

Life and Letters of WALTER H. PAGE

Walter H. Page lived during a period that will crowd the history pages of the future. He lived history and helped to make it. His life and letters are History, Literature, Romance, Biography and Adventure, all crowded into one remarkable volume. Here is a true and unvarnished history of our own time, recorded in the brilliant letters of a brilliant man—recorded as it was being lived and breathed and passing into memory.

In 75,000 cultured homes are to be found the two-volume $10.00 set of "The Life and Letters of Walter H. Page." A one-volume edition of this splendid work has just been made. It is printed on a beautiful quality of paper from the large-type original plates, with all the illustrations, and is handsomely boxed. It is a bit of book-making of which the publishers may very well be proud, and the marvel is the low price.

Pictou, Nov. 4.—The regular fortnightly Board of Trade luncheon was held at the Globe Hotel on Friday evening. The president of the club was in the chair and community singing was indulged in. E. Roy Sales of Toronto gave a much appreciated address, his subject being "A Message to Business Men."
The Mission Band of the Methodist Church gave a very pleasing concert on Thursday evening under the capable management of their leader, Miss Bernice Woods. Recitations, dialogues and musical numbers formed the first half of the programme while the last half consisted of a very beautiful pageant staged by the children. Over forty dollars was added to the funds for missions for which this band of little people work most enthusiastically. Miss Ruth Jones assisted at the piano.

Mrs. J. W. Brough and daughter, Mrs. H. Beatty have gone to Toronto to spend the winter months. Mr. Brough will follow in a few days.

W. W. Cole has returned from a month's trip through the western provinces.

Three dances were staged on Halloween night. One in the Veterans' Hall, one in the I.O.O.F. hall, and one in the Armouries. Ben Hokea and his six-piece orchestra from Toronto furnished the music for the one in the armouries. They also gave a concert before the dancing.

Arnold Platte and Miss Keitha Platte are visiting friends in Toronto this week.

At the plebiscite 6,340 votes were cast for the O.T.A. and 1,236 for government control leaving a majority for the O.T.A. of 5,104 votes in Prince Edward county, which means that 83.6 per cent voted dry. Not a single poll gave a majority for Government Control.

Miss Helen Walters is spending holidays in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Isadore Vandusen is this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vandusen in Deseronto.

Mrs. Clare Newman gave another delightful tea at her home on King street on Friday evening last.

Nov. 4.—Mrs. Sam Turpin, Kingston, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burridge.

Quite a few from here will go up to Toronto for the Queens-Varsity game next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Charlton, Syracuse, N.Y., are the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Sheets, Garden street.

Bruce Hall, Ottawa, spent the week-end in town.

Word was received here Sunday of the sudden death in Montreal of Albert Rogers, brother of Will Rogers.

Mrs. Thomas Glover and Miss Jennie Rogers of this town. The funeral will take place at the Gananoque cemetery on Tuesday afternoon from the junction upon the arrival of the Montreal train.

The concert in the Delaney Theatre Sunday evening by the Citizen's band was very largely attended and proved a great musical treat. A very fine programme was played by the band, including several numbers by the leader, Prof. Millard Coleman, many of which were of his own composition. Besides being an exceptionally good cornet player Professor Coleman plays almost equally well bass, baritone, and violin. He left yesterday afternoon for his home in Georgia. Mayor Wilson who presided paid a very high tribute to Prof. Coleman as a band leader and all-round gentleman who had made a host of friends in Gananoque during the few months he had been here and everyone hoped that he would be back with the band next year. In responding, Professor Coleman said that he fully reciprocated all Mayor Wilson had said, and as for the band he had never conducted a better musical organization than Gananoque's little band. During the evening Prof. Thomas also favored the audience with a very fine piano selection.

FIRE ENGINE WAS UNABLE TO FUNCTION

At the Wellington Fire—The Residence of Dr. McCullough Saved.

Further particulars about the big fire in the village of Wellington, the story of which was published exclusively in the Whig on Monday, state that the residence of Dr. McCullough was saved, thanks to the good work of the fire fighters. The telephone and telegraph system was badly damaged. It was impossible to reach the village by telegraph, but thanks to the good work of Line-man Wright of Picton, the village was kept in telephone communication with the district. Late on Monday afternoon, Mr. Wright, when speaking to the Whig over the long distance telephone, stated that he had erected his telephone station on a veranda.

No one was injured, but a sick man in the home of Mrs. Ida Ryan, one of the houses burned, was rescued just in the nick of time by villagers. Half the value of each residence is covered by insurance.

The houses burned are the residence of Mrs. P. A. Pettigill, H. A. Shourds, the telephone exchange and an adjoining house occupied by Mrs. Ida Ryan. The telephone exchange building and the Ryan home were owned by Homer White of Bloomfield. All were valuable frame houses, especially the Shourds home. Furniture and other contents were saved by the volunteer fire fighters.

Dearth of water in Wellington was a handicap, the Picton fire engine being unable to function.

DIED AT ATLANTIC CITY.

Robert P. Leslie Sumner at Wolfe Island.

Word was received Saturday morning of the death at the Hotel Ambassador, Atlantic City, from pneumonia, of Robert Peel Leslie, pharmacist, New York. Deceased, born in Kempville, where he was a schoolmate with Hon. Howard Ferguson, was a graduate of the Ontario College of Pharmacy. His pharmacy in New York at Sixth avenue and 54th street, had the unique distinction of being regarded as the only one in the great city devoted almost wholly to drugs, and among his patrons were the Rockefeller family. Deceased was married in Toronto, in St. Paul's Church, three years ago, to Miss Mary D. Barnes, who survives him, as does his mother and one brother, Fred, also of New York. Deceased was a member of the New York Canadian Club and of the Masonic Order.

Mr. Leslie had many friends in Kingston and vicinity as for very many years he had each year spent a month at Wolfe Island a guest at Hitchcock house. His motor launch, the Merry L., was regarded as perhaps the finest of its kind in this locality.

When he left Wolfe Island about Sept. 15th, he was in apparent good health but recurrence of an old trouble required an operation and heart trouble developed. He was to Atlantic City to recuperate last Sunday week and developed pneumonia on Tuesday.

Renfrew hospital will install a sterilizer.

"Tired and Worried Nervous and Despondent"

Mrs. M. Chevalier, Belle River, Ont., writes:
"For eight years I suffered from despondency and nervousness. Sometimes I could not sleep at night for worrying and the next day I would be so tired that my work was a burden to me. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say I am now entirely relieved of the nervousness from which I used to suffer, and things do not worry me as they used to."

"Dr. Chase's Ointment also relieved me of eczema on my arms, which had bothered me for three years. My house is never without Dr. Chase's Medicines."

According to Capt. Hurley, who discovered "The Lost Tribe" in New Guinea, there are plenty of dusky cannibal maidens just as clever as many found in Ziegfeld's Follies. Here are some dancers who were "shot" by Hurley. His sensational film thriller comes to the Grand Opera House for three days, commencing Thursday, November 6th.
