Miss Martha Ann Rowsome Dead.
 The death occurred at Athens on Sunday of Miss Martha Ann Row-some, a respected resident of the township of Elizabethtown. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs.
 William Rowsome, New Dublin, and was seventy-seven years of age. She had lived in the vicinity of New Dublin for the greater part of her life.
 She leaves one brother, George Row-

 More than fifty friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Waddell, Hastings, met at their home for the purpose of presenting their youngest daughter, Annie Evelyn, with a shower previous to her marriage. The gifts were numerous as well as beautiful and very useful.

Gift For A Retiring Member.

 inspector of provincial police and the staff of the headquarters of the

May Have Old Home Week.
 Plans for holding an Old Home week in Prescott during the summer of 1925 were discussed at the Board of Trade and a committee was appointed to wait on the council in order to get the opinion of the citizens of the town generally regarding the Old Home Week.

A Reception Held.
 On the return of Mr. and Mrs.
 Floyd Martin from their trip to Toronto and western points, a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. McGill, Centreville, about thirty of the immediate friends and relatives being present.
 The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, as was also the tea table. The esteem in which the bride and groom are held was attested by many beautiful presents given them. On the Friday previous to the wedding, a number of the prospective bride's younger friends met at her home and presented her with a great variety of beautiful and useful articles of linen.

Police Troubles Aired.
 By a vote of 5 to 3, the Perth council rejected the recommendation of the police committee that James J. Kane, night patrolman, be dismissed because of a charge brought against him by E. Quartermain of having used bad language on duty on Oct. 23rd. Kane has been under suspension since that time. Following the vote, Allan Grant resigned as a member of the council.

Run Down By Cows.
 Mrs. Arthur J. Hawthorne, Beach-burg, was admitted to the Pembroke Hospital in a badly bruised condition following an accident at her farm. Mrs. Hawthorne accompanied her husband into the field to bring home the cows, and went ahead to open the gate to let the herd through. Stamped by the barking of a dog, the cattle rushed the gate, knocking Mrs. Hawthorne down and trampled on her.

Late Mrs. James Dunley.

 stroke. Six children are left: Three sons, John, Detroit; William, Hastings; and Daniel at home; and three daughters, Elizabeth and Mary at home, and Mrs. James Perrault, Hastings.

Had A Neat Surplus.
 At a meeting of the directors of the Arnprior Agricultural Society the treasurer's report showed that the exhibition realized $1,700 over all disbursements. President J. H.
 Findlay advocated the erection of a new cattle building, believing that if this were done there would be many entries from large cattle breeders throughout the Ottawa Valley. Mr. Findlay stated that the mortgage against the property was now only $2,500.

Passing of Norman Cuthbertson.

 monton through the collapse of a tractor he was raising preparatory to an extension of the building. His wife and youngest daughter, Vera, were visiting in Renfrew at the time, having arrived only a short while before, and when word of the accident came they lost no time in enquiring for the west and were your questions?

The young people, in their letters from school, seldom tell you what you really want to know.
 But how different when you call them by Long Distance! Jack says he is all over his cold. Mary is no longer homesick and is perfectly happy.
 The load is lifted from your mind. And how the absent ones do enjoy hearing the familiar voice!
 No matter how gloomy the weather, a talk with the young people by Long Distance will always bring sunshine into their day as well as yours.
