What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

TOM MIX IN NEW ZANE GREY FILM

At the Capitol Theatre Starting Tomorrow.

The millions who have read Zane Grey's thrilling novel, "The Last of the Duanes," should welcome the screen version starring Tom Mix, which opens a three days' run at the Capitol Theatre starting tomorrow.

Those who have not had the pleasure of reading the book should take the opportunity the film offers to get a true glimpse of Texas in the old days. "The Last of the Duanes," showing the passing of the last frontier, fits Mix like a glove, for Tom is the typical frontier type.

Buck Douane appears to be a rather timid young man when the picture opens. Seems as though everybody else has notches on his gun and callouses on his knuckles. But Buck doesn't fight. Even at a dance, he permits a range bully to get away with everything, including the girl.

But Buck has promised his mother he won't fight. She lost her husband the way after he had cut a dozen notches in the handle of his Colt. She doesn't want her son to grow the same way. But right there you know that with Tom Mix cast as Buck Douane, something has to happen.

It does. Buck has inherited his father's lightning hand and sure eye. When the smoke clears away Zuck rides into the outlaw country until the trouble blows over. There he meets again the little girl who had driven through the Duane ranch some months earlier. Jenny, the girl, now is a captive on the ranch of a bandit leader. Buck rescues her and finds himself in love.

A series of thrilling incidents including a desperate battle by Tom against bandits, a kidnapping, the escape and pursuit, particularly the activities of the star, crowd one another with almost bewildering rapidity. Tom's horsemanship on the speedy, surefooted Tony will awaken a fine enthusiasm.

It would not do to spoil the surprise at the end of the picture by relating it here. But, like a rainbow after a storm, this film sends a brilliant ray across the entertainment horizon. Marfan Nixon as the leading lady for Tom Mix is a bit of sunshine by herself.

SPORT

K.C.I. Was Defeated.

As a result of their 13-5 victory over Kingston C. I. in the Intercollegiate O.R.F.U. game at Riverside Park on Monday the Peterboro Collegiate team will have an eight-point lead to work on in the second game of the series in Kingston, on Saturday.

Bouquets Don't Tempt Queen's.

Queen's Athletic Board Meets. A meeting of the Queen's Athletic Board of Control has been called for Wednesday afternoon when the matter of the Queen's-Tiger game will be considered. It is almost certain that Queen's will decide to play the game.

Queen's II Vs. St. Michael's.

Queen's intermediate rugby team will go to Toronto on Sunday next for the purpose of playing the return game of the finals of the Intercollegiate Intercollegiate rugby union with St. Michael's on Monday afternoon at the Varsity stadium. The Queen's team is going to Toronto with a margin of eleven points, and is hopeful of holding the lead and returning to Kingston with the Intercollegiate honors. The team came out of the game on Monday last without any injuries, and should go to Toronto in the pink of condition.

The Jock Harty Arena.

Although no official date for the opening of the new Jock Harty arena has been announced, the contractors state that the building will be completed and ready for the opening the first week in December. The men engaged in putting the artificial ice plant in shape have more than half of the nine miles of pipe in place, and hope that this work will be completed by the end of the week. Then the testing process, which will take one week, will commence. The plastering is nearly all finished, and carpenters are busy putting the dressing rooms in shape. After the testing, the carpenters will finish the wood work around the ice surface. The British Columbia lumber which will be used for this purpose, has arrived and will only require a couple of days to put in place.

COST DETROIT PENNANT.

So Cobb Says Over Failure of South-paw Joe Pate, Veteran Texas League Star, to Join Tigers.

(By NEA Service.)

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 12.—"If you hadn't acted so bull-headed and refused to join my club, Detroit would be playing New York, in place of Washington."

It was Tyrus Raymond Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, addressing Joe Pate, veteran southpaw star of the Fort Worth Panthers, five-time Texas League champions, who recently beat Memphis for the Dixie title.

Pate was bought by Detroit from Fort Worth early in the 1924 season, but Joe refused to join the Cobblers.

"My battery business here needs me and I'll stay with the Panthers," Pate told the management of the local club.

Recently, Pate and Clarence Kraft, minor league homerun king and star first baseman of the Fort Worth team, who knocked 55 four-baggers during the 1924 campaign, attended the world series.

And Cobb didn't overlook the opportunity to tell Pate about it.

