Wedded at Elgin.
 A quiet wedding took place at Maple Grove farm, Elgin, on the 24th inst., when Rev. Mr. Harrington of Newboro united in marriage Mary Delong and Richard Hamilton, Newboro, in the presence of a few friends. After congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left on the three o'clock train for Kingston and a trip among the Thousand Islands. On returning they will reside at the groom's home in Newboro.

Going south to wear out your summer clothes is cheaper than staying home and buying winter ones.

RECEPTION TENDERED.

To New Pastor by Queen Street Church Congregation.
 The reception held by the congregation of Queen street Methodist church Wednesday evening for the Rev. Mr. Raney and his family was a most enjoyable one. A splendid programme had been prepared and it was well carried out under the chairmanship of G. A. Bateman.
 Judge Lavelle tendered a splendid address of welcome on behalf of the church officials and his remarks were ably seconded by Fire Chief James Armstrong, for the congregation, and Superintendent Dr. C. C. Nash for the Sunday school, all assisting and co-operation.
 Mr. Raney's reply expressed great appreciation of the warm welcome and he outlined his plans for future work at the church.
 The Ladies' Aid served light refreshments and the programme was brightened by several beautiful musical numbers among which were: Piano solo, Miss Jean Graves, vocal, "Linden Lee"; Mr. Middleton; quartette, "Deep Blue Sea," Messrs. Middleton, Armstrong, Lennon and McCallum; solo, "Listening to you," Mrs. Crawford; vocal duet, "O Divine Redeemer," Miss Nesbit and Mr. Lennon, solo, "Hops Hussars," Mrs. John Evans.

There was a very large attendance and the event was marked by a fine spirit of good fellowship.
 Event At Mowat Hospital.
 A whist drive was held at Mowat hospital on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. and the event was a most enjoyable one. Fifteen games were played. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. M. Nicholson and the consolation by Miss M. Graham. The gentlemen's first prize was won by Mr. G. Sargeant and the consolation prize by R. Globensky. Following the games a dance was held.

Now for Crawford Peaches.
 Small baskets, 75c and 90c; big baskets, $1.25 and $1.40. Cash and carry, at Carnovsky's.

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

TONIGHT "THE LOVE TEST."
 One of the greatest treats of the local stock season is promised in "The Love Test" which the Theatrical Enterprise will present tonight, Friday and Saturday at the Grand Opera House. The story concerns an old miser who controls a country town and who attempts to dislodge an orphan girl from a rich holding left her by her deceased father. Her lover comes back into town after an absence of three years and, while there are some delicate explanations concerning his railroading to prison to be made, he asks her to trust and believe in him. It is the trust of her love for him, he believes. Molly Collins is the owner of the rundown hotel, struggling for a living against heavy odds and threatened with eviction by the unscrupulous miser. August Brenner, Freddie "Spike" Tryon happens into town bent on opening successful banks, and while putting up at the hotel, meets his old friend Tom Hudson, who has returned to town after a spell at Sing Sing with Fred. Both are confronted with the girl's story and they decide to get her out of the difficulties at any cost. The miser gets hold of some convincing evidence against them and is about to railroad them to jail again when they unexpectedly turn a trick which leads him behind prison bars. It develops that Tryon has squared himself with the courts, is employed by the National Banks Association to trap old Brenner, who has been smuggling funds for some time, and succeeds just when the old rascal thinks he is about to pull his major trick. Florence Lee, the maid of the hotel, means quite a good deal in the life of Tryon, while Molly and Tom also see things the same way, and in due form all explanations are made to the utmost satisfaction of Mrs. Hudson, and Buckmaster, the village constable, baggage master, etc. It is comedy all the way through and is the type which will please opera house patrons.

ROBERT B. MANTELL.
 A theatrical announcement of prime importance is that Shakespeare is coming to town, in the person of that distinguished tragedian, Mr. Robert Bruce Mantell, assisted by his lovely and talented leading woman, Miss Genevieve Hamper, and well seasoned company of Shakespearean players. The engagement is booked for the Grand Opera House, Monday and Tuesday nights, September 29th and 30th, and the plays announced for presentation are "The Merchant of Venice," Monday night; and "Richard III," for Tuesday night. Discriminating theatregoers are to be congratulated on this opportunity to welcome these great artists in two great plays. We take this occasion to say that there is not much about these immortal plays that is new, but the presentation of them differs widely according to the abilities, experiences, and means of the different producers. Mr. Mantell, year after year tours the country and gives to the public the best he has to give—there are few who can give so much—and grateful audiences receive him and wonder again at the wizardry of his impersonations. As for Miss Hamper, she is young, she is beautiful, she is graceful, and she is highly intelligent, with a personality that gets over the footlights in which ever role she is playing. She is popularly hailed as "America's heroine of the classics."

