

By the Author of "Madame Claire"

NINA

By SUSAN ERTZ

In "Nina" the author of that great popular favorite, "Madame Claire," again proves herself the possessor of a talent as delightful and individual as any that has appeared over the literary horizon in many moons. "Nina" is a novel that is witty, is salty with keenly realized human character, and that bears that indefinable stamp of smartness that brings to mind a well-dressed woman of the world.

They All Do.

"The boss is always telling us that it is team work that counts."
"I know. He expects every man to work like a horse."—Lawrence Simon.

Disappointed.

Wetzel: "I saw old Soakley coming from Dr. Jagoby's office the other day, and he looked like a very sick man."
Dryman: "No wonder. He went in to get a prescription, and the Doc charged him fifteen dollars for a physical examination."
Wetzel: "That proved a mighty expensive pint for Soakley."
Dryman: "But he didn't get the pint. The Doc said the examination showed he didn't need it."—E. C. K.

Why are those who play practical jokes on others the very first to become enraged if similar jokes are played on them?

The Jingle-Jangle Counter.

She had the ways of a sylph-like queen. Until she stepped on a weighing machine.

Quilts and blankets serve for beds; Dinners have an eye for spreads.

Pigeon-shots are at the traps; Some sports go to shooting traps.

Constantly Exposed.
"You don't look as though you had been away on a vacation. Your face isn't the least bit fanned."
"I know it isn't, but you ought to see the lining of my pocket book."
—Benjamin Cool.

Only Natural.
Bill (at the ball): "That girl who just finished the exhibition dance, is what I would call a 'striking' beauty."
Jack: "Yes; I notice she is making a 'hit' with all the men, too."—Elmer Pearson.

A Tribute.
"I get twenty-five miles out of a gallon of gas with that little car of mine."
"Wonderful!"
"You said, old man. That's some boat."
"I was referring to your imagination—not to the car."—A. I. Lake.

I Like Me.
When Annabelle talks I'm bored as can be,
For Annabelle talks of herself, you see,
When I'm trying to talk about me!
—M. M. H.

Same Old Question.
A merchant went out of the fish business and soon blossomed out as a florist.
People, he explained, were so fussy about what they bought to eat.
His first prospective was an old lady who poked at his posies and asked: "Are they fresh?"
"Madam," he replied sadly, "I stopped selling fish to get away from that question."—Ernest Floyd.

Give and Take.
"I believe in give and take."
She told him with a smile,
And, of course, he fell for her,
Because he liked her style.

But ere many days had passed,
He learned to his regret
He had to do the giving,
While she took all she could get.
—Edgar Daniel Kramer.

Time to Kick.
Gertrude: "As Dolly married an efficiency expert, I suppose he makes her keep a family budget."
Marie: "Worse than that, dear. He's installed a cash register in the kitchen."—Mrs. Nathan Humphrey.

Those "Gift" Cigars.
Flabbi: "I can't understand what's got into Jenks, lately. He's handing out cigars right and left. Can you account for his generosity?"
Dub: "I think so. He had a birthday last week, and his wife made him a present of two boxes she bought at a bargain sale."—J. E. Kissinger.

A young wife's first cherry pie is more to be pitted than censured.

DAWN OF WOMANHOOD AT THE ODESSA FAIR

A Time of Difficulties When Watchfulness is Needed.

Some girls upon the threshold of womanhood drift into a decline in spite of all care and attention. Even strong and usually lively girls become weak, depressed and irritable, and listless. It is the dawn of womanhood—most important in the life of every girl—and prompt measures should be taken to keep the blood rich and pure. If your blood is not in a healthy condition at this stage, the body becomes ill-nourished and other ailments develop. If the health is not maintained by a sufficiency of rich, red blood, all sorts of weaknesses are likely to arise. Remember this, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved thousands of girls and women from being life-long invalids, because of their wonderful blood-making properties.

The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to young women whose health was falling has been proved over and over again. These pills are the most reliable blood builder, fortifying weak nerves and creating the liberal supply of red healthy blood which a girl needs to sustain her strength. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GANANOQUE

Sept. 27.—Dr. S. P. Ross of Philadelphia, announces the engagement of his youngest daughter, Eleanor, to Dr. Joseph H. Acton, of Gananoque. The marriage will be solemnized on Oct. 25th at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York City, following which a reception will be held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clifford Baker, 145 West 10th Street, New York City.
Miss Edythe Haynes is spending a few days in Thousand Island Park.
Miss M. Lee, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss E. Lee, Maplewood Green House, sails for England this week.
The wedding took place at Brockville on Monday the 22nd of Miss Mary McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McNeil, River street, to Stanley Wood, son of Mrs. Wood, First street, both of Gananoque.
Fred Nelson, Ottawa, is spending the week-end here with friends.
Leo, V. Doherty, Brooklyn, N.Y., is spending the week-end here with his sister, Miss Genevieve Doherty at Tremont Park.
Mr. and Mrs. F. LeClair left yesterday to take up residence in Windsor, where Mr. LeClair will conduct a tonorial parlor.
Miss Alma Sinclair is spending the week-end with friends in Kingston.
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Johnston, who have been holidaying in New York City, returned home yesterday.
Mrs. James Root and daughter, Miss Lottie, will shortly take up residence in Ottawa.
On Thursday evening the prizes won in the different golf competitions in the ladies' and men's matches this season were distributed at the Club House, after which there was bridge, when Mrs. Ives Armstrong and F. W. Bell carried off the royal prizes and Mrs. G. Hood and L. S. Barr the consolation prizes.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Britton asked a few friends in to meet Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Britton, whose marriage took place recently in Ottawa. Mrs. W. T. Sampson poured the coffee and Mrs. Byron Britton the tea. Mr. and Mrs. Britton are on their way to South Porcupine where Mr. Britton has been transferred as manager of the Bank of Toronto at that point.
Messrs. W. G. Rogers, Robert Tullioch, Lindsay Barr and F. W. Bell motored up to Picton yesterday to attend the fair.

The U-Hoo dance at the Yacht Club on Thursday evening was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. Among those from Kingston were, Misses Bessie and Mary Grattan, Helen Driscoll, Celeste Whitty, Eva Newell and Chrissy Irish, and Messrs. Cam. Woods, George and Chas. McLaughlin, Ty Hambrook, Mel Davy, Harold Cook, Mel Boyd, J. and M. Lemmon. The music which was exceptionally good, was furnished by the Blue Serenaders of Brockville. This Club proposed holding another dance in the near future.

KIWANIS ACTIVITIES.

Monday's meeting of the Kingston Kiwanis club will take the form of the annual visit to the Mowat Sanatorium. The cars will leave the Market Square at five-thirty sharp and the dinner is set for six at the hospital. The speaker is the Rev. Mr. Raney, of Queen street church, who comes here from the Pembroke club and is the new member of local Kiwanis. His subject will be "The New Alliance." The members are asked to notify Reg. Crawford as to their attendance in order to give the Mowat staff some idea of the necessary preparation. There will be several boosts at the dinner, with prizes for nurses and patients as well as members.

The "Mikado" is expected to be produced about the end of November. Committees are: Chairman, John Austin; members, Jack Broom, Alan Melkijohn, Billy Moore, George Vanhorne and Bert Winnat. The publicity committee: George McClean, Bert Booth, Jack Day, Jock Hutchison and Laurie Lockett.
