

By the Presbyterian Congregation—Social Gathering on Tuesday Evening.

Wilton, Sept. 17.—After a week or more of rainy weather a charmingly beautiful day and large audiences greeted the Rev. Robert Laird, D.D., Toronto, on Sunday, Sept. 14th, as he conducted these anniversary services. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to the utmost in the morning when the reverend gentlemen preached on "The Church's Responsibility." In the evening there was a crowded edifice, extra seats having to be placed in the aisles when the preacher's question was, "What of the Man?"

Fifty years have made great changes. "What of the Man?" "Has he progressed proportionately during the half century?" There was no impatience as the large audiences listened for three quarters of an hour, morning and evening to the splendid addresses that went home to the hearts of the hearers.

Nor is all the praise to be given to the speaker. The choir had spent some busy evenings during a busy and critical harvest season in preparation for these services and both in the morning and evening gave two anthems that were much appreciated. The congregational singing too was hearty and spontaneous, led by the choir; and the Sabbath Day offerings were $77.25.

There was another full church at the social gathering and entertainment on Thursday evening, Sept. 16th. The pastor, Rev. W. T. McKenzie, was in the chair. The choir opened with an anthem. Addresses were given by the chairman, Prof. W. T. McClement, of Queen's University, representing the Presbytery of Kingston, and the Rev. A. W. Drysdale, a missionary just home on furlough from the Mary Slessor country in Africa. Solos were splendidly rendered by Mrs. Ferrier of Yarker and Mr. Turnum of Odessa, both of whom responded to success. The Methodist church withdrew its services on the Sabbath that all might hear Dr. Laird, which shows the kindly and sympathetic interest that exists between the sister denominations. The proceeds for the Tuesday evening were $34.70, making a total of $111.95 for these anniversary services.

The thanks of the church are tendered to all who contributed to make the meetings a success.

After refreshments served by the ladies, all left for their homes, glad for the splendid success that attended all the gatherings.

LATE MRS. RUGGLES AVERY.

A Pioneer of Yonge Township Passed Away.

At the home of her son-in-law, Dr. T. H. Crawford, in Calgary, Alberta, the death took place on Friday last of Mary Ann Buell, widow of Ruggles Avery, a lady extremely well known throughout the township of Front of Yonge and everywhere held in the highest respect and esteem. Mrs. Avery had reached the advanced age of ninety-two years and had she lived until September 21st, would have celebrated her ninety-third birthday. Until a year and a half ago, when her health began to fail, she remained most active and her industry during the late war in knitting in behalf of the troops was made the subject of much comment.

Born in the township of Front of Yonge, the late Mrs. Avery was the daughter of John Buell and Rhoda Gardiner, early residents of that municipality. In her youth she taught school in the township and after her marriage lived there until eleven years ago when she assumed residence in Calgary with her daughter. She was the last surviving member of her family, long identified in a prominent way with the township in which she was born and in which she spent the greater part of her life. In religion she was a Methodist, and in other years most active in the work of the church at Mallorytown.

Surviving her are five daughters: Mrs. T. H. Crawford, Calgary; Mrs. J. W. Lane, Montreal; Mrs. R. T. Kenney, Toronto; Miss Rhoda Avery, Calgary; and Mrs. G. G. Lafayette, Brookville.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon, from the Canadian National Railway station at Mallorytown upon the arrival of the train from the west, to the Methodist church at that place, where the service will be conducted. Later, burial will be made in the family plot in Mallorytown cemetery.
