

THE SOLAR "SHADOW PATH"

Radio fans along this path, and even elsewhere, will watch what effect the solar eclipse has on radio. This is the sun's shadow path where the total eclipse will be observed. From the black line eastward the eclipse will start with the rise of the sun. West of the line, the eclipse will have started before the sun's rise. The eclipse will be on Jan. 24th next.

WELLINGTON'S BAD FIRES.

The Recent One Was The Third In Village History.

Wellington, Nov. 4.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of Wellington, occurred on Monday afternoon. Mrs. F. Pettigill, West Wellington, was burning leaves at the rear of her dwelling near her barn. Leaving her work for about five minutes, she returned to find that the fire had spread. A neighbor, seeing water was danger, ran for some water, to put the fire out, but before he could return the fire had spread to the barn and it was soon past control. Harry Short's barn close to Mrs. Pettigill's was also soon in flames and beyond control. The wind was blowing from the south-west and soon spread to the fine home of Mr. Short. Mrs. Pettigill's house caught fire next.

Just west of Mrs. Pettigill's, was S. P. Morden's large brick dry-goods store. By covering the roof with carpets and sacks saturated with water, the building was saved. The telephone building next to Mr. Short's, took fire and was soon burned to the ground. The next building was Dr. McCullough's fine brick residence, which was soon in danger, but through plenty of water and hard work by the fire-fighters, it was kept under control.

The Wellington fire-fighters did good work while the Bloomfield engines got to the scene of the fire in time to render valuable assistance. While Dr. McCullough's home was saved, it was damaged pretty badly and there was no insurance covering it. The other buildings were insured.

Mr. Short was the heaviest loser, having just got his supply of coal in, twelve tons, and it is still burning.

There have been two other fires that were more destructive than the present one, when Messrs. Flager and Clark's store, a frame building adjoining Charles Cunningham's tin and stone building was destroyed, also J. F. Clark's building adjoining the Boyd Bros. blacksmith shop, adjoining was the old frame building, in which the late Donald Campbell lived. Adjoining this building was a large frame drug store. This was a total loss.

The next big fire was seven years ago, when the Hotel Alexandria and J. E. Clarke's brick dwelling were consumed by fire. Both of these former fires were greater than the present one.

The end of the town where the late fire took place, looks desolated and sympathy is extended to those who suffered loss.

SEARCHING CHINESE FOR WEAPONS

The long war starting in New York has broken out in Chinese quarters in a dozen different cities. Police are patrolling the "Chinatowns" in all of them. Here a Chicago policeman is seen searching a Chinese for weapons. Similar scenes are being enacted in practically every large city where there is any considerable number of orientals living.

The funeral of the late John Shurie was one of the largest that ever took place in Wellington. About 275 Masons were present and followed the remains to the Wellington cemetery. The deceased was well known all over the province and many Kingston people know him. A great number attended the funeral from Toronto, Belleville and other places along the line. Jack will be missed greatly. He was generally liked by the young and old. He was a genial, courteous, and pleasing man and was highly respected by everyone. His wife and family has the deepest sympathy of his numerous friends. He was a Mason, past master and deputy grand master.

The fowl dinner held in the school room of the M. E. church was largely attended. They realized $196. Following the dinner all retired to the body of the church where a splendid programme was enjoyed.

TRAVELLED THE WORLD BUT NEVER FOUND Anything to Equal Zam-Buk

Mr. Henry C. Davis, a widely-travelled railway engineer, now of South 17th St., Kansas City, U.S.A., writes that he has found nothing in any quarter of the globe that compares with Zam-Buk for healing. He says:—"As a first-aid I have used Zam-Buk in innumerable instances for cuts, wounds, bruises and similar injuries sustained in my engineering work.

A REAL ANTISEPTIC HEALER.

"I also tried Zam-Buk for a rather common trouble in this country—skin poisoning by poison ivy. Disfiguring sores appeared on the hands, and other parts of the body after being in contact with the poisonous plant. Zam-Buk speedily cooled the affected surfaces, drew the poison right out, and healed my skin perfectly.

"Another time, whilst travelling, I suffered from a virulent outbreak of eczema, contracted through careless use of a public towel. I had medical advice and tried in addition, many special remedies without finding the hoped-for relief. Zam-Buk treatment took away all the pain and burning irritation, and quickly purified and healed the deep troublesome sores. It made my skin quite well."
