 Christian Endeavor Convention on Monday night at St. James' Square Presbyterian church, Toronto, Mr.
 R. H. Trener, Kingston, was elected editor of the Herald, the C. E. organ.

Road Finally Finished.
 The grading of the roadway and the placing of stone on the highway through Deseronto is completed.
 The expectations are to continue road building from the Slash road to Marysville, which, if started, would take a period of almost two months for completion.

Fifty-Third Wedding Anniversary.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frazer, Brockville, on Friday quietly observed the fifty-third anniversary of their wedding, receiving the congratulations of their many friends.
 An anniversary dinner was served and the evening was pleasantly spent by the bride and groom who were joined by a number of friends.

The First Actual Record.
 The first actual record of Capitular work in the province of Ontario, and under supreme authority, is in the issue of a warrant by R. W. Bro.

 William Jarvis, provincial grand master, to a Royal Arch Chapter at Kingston, on the 7th of June, 1795, in connection with a Craft Lodge, No. 6, now Ancient St. John's, No.
 3, G. R. C., Kingston.

An Early Vessel Built Here.
 As one of the initial steps in his scheme of exploration, the immortal La Salle built the Frontenac at "The Cabins," which was the early day name for the present city of Kingston. The Frontenac was of ten gross tons and came into being expressly to carry the supplies and equipment for the "Griffin," which La Salle and his cohorts built on the Niagara River above the Falls.

Gone Into Winter Quarters.
 The steamers Ruby and Thompson of the George Hall fleet, are being placed in winter quarters at the Ogdensburg shipyard, as they have completed their season in the coal trade between Rochester, Prescott and Ogdensburg and are not adapted to canal service. The other vessels of the Hall fleet will remain in commission until the commencement of December.

Pembroke Lady Hurt.
 When opening the gate to let the cattle through, Mrs. Archie Hawthorne, Pembroke, was knocked down by one beast and trampled on by several more. The cattle were apparently started by a dog behind them. Mrs. Hawthorne was rushed to the Cottage Hospital, Pembroke, and it was found she had sustained painful injuries.

The Late Howard Bender.
 Howard Bender, who disappeared on the evening of September 10th and whose body was found a short distance from Parham on Saturday morning last, came from Timmins by C.N.R. as far as Port Arthur and then took the C.P.R. to Renfrew and transferred for Sharbot Lake where he met his brother. The two went to the Parham fair.
 The deceased is survived by his parents and six brothers, Ross Bender, of Toronto; Andrew, of Tim-mins; Percy, Ernest, Morris and Frank all around home.

A Venerable Building.
 Mrs. F. M. Purvis, Malloytown, writing to the Christian Guardian renewing her subscription, says:
 "My late husband's father, (G. G.
 Purvis) was born in Toronto, 1799, and becoming a class leader in the church here, when a young man, was, I presume, one of your earliest subscribers. The old stone farmhouse which he built, and in which the Ryerson brothers have all slept, is still standing here, and is occupied by the third and fourth generation of the family, and is often visited by the fifth generation."

A Death of Men.
 The Toronto Telegram says: "In a recent speech at a meeting in St.
 John's church in Toronto an "anti" speaker declared that Knox, Queen's and Montreal theological colleges would be "anti" colleges. If such a thing happened there would not be enough Anti-Union ministers who ever took first-class honors in their university courses to fill the chairs in these colleges." Thus does a Presbyterian who knows the situation comment on the death of men of mark on the anti side.

Loyal To Duty.
 Mrs. Joseph Roberts, Findley, who met death on Sunday morning, Nov. 2nd, when she and her husband and two children were instantly killed by a C.N.R. engine, had been in Kingston on a Saturday evening visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Alfred street. Mrs. Roberts had been asked by her parents to remain over until Sunday, but she remarked that she considered her duty to be at Sunday school service in the Woodburn Methodist church with her children on Sunday morning. It was when she was on her way to the church to attend the service that she met her death.

Committed to Hospital.
 Constable Robert Scott, Portland, and County Constable Henry Dyer arrested Wilfred Barlow on a charge of brandishing a gun and with being insane and dangerous to be at large. The arrest was made at the home of the man's father, Joseph Barlow, three miles north of Delta.
 He was armed when taken into custody. Barlow was standing by the stove cooking the evening meal when surprised by the officers and was alone in the house at the time.
 His mother and sister having left the premises and being at the home of a neighbor at the time. He has been acting strangely for the past year and had terrorized his relatives and residents of the district by his actions. Barlow was committed to the Ontario Hospital, Brockville.

Holland-Brooks Wedding.
 On Tuesday evening, Miss Katherine Brooks became the bride of Mr.
 William Holland, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Holland, Cherry street. The bride looked very becoming in a blue dress of satin charmeuse and carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses. The ceremony, which took place in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends, was performed by Rev. Frank Sanders, of Calvary church. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Holland, sister of the groom, while Mr. D. Barrett, of Inverary, acted as best man. Following the ceremony all present sat down to a dainty wedding supper.
 The young couple were the recipients of many useful and pretty gifts, and all present joined in wishing them much happiness.

 Notice the pens in the hands of Usually, it's a Waterman's A lost or damaged pen, perhaps an unsatisfactory one, led them to Waterman's.

 They became pen-wise. With Waterman's they stayed. It is their pen to-day.

History repeats itself. Sooner or later, a Waterman's will come your way.
 You will appreciate its "fit" in the hand; the larger ink container; the smooth, steady flow; the easy-writing, everlasting tip.
 And when you come to veteran years, you will be a veteran Waterman's user too.