GREAT CAST FOR

GREAT PICTURES
 The theme of "The Ten Commandments" which will be seen next week at the Grand Opera House is so very impressive, and the manner in which it is set forth so marvellously spectacular, that the many important people who took part in the making of the great production are necessarily forced into a secondary place. Nevertheless in hands less able than theirs the splendid work of making the picture could not have been accomplished. Cecil B. De Mille, the producer, and Jeanie Macpherson, the writer of the story, surpassed all their previous work in making this production. The noted players who took part and whose individual work is responsible for the perfection of the whole, were Theodore Roberts, Rod La Roque, Richard Dix, James Neill, Robert Edison, Lawson Butts, Charles De Roche, Charles Ogle, Leatrice Joy, Nina Naldi, Agnes Ayres, Edythe Chapman, Estelle Taylor and Julia Faye.

SWEET STORY TOLD

IN SUPERB PICTURE.
"THE COVERED WAGON"
 One of the most compelling and primitive love stories ever told on the screen, is embodied in "The Covered Wagon"—Emerson Hough's novel which was pictureized by James Cruze for Paramount with a feature cast. The picture will be the feature at the Capitol theatre for three days beginning to-day.
 The romance between Molly Wingate, "the belle of old Liberty town" and young Will Easton, late of Donalphan's army in the war with Mexico, with a clouded record which brings about near disaster for the loves of both, is not only beautiful but inspiring. There is all the strength of passion, the rugged charm and the wilderness sweetness that characterized the country in the days of '48.
 A bitter rival in the character of Sam Woodhall causes untold trouble, but in the end all comes right. The production is one of exceptional massiveness. Thousands of persons appear in the varied scenes, fully one thousand being full-blooded Indians.

all descendants of the savages who harassed the wagon trains as they crossed the plains during the gold rush period of 1849. There are many dramatic scenes, the chief of these being Indian attacks on the wagon trains, a real buffalo hunt and a thrilling prairie fire.

CONNIE IN NEW COMEDY.
 Constance Talmadge in "The Goldfish" is very, very good and the play is a thousand times funnier than its French namesake. The picture is showing for the last time to-day at the Strand theatre. "The Goldfish" very cleverly reveals the evils of divorce, for in it, after marrying two men and becoming the widow of a third, Constance as the heroine returns to her first love and lives happily ever after.

CHEESE PRICE UP AGAIN.

The Figure Was 17 1-16 Cents on the Board Thursday.
 A high price was set for cheese at the meeting of the Frontenac board on Thursday afternoon when 17 1-16 cents was offered and accepted for the 232 cheese boarded. Mr. Gibson began the bids at 16 cents, and also made the last one. Last week's price was 16 1/2 cents. Thursday's price was exceeded on August 21st when 17 3-16 cents was offered. At 17 1-16 cents Mr. Gibson bought Glenburnie, 60, and Silver Spring, 55. At the same price Mr. Hamilton took the remainder: Home Island, 33; Model, 60; Thousand Islands, 39; and Wolfe Island, 45.

U. OF T. HOCKEYIST COMES TO QUEEN'S

Queen's University secured an outstanding hockey star to-day when "Ned" Wright, star wing man with the great University of Toronto senior hockey team last year, arrived in the city and announced his intention of completing his studies in Science at the local University.
 "Ned" Wright has been a popular player in both O.H.A. and intercollegiate circles. He worked up to the Varsity senior team and gradually became known as one of the finest wing men in the game. He can take his turn at centre or on the defence as well.
 With the New Jock Hartly Arena and better chances for practice, Queen's should do a lot more in hockey this season than they have done for some time. They lack a goal-keeper in the absence of Dr. Karl Quinn and there is no sign of "Dunc" Boucher yet but with Reynolds, Bond, the McKelveys and other capable players, the 1925 squad should round into a fast and dangerous team.

MORNING PRACTISES OFF UNTIL FIRST OF THE WEEK

Queen's squad were all up bright and early and out for a five-mile hike with occasional runs on the way this morning and most of them returned and started classes. Morning practises have been called off until the players get their time tables regulated and classes arranged but they will commence again next week. This afternoon an unusually large squad will be on deck and will go at it hammer and tongs.
 The attendance at the practises is growing daily and from the look of the bleachers one would think a game were in progress.

In order to aid the team in every way and ensure that the spectators will be allowed in the grounds, fans are asked to give no audible sign of approval nor disapproval while the players are at work. Some of the boys who do not yet know the finer points of the game are naturally a little sensitive and any sign from the onlookers makes for discouragement. Unless the rule of silence is adhered to Queen's will probably have to exclude the railbirds altogether.

CURED HIS RUPTURE
 I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to Mrs. Eugene M. Pohlen, Carpenter, 4811 Marcelline Avenue, Manhattan, N. J. Botted out on this notice and show it to others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.
 Ring the megaphone and a brand new bear doing the growling. But the baseball fights rather indicate that it is a bad year for champions.

With Canadian Nationals.
 The Montreal Star says that Matthews, former R.M.C. player, who is now in Montreal, has elected to play with the C.N.R. squad in intermediate company.
 Vienna produces operas and sausage, the general public knowing little about what either contains.

"ROUGHING IT" WITH THE PRINCE

This is where the Prince of Wales will spend the greater part of his vacation. It is the house on his ranch in Alberta, Canada. There he will do little but "rough it."

HE WORKS WITH THE MEN!
 The Prince of Wales jumped right in and helped with the work when he was visiting his ranch last year. Here he is seen helping one of his men carry in logs that were to be cut into
