

HUDSON SEAL

There are many kinds and qualities of Hudson Seal made from Fall, Winter and other sections Muskrat. These skins cost much less in the raw state than what we pay for Ontario Spring Muskrats. This makes a difference in the first cost of the garment of $75 to $100. The market is flooded with this poorer stock.

McKAY'S

DIAMOND QUALITY

Hudson Seal (made from Ontario selected skins), is still the leader of Furs for Ladies' Coats. It is durable, it drapes nicely, it retains its beautiful lustre almost indefinitely and it is the lightest weight and best wearing Fur known.

Your inspection invited to examine our beautiful Fur Coats in Hudson Seal, Persian Lamb, Muskrat, Beaver, French Seal, Silver Raccoon.

Our values cannot be excelled for the standard we maintain.

We make Fur Coats to special measure and order in all the popular Furs. If you live out-of-town write for Catalogue and further information.

accredited herd system and are free from tuberculosis.
 The Jersey cow, Jacoba Irene, aged seven years, owned by J. M. Anderson, Barriefield, took first in her class, and this is the seventh first prize she has taken during her life. This cow is a wonder and the owner claims that he can trace her ancestors back as far as the Chicago Exposition. Walter Compton took first on his bull, and Perkins of Pittsburg, got second on bull in the Jersey class.

Flowers and Grain.
 The judging of flowers, grain and wool, which was on exhibition in the palace, took place on Wednesday afternoon and following are the names of some of the winners: R. Alexander first and Mrs. Revell, Kingston, second on cut flowers in vases.

A Novel Feature.
 A novel feature has been supplied at the Exhibition this week when, at the C. W. Lindsay booth in the main building, the entire staff of the Kingston Music Studios gave a special concert. They favored on Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon and will give another concert on Saturday evening at seven-thirty.
 Harold Packer, teacher of piano, played several of his own compositions as well as standard piano works. No comment is necessary on his mastery style. Miss Daisy Johnston, besides well-known classic violin settings, also featured with violin arrangements of some of Mr. Packer's compositions. Harry Hill, director of vocal studies, sang several solos, lending to them his intelligent conception of the classic song which never fails to please those fond of good singing. It was a big attraction for the Lindsay Booth and a pleasure unexpected for the Fair visitors.

The steamer Canadian cleared for Port Colborne.
 The steamer Maplebrook cleared for Port Colborne.
 Marine appraisers and a representative of the underwriters this morning examined the hull of the steamship Jeska, in company with John F. Sowards, owner. While the Jeska and the steamer Landlover, of the Playfair line, commanded by Capt. Kirkwood, were manœvering in the harbor on Thursday the Landlover struck the Jeska head-on on the port side and aft, damaging the timbers above the water line and some of the superstructure. The damage is greater than it appears at first glance, but an adjustment will probably be made within a few days. Mr. Sowards stated this morning that the appraisers had not yet set the amount of the damages.

Purchased A Cottage.
 Hugart Norman, a prominent New York attorney, visited Thousand Island park for the first time this year, and he and his wife were so delighted with things there that Mr. and Mrs. Norman before his departure, purchased the J.
