Miss Vera Michele had to leave Russia with her family when revolutionists started shooting up the nobility. Instead of becoming a lady in waiting to the Czarina she became a college girl in America—at Radcliffe. She's just won the highest position there for herself, being elected president of the Student Government Association and making Phi Beta Kappa.

IN PARIS THE PARIS subsidiary of the Bank of Montreal is situated in a quarter rich in historic interest. From a lofty column in Place Vendôme the statue of Napoleon looks out upon an imposing square the construction of which began in 1686 under authority of Louis XIV.—a square which has witnessed many of the city's greatest demonstrations and which now mirrors the social and business life of Paris.

Here, in the heart of the capital of France, the Bank of Montreal in 1919 established a subsidiary office in the Ritz Hotel Building. In February, 1922, the business of this office had become so extensive that enlarged quarters were opened near by at No. 6 Place Vendôme.
