POOR RELIEF ANNUAL

Preparing for Winter's Work—Report of Mrs. John Wright, President.

The annual meeting of the Kingston Poor Relief Association was held on Monday afternoon in the City Council chamber. On account of the illness and unavoidable absence of Mayor Angrove, Dr. W. W. Sands kindly consented to act as chairman. Miss Machar, secretary, was absent through illness and the secretary's report was not presented on that account though the ground was covered by other reports.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by the Rev. W. E. Kidd, M.C. Mrs. Corbett, the treasurer, presented a report showing that there had been $93.28 received and $646.83 expended with the small balance on hand of $46.25. The report was received and adopted. Mrs. Vanluven reported for the King's Daughters, outlining the charitable work done by that organization during the past year. Professor McIntosh, of Queen's, explained to the meeting the scope and workings of the Mothers' Allowance Board, telling where its provisions applied and the conditions required.

H. C. Nickle, when called upon, mentioned his transfer to another sphere of work as chairman of the Board of Directors of the Kingston General Hospital. He praised the work of that institution and told of the many fine additions made recently and urged its general support. He particularly asked that everything possible be done to have citizens take advantage of the splendid new Isolation Hospital which had been described as a model to look up to by the Minister of Health for Ontario.

Dr. Sands followed Mr. Nickle on that subject and quoted cases where Kingston had suffered serious epidemics from neglect of families to report or even properly care for contagious diseases.

Major Allan Stroud, Ontario Government Employment superintendent for Kingston, outlined the situation as he expected it for the coming winter and told the association what might be expected along that line.

Rev. Mr. Black, children's aid society representative, gave several aspects of his work which dovetail with that of the Poor Relief and thanked them for co-operation. Mrs. Vanluven proposed the adoption of the following executive committee for 1924-25 and it was accepted: Mrs. Oberndorfer, Miss Machar, Miss Strange, Mrs. J. Wright, Miss Lewis, Miss Richmond, Mrs. W. H. Gimblett, Mrs. S. S. Corbett, Miss B. Jack, Mrs. F. R. Robinson, Mrs. Joseph Elliott, Mrs. Fairlie, Mrs. L. C. Lockett, Mrs. Eason, Mrs. F. Reid, Mrs. H. F. Richardson, Mrs. S. H. Simpson, Mrs. E. D. Vanluven, Mrs. DuMoulin, Mrs. Revelle, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. King, Mrs. Boshier, Mrs. A. K. Williams, Mrs. William Jackson, Miss Oberndorfer, Miss Neish, Miss Leeder, Red Cross representative, King's Daughters "Lend-a-hand" representative.

The report of the president, Mrs. John Wright, was as follows: It is with pleasure that we report a larger attendance and increased interest in our meetings. During the year the committee members have been unfailing—always ready, day or night, when asked to visit.

We have lost two members by death, one through illness and two by removal from the city and we still cherish the memory of their work. Seventeen meetings were held with an average attendance of fourteen. There were 121 families who received assistance, fifty-six from lack of work, seventeen through sickness, sixteen ex-soldiers without pension or one so small that extra assistance was deemed advisable, thirteen widows, one unmarried mother, three quarantine cases, one where the man was in goal, two aged unable to work and twelve deserted wives.

I would draw attention to the fact that wife desertion seems to be on the increase and frequently when the deserter has been located by the police, the necessary funds were not available to bring him back; but now under the Deserted Wives and Children's Act, provision is made for the payment of the expense incurred in serving a warrant or a summons out of legislative appropriation.

A problem that gives considerable trouble is the persons begging (or making a pretence of selling articles) from door to door with a hard luck story. If the kind-hearted citizens who respond to these appeals, would take the name and address of such persons and ask for information, they would find that in most cases, that relief had already been given from public funds, and that begging was found easier and more lucrative than work. From years of experience, we find that those most deserving are loath to ask or accept help.

We appreciate very much the co-operation of the churches and societies doing relief work, as overlapping is thus prevented. Our method of finding employment for women and girls has met with much approval and that department has grown considerably during the past year.

New and second-hand clothing, boots, shoes, rubbers, stockings, bedding, furniture, fruit and delicacies have been received and distributed. Cooking and sewing has been taught and instructions in making our garments has been given to those willing to learn. We regret that our "community sewing machines" are disabled and beyond repair so their day of service is over.

We desire to thank his Worship Mayor Angrove for his continued sympathy and substantial help. The aldermen for their annual grant to Poor Relief and the appropriation for special relief. We sincerely thank Mr. H. C. Nickle for his time and counsel so freely given. Chief Robinson for his advice and help when needed. Mr. Stroud, of the Government Employment Bureau. Alderman Sergeant and Mr. L. T. Best for medicine for sick people, the G. W. V. A. for their liberal grant and co-operation, the Kiwanis Club for their Community Christmas tree, and the King's Daughters for their supper for poor children. We also extend our heartfelt thanks to the British Whig and Daily Standard for their kindness to us, which is much appreciated.

This year is closing and another opening with the portent of more relief to be given—Sir Alexander Macphail says: "The modern hobby is dodging work and organized charities and hospitals defend men from the results of their own folly"—this committee is agreed that it is better to provide work than to give charity.
