DROPPED

Celebrating the remarkable flight of Wales and Van Caudenburg, French airmen, Mms. Paulet made a parachute dive in which she narrowly escaped death. The parachute drop was part of an aeronautic feat and the picture shows the daring woman about to start.

VERY NEAT

Dorothy Nestell of New York refuses to fuss with storage or even dry batteries. That's why her set is equipped with an alternating current rectifier of the kind she is showing. The tubes are rectifiers that change the alternating current to direct and the transformers bring the current down to the required voltage, either for filament or for plates.

Delaware and Red Hoyer Grapes. Big baskets pears, 50c to $1.00; big baskets peaches, 75c to $1.25, Friday and Saturday—and another cut price sale Saturday night at Carnovsky's.

Sponge off the children's rubbers occasionally with water containing ammonia. This will keep them from becoming discolored.

Coats that button instead of wrap and are double breasted, are coming to the front for winter. They are very practical.

Find it particularly smart this season when it is combined with a plain material.

$750,000 PICK-UP.
 For the Depositors of the Defunct Home Bank.
 Toronto, Oct. 23.—One of the largest of the "slow" assets of the defunct Home Bank of Canada is going to bring a large sum almost immediately into the coffers of the liquidators, and ultimately will add to the credit of the depositors and shareholders. This asset is known as the New Orleans Railway deal, in which the bank is interested to the amount of $1,100,000.

Step Into Opportunity's Receiving Room

The Whig's A-B-C Classified Section is Opportunity's receiving room. It is where all the best opportunities of this city and surrounding territory are received, sorted, labeled and placed in orderly array for convenient finding—like the stock room of any well systematized mercantile establishment.

Step in and glance around! The first thing you know you will find yourself browsing among the different groups of opportunities with an unexpected interest. Then you'll see some one opportunity which looks "just like getting money from home."

You'll pause, ponder—and plings! And you'll not lose. You CAN'T lose—when you make your selection from Opportunity's receiving room where everything is spread out in front of you, open and above-board.

There's not one blind chance in the whole classified collection!
