DOMINION CLAIMS OWNERLESS ESTATE

Province of Manitoba Contests Claim and Case Will Be Fought Out.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—A question of rights as between the provincial and federal governments has been raised by Hon. R. W. Craik, K.C., attorney-general of Manitoba.

The case arose when a citizen of Manitoba named Barrett died intestate. No relatives could be found, and so the provincial government took possession of the estate. The province, however, soon discovered that its right to such estates was not conceded by the federal government, and so the question as to which government has the prior right in such a case has arisen. The amount in issue is very small, less than $1,000, but the case is being handled as a test case to decide the point for all time.

Hitherto the federal government has reaped the benefit of all windfalls of this character, and this will be urged by the federal department of justice as a reason why the province should hand over the Barrett estate to the receiver-general at Ottawa.

It is understood the case is to be submitted to the Exchequer Court in the near future.

of the exhibition. Te poultry exhibit was second to none in the province. In fact there were only two hundred birds less than at the Toronto Exhibition, according to Mr. Bushell. This is certainly a wonderful showing, considering that for seven years the poultry exhibit was very small.

The genial manager of the fair is already planning for next year's show.

TYENDINGAGA INDIANS WERE CONFIRMED
By Bishop Bidwell—The Hymns Sung in the Tribal Language.

Tyendingaga, Oct. 6.—Christ's church was filled to overflowing Sunday morning when the Bishop of Ontario was present to confirm twenty-three candidates, thirteen young men and ten girls, all members of the Mohawk band. Rev. A. H. Creagan, vicar of the parish, assisted in the service and suitable hymns were sung, including No. 1 in the Mohawk hymn book, which was rendered very sweetly and effectively in the tribal language.

The sermon preached by His Lordship was based on the text Acts 11. 47. "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." He dealt with the early church, emphasizing the fact that the Apostles in their early endeavours to preach the gospel had organized and brought into being the most wonderful and enduring society which, to-day, exists as the church of God on earth. The ceremony of confirmation was performed after the sermon and the bishop concluded the service by the administration of sacrament of holy communion.

Hon. Dr. C. C. Macdonald resigned the provincial secretaryship in the Oliver government. He failed in re-election.
