BIRTHS

COX—At Kingston General Hospital on November 15th, 1924, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox, (nee Mary Phillips), a son, Arthur Thomas.

MARRIAGES. DINE—O'NEILL—In Kingston, on Oct. 20th, 1924, at the Archbishop's Palace, by the Rev. Father Lacey, Loretta, daughter of O'Neill to Charles Walter Dine, both of this city.

DEATHS. SLOAN—At Sandhurst, on October 10th, Thomas Sloan, aged 79 years.

IN MEMORIAM. SOMERVILLE—In loving memory of Mrs. Francis Somerville, who passed away November 15th, 1923.

This day brings back sad memory. Of one who has gone to rest. And those who think of her to-day. Are those who loved her best. Taken home without a sigh. We could not think her life was ended. For she never said good-bye. Yes, we miss her well-known footsteps. And the face we used to greet. She was a loving mother. A mother, kind and true. No morning dawns, no night returns. But what we think of you. Sadly missed by husband, sons and daughter.

THE TOWN WATCHMAN

There is another advantage of having an education. When you go to penitentiary you have every chance of being appointed to a clerkship.

So long as there is honest administration, the people of Kingston will hardly work up much enthusiasm over municipal government. They certainly have no ground of protest over the civic expenditures. Value is received for every dollar expended.

Kingston has too strict a civic audit to permit of such things occurring here as happened in Hamilton. And if has honest officials, too.

It is noticeable that the Presbyterian and Methodist churches of late have extended the introductory portion of their divine service and shortened the sermon. In Presbyterian churches, for instance, it is common for the morning sermon to begin until fifty-five minutes before the service starts, necessitating it being shortened as compared with the oldtime sermons.

People are wondering if the United Church of Canada will fix the morning service for 10.30 o'clock instead of 11 o'clock. Many think the change would be beneficial. Thirty years ago, most Kingston church services on Sunday were held at 10.30 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

With Thanksgiving day hereafter fixed on a Monday, there is little hope of holding church services on that day. Ministers generally will make the preceding Sunday services suffice. Hence Thanksgiving day becomes merely a holiday.

The town of Picton is becoming quite old-fashioned with its spelling matches and mouth organ contests. Wonder has Picton heard of the game of mah jong? Most likely they still play bridge there.

A Glenburnie man remarks that the good old return. "We had only fourteen majority against the O. T. A." he said to the Watchman, and he felt very sorrowful, for years ago there was no division in Glenburnie on the liquor question.

Most of the Sunday schools failed last Sunday afternoon to have any special reference made to armistice day, says an officer of a school, who regrets that special services for the young were not held. He is right.

Frontenac county has now taken to holding plowing contests since Kingston has stolen its quilts' play-ers. That is much better than manufacturing bootleg whiskey.

The anti-union Presbyterians very rightly object to being termed "revolvers" and likened to the party in a southern republic, which, when defeated at the polls, retires to the hills to continue its fight against the victors.
