and considerable factor is the circumstance that many European immigrants come to Canada to make their first stage in their ultimate purpose of settling in the United States, counting on their sojourn amongst us to make their entry into that country easier. How many of the latter are included in the figures of "Canadians" who are leaving Canada? From all of which considerations can be deduced that this is a question which needs to be treated cautiously, not reading more into the figures than they themselves conceal. —Le Canada, (Montreal).
