What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

THE MIKADO.

The music lovers, shoppers and people who, on passing up and down Princess street in front of the Lindsay Piano Company display rooms, have heard wonderful airs and melodies floating from the open window of the top floor; have wondered who the artist was. Very few have known that the rooms above the Lindsay store is the private studio of Dr. Joseph Andre, the distinguished director of the forthcoming Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "Mikado."

Prof. Andre has produced the Mikado on many occasions. In 1823, under his direction, it ran in Johannesburg, South Africa, for two weeks, enjoying the patronage of thousands. The Kingston Kiwanis Club, under whose auspices the opera is being given, is indeed fortunate in securing the services of this conductor, who will present the opera to the Kingston public on the 24th, 25th and 26th of November.

In addition to the features of the opera itself there will be several intermission numbers put on by Kiwanis and other Kingston artists, among them the song and chorus, "A Canadian Girl for Me," by Jack Elder and twenty girls in summer costume, and the rousing song, "Busters We," by thirty-five Kiwanis. It is expected that the Grand Theatre will be especially decorated for the occasion.

QUEEN'S CHAMPIONS GUESTS AT SYRACUSE

They Saw Two American Colleges Play Rugby on Saturday Afternoon.

Queen's, Intercollegiate rugby champions, were the guests of the University of Syracuse on Saturday afternoon at the game between the Syracuse and Niagara College, played at Syracuse, N.Y. The contest was a preliminary for the event of the rugby season between Colgate and Syracuse, which is slated for Saturday next. The Queen's men were given an opportunity to compare the American game with that played on this side of the line, in which the local university gridiron representatives have proved themselves so outstanding. The boys report that they enjoyed themselves immensely, the trip having broken the grind of a strenuous rugby season.

Coach W. P. Hughes accompanied the team to Syracuse. It is reported in Syracuse that the hockey team is planning to invade Canada for a series of games with Canadian universities before the opening of the Intercollegiate schedule.

The Tickets Are Here.

The Queen's Athletic Board of Control announced on Monday morning that the tickets for the Queen's-Hamilton Tiger game in Toronto on Saturday next had arrived here. It was stated that all those wishing tickets for the game had better get them at once as those remaining are to be sent back to Toronto on Thursday.

J. S. McDonnell, secretary of the Athletic Board of Control, went to Toronto on Sunday for the purpose of arranging matters in connection with the game.

The tickets went on sale on Monday morning and there was quite a rush for them. The prospects are that there will be a big crowd of students going to the game, and take advantage of the $2 rate, which includes a ticket to the game.

How Toronto Will Howl.

Toronto Star: The Hamilton newspapers say that Toronto will root for Queen's against Tigers. Not by a long shot. Toronto fans think 'Varsity were badly out-bucked last Saturday against Queen's and will be sitting up and cheering the ancient enemy against Queen's. Why? That is easy. A Toronto crowd always wants to see champions trounced. That is a characteristic of Toronto sporting crowds frequently remarked by outside visitors.

No Good For Queen's.

Once again the freshman rule was brought up at the Intercollegiate Athletic Union meeting and once again it was dropped because of the strong opposition of Queen's, McGill and U. of T. with their great registration, could well stand it, but it would mean the end of success in senior major sports for Queen's.

At It Again.

Kingston fans are getting accustomed to seeing the Chinese boy-athletes from Peterboro, in competition against Kingston teams. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles De Lannier in the loss of their infant son, Rendie. The remains were taken to Mount Saint Patrick for burial. Mr. Bradley was called from Ottawa on business here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCumber have returned after spending the week in Wagarville. Mrs. Frank Tennison is visiting her parents at Matawatahan. Mr. Tulford, Calabogie, was here on Saturday. L. Pearson, Mrs. H. Sovia, Mr. and Mrs. Ard. Wagar, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wagar spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. S. McMoray. Our teacher, Miss P. A. Lorrain, spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Mount Saint Patrick. Mr. Menett is spending the week-end with his family here and also Mr. Pero.

McGill Took Soccer.

McGill University won the senior intercollegiate association football tournament held at R.M.C. Friday and Saturday. As previously announced, R.M.C. defeated Varsity in the first game 4 to 3 after twenty minutes of overtime and thereby provided a big surprise. On Saturday, McGill defeated R.M.C. 4-0. Seaton, the captain of the Montrealers, sending in three goals in the first half. The McGill men were too experienced for the local cadets, though they put up a great battle. The officials were: Capt. A. S. Lee and E. Warburton, Kingston, and L. Henderson, Montreal.

Four Below in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Nov. 17.—The mercury dropped as low as 4 below zero in Winnipeg Sunday. It was very cold throughout Manitoba, but farther West it continued mild. Beyond the Rockies the weather was balmy, the maximum at Vancouver being 54 degrees above zero.

Edmund Temple, aged twenty-one, son of H. P. Temple, of the Ash-Temple Dental Supplies Company, Ltd., Toronto, was fatally injured on Sunday, and Miss Dorothy White, Jarvis Street, sustained a fractured collar-bone, when an automobile in which they were riding, was struck by another motor car.

SCREEN VERSION OF "THE MAN WHO CAME BACK" AT CAPITOL

William Fox has produced another picture for a notably successful novel and stage play in "The Man Who Came Back" which opens a three-day engagement at the Capitol Theatre starting today. Originally a novel by John Fleming Wilson, "The Man Who Came Back" was dramatized by Jules Eckert Goodman and produced by William A. Brady in 1917. George O'Brien and Dorothy Mackall have the principal parts and are supported by a capable cast including Cyril Chadwick and Ralph Lewis. The story deals with the as-er-do-well son of a New York millionaire who eventually becomes a drellit in Shanghai. His fall and rise, the latter influenced by a woman, make a narrative which offers a wealth of romance and all of the action necessary to a first rate picture.

You must see Alberta Vaughan, Kit Guard, Al Cooke, George O'Hara in the new series "The Go-Getters." The full-of-action, full-of-romance, full-of-thrills, full-of-drama two-ree featurettes that are taking the country by storm! See every one of them every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—don't let a single episode get away from you or you'll be missing the greatest kick of your life.
