NEWS OF WELLINGTON

To Have Good Streets—Some Old Relics in Mr. Clark's Possession.

Wellington, Oct. 8.—J. E. Clark has, for the past week, been in Toronto and other western places. L. K. Shrouds has been to Toronto and Brantford on a business trip. The streets of Wellington have been curbed, and now the broken stone and dressing is being laid and levelled by machinery for that purpose and the mammoth engine is crushing the stone and top dressing which will make a perfect finish.

On Thursday last Mrs. Cassie Avery was united in marriage to Joseph Bird, Woodstock, half-brother to Mrs. Avery's former husband, John Avery, of this place. Wellington thus has lost one of its popular ladies who will be greatly missed among her many friends. She was good, kindly, obliging and always attentive to the sick. She tried in every way to make life as pleasant as possible. The poor will miss her as she was a blessing to them. She left on Monday last for her future home in Woodstock, where she, no doubt, will be welcomed and will make many friends. She left with the best wishes of all who knew her.

When the streets of Wellington are finished, this will be no mean town of its size in Ontario. Tourist pay this respect to Wellington as they pass through. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Way, Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McCollough this week. Mrs. Fenton M. Mahon, visited her mother at Picton this week. Mrs. John Sword entertained at the tea hour. Miss Lillian Hutchin, Detroit, and Miss Martha Stewart.

John McMahon and sister Edith will move to Belleville in the near future. Mr. McMahon having sold out his business to Messrs Bailey and McDonald. The members of the Star in East Lodge attended service at the Methodist church on Sunday last. About ninety were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cronk and Mr. and Mrs. Sager spent Sunday at Centre at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Giles. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adain, Toronto, were guests of Mrs. Maybee's last week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greer were visiting friends in Kingston last week. M. R. Doyle, Belleville, were in Wellington installing a new furnace at Luther K. Shrouds. Mr. Graham has purchased the John Bryant home.

Rev. W. K. Burr was the guest of J. E. Clark on Monday last. Wesley Nash is a student of the Western University, London, Ont. John McMahon has purchased a dwelling in Chatham street, Belleville. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holmes, Trenton, visited Isaac Jones on Saturday.

Frank Harris is confined to the house through sickness. Miss Marjorie Zufelt has gone to the Normal School, Peterboro. Dr. James Maudeville, visited his mother last week. Harold Davidson who is connected with the Canadian Northern Co., in installing radio's was a guest of his parents this week.

J. E. Clark had on exhibition at the Fair, Picton, in the old log cabin, three articles, first the first newspaper ever printed in America 204 years ago at Boston showing the first steam boat first locomotive and train; the old Liberty Bell, New York in 1850, and the house where the Declaration of Independence was signed; also a platter and looking glass over a hundred years old. Mr. Clark has also a chair, centre table and pitcher over 100 years old.

Mrs. J. E. Shurie was for a couple of days last week at Toronto. Mrs. (Dr.) Mitchell is the guest of Mrs. Walter King. Rev. W. K. Burr spent a couple of hours in the Wellington cemetery on Tuesday last, looking at some of the old landmarks.

SMART COAT DRESS

This really is a coat dress. It is fastened but once in the front and is worn over a sleeveless slip of a different color. Its usefulness lies in the fact that one may have a number of underslips of different shades and fabrics to give variety and change. The lines are very smart and the sleeves show the new "faring" cuff that is considered more flattering than the straight-sleeve line.

SONG

(From "The Merchant of Venice") Tell me where is fancy bred, Or in the heart, or in the head? How begot, how nourished? Reply, reply. It is engender'd in the eyes With gazing fed; and fancy dies in the cradle where it lies: Let us all ring fancy's knell; I'll begin it.—Ding, dong, bell. Ding, dong, bell.—William Shakespeare.

THEY'RE GERMAN WARSHIPS

Germany still has a navy. Though she surrendered a good many of her ships to the Allies after the armistice, she still has quite a few left. Here are some of her battleships and cruisers at anchor in the bay of Swinemunde.
