

By the Author of "Madame Claire"

NINA

By SUSAN ERTZ

In "Nina" the author of that great popular favorite, "Madame Claire," again proves herself the possessor of a talent as delightful and individual as any that has appeared over the literary horizon in many moons. "Nina" is a novel that is witty, is salty with keenly realized human character, and that bears that indefinable stamp of smartness that brings to mind a well-dressed woman of the world.

No Doubt Of It.
Young Hopital: "Say Dad, write me a check for fifty, and I'll be everlastingly indebted to you."
Wise Pa: "Yes, my son, I'm sure of that."
—Ernest C. Rutherford.

The Reason.
Morgan: "Pilkins complains that he isn't getting his proper meals these days."
Schuyler: "No, his wife is on a diet."
—Marvin Cregar.

Modern Improvements.
Crabshaw: "So you made a hit in school today when the teacher asked you to spell Schenectady? How did you spell it?"
Willie: "WGY."
—Donald M. Davenport.

As In a Looking Glass.
Modern daughter to her bald-headed father: "Lean over this way a little, papa, I want to see if my nose needs powder."
—Donald M. Davenport.

Brothers In Labor.
Bill: "I belong to the union."
John: "I don't work hard either."
—Edward Pike.

A Vital Question In the Case.
Judge: "Witness, tell this jury your opinion, if any, of what bearing, if bearing may be called, the extreme cost of cosmetics has on such particular case?"
Witness: "Yesir—I seen it myself, Judge."
—John M. Wells.

Reverse English.
Little Wilbur's frequent injuries resulting from riding his new tricycle naturally worried his mother. One day, hearing him scream, she ran out in time to see him rise from the gutter. He had a great gash cut over his eye, and the blood flowed freely. She examined his wound closely and exclaimed: "Thank God it's your head instead of your eye."
In a little while, properly bandaged, Wilbur went visiting his friends to show off his wounds.
"Lawdie me!" said one neighbor, "what did your mother say?"
"She just said: 'Thank God that I got knocked in the head,'" said Wilbur.

In Exact Terms.
He's a friend I praise with vim—
Friends like that I ask of Fate.
Much it is I owe to him—
Ninety dollars up to date!
—L. M. N.

Foretold.
Ted: "As she told you she'd never marry, why didn't you try to get her to change her mind?"
Ned: "It's no use now, my boy. That old rival of mine has done it."
—Clara Brody.

GENERAL HOSPITAL TAG DAY.

The Women's Aid to Collect on Saturday, the 27th.

The Women's Aid of the General Hospital are completing plans for the carrying out of their tag day on Saturday, Sept. 27th. It is the hope of all interested in this institution that the response of the public will be very generous, that gifts to other tag days will not affect this one. It should be remembered that the work in which the ladies assist so materially at the hospital has greatly increased, owing to the extensive programme which has, and continues to be, carried out by the board of governors.

The officers of the Women's Aid are: President, Mrs. John McKay; vice-presidents, Mrs. G. W. Mylka and Mrs. D. G. Laidlaw; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Ellis; assistant secretary, Mrs. M. Hewitt; treasurer, Mrs. Francis King.

FOR EARLY BREAKFAST.

The guest with the "early breakfast" habit, who doesn't like to wait for the family meal, can prevent his own discomfort by carrying a small alcohol outfit and either a small package of tea or powdered coffee, sugar, powdered milk and a few crackers.

GANANOQUE

Sept. 25.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at ten o'clock at St. John's presbytery when the Rev. Father Hanley united in marriage Rita Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop and Frederick Leslie son of Mrs. Alexander Bamford, both of Gananoque. The bride was most becomingly attired in her travelling suit of navy blue polart twill, with neck piece of grey squirrel. Her hat was a very smart black tailored creation. They were attended by Miss Kathryn Brennan and Edward Chapman. Both the bride and bride-maid carried shower bouquets of sweetheart roses. Following the ceremony a dainty dejeuner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Stone street south, where the guests included only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. There was a great profusion of flowers carrying out the color scheme of pink and white in the table and other decorations. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque, and the very large number of beautiful presents was evidence of the popularity of these young people. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. M. Goodwin and Mr. Lunnen, Kingston. The honeymoon is being spent in Rochester and other American cities, after which they will take up residence in Gananoque.

