TENDER FAREWELL TO DR. AND MRS. VOLUME

Sons of Scotland, Made a Presentation.

A large gathering of men and women "frae the land of the Heather," filled the G.W.V.A. Hall on Wednesday evening, the occasion being a farewell and presentation to Chief Bro. Dr. D. A. Volume and Mrs. Volume, by the Sir William Wallace Camp, Sons of Scotland.

A banquet of good things had been provided by the ladies at the close of which Bro. Dr. A. E. Ross, M. P., presented Dr. Volume with the past chief's jewel and in a short address expressed the deep regret test by all the members of the society at losing such faithful and valuable members as Dr. and Mrs. Volume had proved themselves to be. Their departure would be a distinct loss to the Sir William . Wallace Camp of Kingston. But like all Scottish the world over, Dr. Volume would undoubtedly adapt himself to his new position and would make good in the new field on which he

There were no better or more prosperous settlers. Thrifty and persevering, they had risen to positions of power and responsibility, in this, the land of their adoption.

Though bidding Dr. Volume goodbye, with the deepest regret, yet it was with the greatest confidence that he would uphold the noblest Scottish traditions in the land to which he goes.

Dr. Ross then presented Mrs. Volume with a beautiful fountain pen, findshed with gold bands and ring. Dr. Volume, in reply, assured his friends that no other place could take the place of Kingston in his heart. Here he was born and educated, and his connection with the Sir William Wallace Camp had begun in his early youth. No matter what the future held in store, it could never obliterate the happy memories of his connection with the Kingston camp, and he urged the members to carry on the good work and hold fast the chains of brotherhood which bound the sons and daughters of Scotland, in this city. He had joined the camp when its ranks were thin and had seen grow to its present large member-be present with them. Mrs. Volume thanked the members for their kindness and thoughtful remembrance. Kindness, she believed was planted deep in the Scottish heart. During her trip overseas this summer in no place had she met with greater hospitality and friendliness than in Scotland.

With her husband she could say it was with the deepest sorrow she was leaving Kingston and the many friends she had made while here. Dr. Volume has secured an important position in a hospital in
