AMUSEMENTS
What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"THE DUMBELLS."
The surest sign of the fast approaching fall and winter season is the announcement that the Dumbells are out on the road again for their sixth season in Canada, and that they will be seen here at the Grand Opera House for three days commencing Thursday next.

The Dumbells are offering an entirely new revue entitled "Act High" and from all reports it is the biggest and best production of this splendid company, which has come to mean so much in the amusement life of Canada.

The organization, which is still headed by Al Plunkett and Ross Hamilton, also includes Stan Bennett, Pat Rafferty, Ben Allen, Morley Plunkett and those two favorites of earlier seasons, "Red" Newman and "Jock" Holland, who again back under the Dumbell's banner.

"CHU CHIN CHOW."
The World's Most Massive Oriental Spectacle at the Capitol.

The feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the screen version of "Chu Chin Chow" which as a stage-play enjoyed phenomenal success. It ran for five years in London, three years in New York, two years in Chicago and over a year in Boston. In its transfer to the silver sheet, it has lost none of its magnificence, none of its Oriental charm, but becomes a photoplay of wonderful drama which grips and thrills and is yet relieved by touches of delightful humor. The story of "Chu Chin Chow" is founded on the age-old theme of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves which has come down through the mists of antiquity in Arabian legend and was presented to a wondering Western World by Burton in his translation of the Thousand and One Arabian Nights. Briefly, the story centres round the love of Zahrah, the desert flower (portrayed by Betty Blythe) and Omar; and the deceptions and intrigues of Abou Hassan.

If you have not yet heard Cameron Geddes, the splendid vocalist, who has been singing his way into the hearts of the Kingston people and earned the praise of the local press, you will have an opportunity of doing so, as we have decided to hold him at the Capitol for three more days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"CORNERED."
One of the greatest mystery pictures ever produced will be offered to Strand Theatre patrons for the first time this evening when "Cornered" is presented. Marie Prevost is the star in the case and her work is wonderful. A good variety bill is offered with the feature.

MICHAEL SHERLOCK LIVED IN KINGSTON

Was Killed by Automobile in Ottawa—A Well-known Traveller.

Michael Sherlock, aged forty years, a traveller for the John Deer Farm Implement Company, who lived with John A. Percy, grocer, corner of Earl and Division street, died in the Water street hospital, at Ottawa, on Friday afternoon, as the result of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. John Whelan, of Ottawa. Whelan was placed under arrest and charged with manslaughter and was remanded for a week.

The late Mr. Sherlock had lived in Kingston for several years, making his headquarters here and was well-known to many in Kingston and held in warm esteem by all his friends and acquaintances. Mr. Percy went to Pakenham to attend the funeral.

An inquest was opened in the case by Corner J. E. Craig and after evidence of identification was taken, an adjournment was made until Monday night.

Mr. Whelan, who was driving the car that figured in the fatality, states that he was with a friend and had turned on to Lyon street, off Sparks street, when Mr. Sherlock stepped off the sidewalk in front of the car. He states that his car was not going over five miles an hour when the accident happened.

Mr. Whelan said that when Mr. Sherlock stepped out in front of the car, he veered the car to one side to avoid him, but Sherlock, also attempting to get out of the way turned in the same direction and the car knocked him down, but did not run over him. Mr. Whelan picked up the injured man and rushed him to Water street hospital where it was found that Sherlock had sustained a fractured leg, a number of broken ribs and grave injuries to the chest and head.

The late Mr. Sherlock was born at Fitzroy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sherlock. He is survived by three brothers, Patrick of Pakenham, Joseph and Matthew, in Saskatchewan, two sisters, Elizabeth and Katherine, both nurses in the west, and a brother, T. J. O'Neill, of Pakenham. He was well known among travelling men and also among agricultural implement manufacturers. The funeral took place at Pakenham on Monday.

SPORT

Still Going Strong.
A card from Ray Marchand this morning announced that his West Point soccer team had played a one-all tie with Amherst University with overtime. A marvellous goal-keeper was the main strength of Amherst.

Game At Two O'Clock.
The final game of the intermediate O.B.A.A. championship series will be played at Cobourg on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, according to instructions received by Manager Hartick this morning. The Hussars will put forth every effort to bring home the title.

Back To Work.
The Queen's squad got back to work again on Sunday evening when they returned from Montreal and went into training quarters again. The players are not satisfied with their showing and it is likely that, by mutual consent, a hard training campaign will be undertaken at once in preparation for the remaining battles on the schedule.

Roy Reynolds was on his feet again yesterday and his injured hip is repairing rapidly but will need constant attention if he is to play any more this season. The first two games of the season were won by such narrow margins that they have set the fans to thinking and it will be hard losing and lots of it from now on. Reynolds is the only serious casualty so far outside "Tiny" Adams, and all other minor injuries will clear up within a day or so.

Practice commenced again at four o'clock today.

Harvest Thanksgiving Services.
The annual harvest thanksgiving services were held at Christ's church, Cataraqui, on Sunday. The church was crowded and a splendid sermon was preached by Canon Shatford of St. James' the Apostolic church, Montreal. The edifice was beautifully decorated and many remarked that it never looked so beautiful before. The music was wonderful and a delightful solo was sung by Mr. Harry Wendhall. Many people motored out from Kingston for the services.

And Some Flowers.
A lady reader living on R.R. No. 2, Nepesee, sent to us Monday morning, neatly enclosed in a box, a bouquet of garden-grown pansies and one also of Sweet Williams. The pansies were planted from seed in June and transplanted in the middle of August. Of 125 plants, 75 are still blooming well and look as if they might last till Christmas with any kind of decent weather. Our lady reader tells us that she has never known Sweet Williams to bloom so late before.