Stirling Reid and mother are spending a few days in Montreal. During the absence of Mr. Reid, his brother Frank, who is spending his holidays here, will be in his studio.

There is some possibility that Blinkbonnie will remain open all winter.

NAPANEE YOUNG MEN ORGANIZE A CLUB

For Sports and Physical Development—It is Called The Frontenac.

Napanee, Sept. 24.—The Frontenac Club is the latest association to be instituted in Napanee and while still in its infancy it is decidedly a lusty infant and much more will be heard of and from it in the future. It will prove to be a boon to the young men of the town who may become members by providing a place where they can indulge in sports, have a healthy and invigorating recreation and have their physical development improved by drill and gymnastic evolutions under competent instructors. Other branches of activity which the projectors of the club have in view will prove wonderfully attractive to young men.

The club is composed of members of "B" Company, Frontenac Regiment, and other returned soldiers; also of members of the militia. The honorary presidents are Col. Partridge, Kingston, and Mayor Alexander MacGregor, Napanee. The president is Lieut. Frank Bell; secretary, Lieut. C. Mills and the treasurer is Sgt.-Major MacGillivray. These men are all in earnest in regard to their undertaking and their goal is success.

Through the courtesy of the Militia department, the club has been provided with quarters in the armories, rent-free. The members will have a large club-room, a reading room, a cloak-room and a toilet-room, the two last mentioned having hot and cold water; the whole being steam-heated. By day the rooms will be bright as they are well provided with windows and at night an ample supply of electric light will be provided.

Already a good start has been made towards furnishing. It is intended to have the walls and ceilings tinted a pleasing color and have necessary painting done. Then the furnishing will be gone on with as rapidly as possible. Good pictures will be wanted for the walls, also a supply of magazines and newspapers for the reading room.

The club hopes to acquire a small, but good useful reference library, and no doubt friends of the movement will help in this direction. The club has the use of the main floor of the armories for games, drills, etc. Proficient officers come periodically from Kingston to impart drill instruction. The members have purchased the necessary equipment for the following indoor sports, viz., boxing, punching bag, medicine ball and basketball. They also intend to train for outdoor sports, good hockey, baseball and lacrosse.

Later on they expect to provide for good concerts, dances, lectures and other attractions, and they even aspire to dramatic entertainments. The formal opening of the rooms and inauguration of the club will take place as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Mrs. Tamblin, wife of J. F. Tamblin, postmaster of Oshawa, is dead aged sixty-eight years. Mrs. Tamblin was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Tuttle, Shannonville.

The school fair was well attended on Tuesday, although the wind was cold. The exhibits in the main hall were splendid—and the children certainly deserve credit for the wonderful display. Greenfield school won the prize for the parade. The Alpha class and the school fair each had a booth, on the grounds and both did well.

A largely attended meeting of the W.O.T.U. on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. S.P. Moore, Mrs. Jonas Hagerman was presented with a star of honor pin. A number of new members were received. Mrs. E. R. Bradley, was appointed Travellers' Aid representative for Lansdowne. Rev. I. N. Beckstead and C. W. Landon are in Toronto attending the synod of Toronto and Kingston.

Miss M. McCormack and Mrs. R. Williams have returned from spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Stirling. Miss Gladys Graham, Miss Marjorie Williams and Edwin Bradley are attending Ottawa Normal and Miss Elsie McNeill, Toronto Normal.

Communion Service will be held in Fairfax Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, Rally Day service at 11 a.m. in Lansdowne.

