 a further indeterminate sentence sentence and the charge against Manfred Martin was dismissed.

The Value of Cattle.
 Some idea of the value placed upon horses and cattle by the U. E. settlers of the Quinte district may be gained from the fact that Dr.
 Carniff states that a Mr. Dempsey drove from a point one hundred miles away, some cattle in the year 1789 to Ameliasburg township. He was offered two hundred acres of land for a yoke of four-year-old steers which he refused. At another time he was offered one hundred acres for a cow. In those days cattle were considered of far more value to the early settlers than land, of which they had more than they could get cleared.

 Mrs. Dan Patterson, Smith's Falls, was fireman on the steamer Niko, which foundered in Lake Huron, en route from Chicago to Manistique towing a barge of lumber. During a heavy gale the Niko took refuge in the shelter of an island. She broke loose from her moorings and striking a reef went to the bottom.
 The crew of twenty-four managed to make their way to the top of the pilot house which remained out of water and thence to proceed on a raft when daylight came to the barge which remained secure. A sail was then rigged on the barge and Beaver Island was reached. Patterson lost all his belongings but was glad to escape with his life.
