"Business is Business"
But Courtesy Pays

OUR business friends, and yours with whom we make transactions, demand that precision of efficient execution which is a part of the regular service maintained by any bank in its daily affairs. To merit your confidence we must go further. The Standard Bank maintains a policy of personal courtesy in its dealings, regardless of their respective importance, which should be an asset in your business as well as in ours.

Child Drowned in Pail.
St. Catharines, Sept. 26.—Robert, seventeen-months-old son of William R. Reid, was drowned in a pail of water left on the floor of the house this morning. The mother discovered the child's position about ten minutes afterward, but efforts to resuscitate were futile.
Special prize given by W. F. McBrown for the best herd of dairy

From out the Depths!

If it should be your lot to go down into the depths and stare Death in the face as many others have, your first thought would be "Are they protected if I die?"
If they are, what a relief to your mind!
If they are not, what a burden is added to your thoughts!
Good health—the necessary requisite to getting Life Insurance protection—may be yours now.
If so, NOW IS THE TIME!
There is a plan for every need, a contract to meet every necessity.
