

HUDSON SEAL

There are many kinds and qualities of Hudson Seal made from Fall, Winter and other sections Muskrat. These skins cost much less in the raw state than what we pay for Ontario Spring Muskra. This makes a difference in the first cost of the garment of $75 to $100. The market is flooded with this poorer stock.

McKAY'S

DIAMOND QUALITY

Hudson Seal (made from Ontario selected skins), is still the leader of Furs for Ladies' Coats. It is durable, it drapes nicely, it retains its beautiful lustre almost indefinitely and it is the lightest weight and best wearing Fur known.

Your inspection invited to examine our beautiful Fur Coats in Hudson Seal, Persian Lamb, Muskrat, Beaver, French Seal, Silver Raccoon.

We make Fur Coats to special measure and order in all the popular Furs. If you live out-of-town write for Catalogue and further information.

HARVEST SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES

St. Luke's and St. John's Specially Observed Sunday as Day of Thanks.

St. Luke's church was crowded for the annual harvest thanksgiving services which were held on Sunday and which are always a very important event in the life of this church. The church had been beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and grains by the ladies of the congregation. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. Bert Cooper, gave a very delightful programme of music and the special speaker for the day was Rev. William G. Swayne, L.Th., St. John's church, Bath.

There were four services held during the day. Three of these were addressed by Rev. Mr. Swayne who delivered messages of a most inspiring nature. In the afternoon he addressed the children of the Sunday school emphasizing the need of training the young in religious things, since they would be the leaders in the church on the morrow. There were 200 children in attendance. At the morning and evening services extra seats had to be brought in to accommodate the many who attended.

The elaborate musical programme by the choir included at the morning service the Te Deum Laudamus in F (Schnecker), by Mr. H. Birchall and choir, the Jubilate Deo (chant setting), anthem, "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" (Mauder), Mrs. A. Hinks and choir, offertory solo, "Behold the Master Passeth By" (Hammond), by Miss Gussie Dempster, the contralto soloist of Gananoque, whose singing won the admiration of all, organ postlude, "March from Cornelius" (Mendelssohn). At evening song the choir again delighted with a programme including Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in G (Mauder), by Mrs. A. Hinks and choir, an anthem, "Thou, O God, Art Praised in Zion" (Mauder), an offertory solo by Miss Dempster, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," (Van de Water), and the organ postlude, "Festive March in D" (Smart).

In St. John's Church, Services of thanksgiving for the blessing of harvest were held on Sunday in St. John's church, Portsmouth.

A service of morning prayer and holy communion was held at eleven a.m. The rector, Rev. W. Hilyard Smith, preached from St. Matthew 13, 8, "Behold a sower went forth to sow."

A children's thanksgiving service was held at three o'clock, the minister speaking on the good harvest of Christian character from the word of God in the soil of a cleansed heart.

Evening prayer was held at 7 o'clock, the Rev. J. C. Dixon, of Kingston, formerly of Amherst Island, being the preacher.

The church was beautifully decorated with grains, flowers, fruits and vegetables. The harvest hymns were very heartily sung. During the offertory, morning and evening, the dust, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," was very well sung by Miss E. Hendrigh and Miss G. Cantrell, the organist of St. John's. The services were well attended and a substantial thanksgiving given by the worshippers.

LETTERS To The Editor

By R. J. Bushell's Efforts.

Kingston, Sept. 22.—(To the Editor): With all my tremendous duties in connection with the closing night of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition I took time to scan over your columns of the issue of Saturday night, the 20th inst. I noted that the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs were credited with the production of the historical pageant on Saturday night. I respectfully ask you to correct that item of news, as being incorrect. The correct version was that I, as manager of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition, interviewed Messrs. Miles and Seabold, the pageant masters, and advised them that I would give $100 to each of the hospitals in the city, the Hotel Dieu and General Hospital, if they would prevail upon the caste to give the pageant in all its fullness Saturday night. I am pleased that they acquiesced, and in due time checks will be forwarded the respective worthy institutions.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I remain, Respectfully yours, —R. J. BUSHELL, Sec. Treas. & Manager, 1924.

Fair Directors Thanked. Kingston, Sept. 22.—(To the Editor): I wish to thank Mr. Bushell, the manager, and directors of the Kingston fair, for the kindness and courtesy shown to the blind people demonstrating during last week. I wish also to express my thanks through you to the general public for their patronage and interest shown in the work of the blind, and it has been a great pleasure to me to be in your city demonstrating the work the Canadian National Institute is doing for our blind Canadians.

Sincerely yours, —G. H. GUSTAV.

Inducted into Church. In the Presbyterian church at Caintown Thursday night, Rev. W. T. McCree, M.A., late of Amherst Island, was inducted by Rev. W. Merrilees, Iroquois, moderator of the Presbytery of Brockville, into the charge of Lyn, Malorytown and Caintown. There was a large attendance and during the ceremony John Beatty and Gordon C. Cumming presented Rev. M. N. Omond, Preecott, the interim moderator, with a purse in recognition of his services. Rev. James McAvoy, Bishop's Mills, preached the sermon.

Rev. Mr. Omond related the steps leading to the call and Rev. D. A. Cowan, Brockville, addressed both minister and people. Later refreshments were served in the school by the ladies of the church and Rev. Mr. McCree and Mrs. McCree held a reception.

Spoke in Gananoque. Mrs. S. E. Revelle, College street, press secretary of the Kingston Presbyterial, addressed the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Gananoque, on Sunday, on the subject of the "Educational work of the W.M.S. in Canada."

This comprise work among the Indians, work among the French and work among the newcomers of western Canada. By the establishment and maintenance of home schools among these people, the women of this society are doing a marvellous work to bring these people to a knowledge of their duty as citizens and lead them to a life of happiness and usefulness in the country of their adoption.

WANTS TO SELL COAL.

Kingston Dealer Applies to the Gananoque Council.

G. W. Richardson, Kingston, who has been soliciting orders for coal in Gananoque for several weeks, appeared before the town council on Tuesday evening to ascertain his position if he brought the coal in and delivered it. He stated that he had made arrangements for the opening of a yard, having several carloads already on the way.

Councillor Kerr did not think there could be any objections to the gentleman bringing in coal. He was doing no more than dozens of other travellers were doing. And if Mr. Richardson had orders booked the council could not stop him from delivering.

The question was raised as to the violation of the Transient Traders bylaw. It was stated that if Mr. Richardson opened a yard here he would be liable for the fee of $150, but which later on he would have refunded by being applied on his taxes.

Mayor Wilson said that Mr. Richardson may bring in his coal, but if he violates the transient traders bylaw he will have to abide by the consequences.

Councillor Fullaw, "There are a lot of people here who are depending on getting this coal, as they will save some money."
Mayor Wilson—The clerk with Councillor Kerr will take the matter up with the town's collector and secure his opinion. Mr. Richardson will then be advised of the result.