Joe won 30 games in the season just closed and starred in the Dixie series with two victories and a tie. He has been picking for Fort Worth for seven years and has not won less than 25 games in any one season.

CLUBS ANXIOUS TO TRADE FOR PITCHER SHOCKER.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—Urban Shocker, generally considered the smartest pitcher in the American League, is said to be on the market.

Report has it that the St. Louis Browns would listen to any trade talk that would give that club anything like a fifty-fifty break.

Shocker, it will be remembered, did not sign with the Browns until just before the opening of the season. He had asked Judge Landis to declare him a free agent, because he had been heavily fined for inebriation on taking his wife on an eastern trip of the club.

No doubt Shocker did not have his heart in his work last year because of this trouble. The season's record would make it seem that way.

Shocker, it is said, would like to play for his old manager, Lee Fohl.

JOE PATE

WHO'S FASTEST STROKE MAKER ON GOLF LINKS?

Boston, Nov. 12.—Cyril Walker, open golf champion, is generally classified as the slowest golfer in the world.

The title of fastest golfer is in dispute.

Many claim George Duncan of England is the quickest shot-maker in the game. Duncan wastes no time on wigglers or waggles. His procedure consists in stepping up to the ball and swatting it pronto.

Jess Sweetser, former amateur champion, is one of the fastest playing stars in this country.

J. Woody Platt, the Philadelphia amateur, is another speed merchant on the links.

Canadain Pacific Railway earnings for the week ending November 7th, 1924: $4,507,000.00; decrease $890,000.00.

Two young school teachers were killed when their auto was struck by a Long Island railroad train near Hewlett, N.Y.

Secunderabad, India, Nov. 12.—An epidemic of bubonic plague, which has already caused four thousand deaths, has broken out in the native quarters of Trimpathi, near here.

One of the victims was a British soldier.

No doubt George Sisler would listen to a trade that would give him Howard Ehmke. It is doubtful if he would be interested in any one else on the Red Sox club.

Several other American League clubs no doubt will try to outbid Boston if Shocker is placed on the market.

GREYHOUNDS MAY SEEK MEMBERSHIP IN O.H.A.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 12.—It is understood that at the N.O.H.A. meeting at North Bay on Nov. 15th, Port Arthur and Fort William will have a representative present to discuss the matter of forming a league composed of the lake-head cities, Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury. Such a group was decided upon two years ago, but when all was ready the lake-head teams jumped to the Manitoba League.

It is felt here that the lake-head looks upon the Soo as a drawing card through its prestige as Allan "Cupholders," and a grouping with the Soo would boost the gates. However, any advance along the line of a grouping as suggested would have to come from the lake-head.

It is possible if there is difficulty in securing a fairly strong group in the North that the Soo will apply for membership in the O.H.A.

AT QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY

By Our Student Correspondent.

The regular meeting of the Men's Debating Union on Tuesday night heard an instructive address on "The Nature of Proof" by Dr. W. E. McNeill. At the same meeting a students' mock parliament was organized.

Two students, a final year science man and a fourth year medical, undertook to walk to Ottawa to spend the week-end. On the way there they were assisted much by auto-lets but they walked the most of the distance back, leaving Ottawa about 8.30 Monday morning and reaching Kingston in the evening.

Target practice for the O.T.C. is to be held twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday afternoons, beginning next Friday on the top floor of the old Arts building.

IN MARINE CIRCLES

On account of the heavy wind which has been blowing on the lake during the past couple of days, a number of steamers, including the Eugene Roberts, Okaton and Saskatoon, have taken shelter in Kingston harbor.

The steamer Yorkminster arrived from Oswego with a cargo of coal for the Sowards Company.

STRAND HAS CURWOOD'S "BLAZING BARRIERS"

James Oliver Curwood's greatest story, "Blazing Barriers," opens at the Strand Theatre to-day. A thrilling story such as only this great author could pen, portrayed by an amazing cast headed by Lew Cody, such is "Blazing Barriers." Don't miss it.

Judges From Frontenac.

Three young men from the county of Frontenac will be selected to go to Toronto to take part in the judging at the Royal Agriculture Winter fair which opens next week. The judging will commence on Monday, and the Frontenac team will likely go up on Sunday. The following names have been submitted to the department, and it is not yet known which three will go: James Henderson, James McLean, Edward Healy, Clifford Barr, Harvey McDonald and Leslie Moreland. Last year thirty-three counties were represented in teams of three young men selected from each.