Edward Deam, Ivy Lea, had the misfortune, on Friday night, to lose his barn by fire, with all the season's crop, implements, and part of the stock. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Services in St. John's church on Sunday next at 7:30 p.m. The rector, Rev. Cecil Winter, the preacher, Guests at the Stewart House include George Evershed, Picton; B. Chowder, Kempville; W. F. Harding, Longueville; George A. Harris, Toronto; E. W. Earle, Cornwall; J. C. Dalton, Ottawa; J. Perrin, Ottawa; E. W. Cooley, Toronto; F. A. Curson, Toronto; J. A. Jackson, Gananoque; A. T. H. Arnold, Westport; E. Morrison, Toronto; Dr. J. De L. Campbell, Kingston.

Miss Grace Beckstead left on Monday to attend Normal school in Ottawa, and will be with former residents of Lansdowne, Mr. and Mrs. John Shields. Dr. J. A. Bradley returned on Saturday from spending a week in Toronto, when he took up a course in dentistry. Joseph Shields left on Tuesday to act as judge on cattle at Sunderland and Campbellford. Dr. J. de L. Campbell was in the village on Tuesday.

The Lansdowne drug store is sold to George Hamilton, Toronto. Several from here attended the horse races held on Thursday in Montreal. A. T. Lawson, Sr., Ottawa, spent a few days at the Stewart House, arriving on Saturday. Kenneth Steacy was taken to the Brockville General on Sunday for an operation for appendicitis and at present is progressing favorably.

Clark Shipman is in the Kingston General hospital. The street roller is operating on King street. F. W. B. Fitzgerald, manager of the local Bank of Toronto, was groomsman at the Britton-Boyce wedding at Ottawa on Monday, Sept. 15th. Mrs. Thomas Steacy spent Tuesday in Brockville with her son, Kenneth.

Fishing by Radio.
Herring fishing off the coast of Scotland has the aid of radio and airplanes. The planes, with transmitting sets, spot the fish and transmit the information to the waiting boatmen. That simplifies and speeds the entire industry.

San Francisco Station.
San Francisco may have a municipal broadcasting station, somewhat like that owned by New York. Appropriations for its erection have been requested of the board of supervisors by Mayor James Rolph.

Radio Hunt is On.
Switzerland has a new "hunting game," thanks to radio. A boat with a small transmitting set is the "prey" which other boats, the "hounds," with receiving sets are supposed to locate. Under cover of night this proves an interesting game.

HE WAS TOO INQUISITIVE!

"Pirate Pete" had things pretty much his own way for 20 years. Farmers along Lake Prien, in southwestern Louisiana, would see him sneak up and kill off their pigs. But the big 625-pound alligator always succeeded in eluding them on the way back to his lair. The other day, though, he grew curious when he heard a lot of noise around. And that was his undoing. When he shot his head up through the sand, a lasso tightened around his jaws. Now "Pete's" making all the fairs down south.

Suffering Was Taking The Joy Out of Life

Winnipeg Lady Suffered All the Misery of a Badly Run-down System Till She Heard of Dreo — Marked Improvement Followed and To-day She Feels Like a New Woman.

"My stomach was out of order," says Mrs. A. Thomson, of 192 Ken-tyre street, Winnipeg. "It would not digest my food properly, and I was troubled with gas and sourness after every meal. My kidneys were weak too, causing pains across my back, and rheumatism also had a hold on me. My feet and legs would get stiff and sore. They would also swell painfully and I was very nervous."
"I have only taken two bottles of Dreo, but feel like a new woman already. My food digests much easier now, the pains in my back have gone and the rheumatic pains, aches and swellings are practically a thing of the past. I feel better and stronger in every way, thanks to Dreo."

Dreo is an effective system cleanser and blood purifier. Besides, it possesses remarkable tonic properties and strengthens all the organs of digestion. It is purely herbal and contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.
Dreo is specially introduced as follows:—
KINGSTON—MAHOOD'S DRUG STORE.
Piquette—Wallace Drug Store.
Oshawa—W. G. Clark.
Deseronto—Mellie's Drug Store.
Dreo is sold by all good druggists everywhere.
