"THE MIKADO"

Under the Direction of Joseph Andre.

(By arrangement with the Owner of the Composer Copyright)

The Kiwanis Club are making great preparations for the production of the Mikado on Nov. 24th, 25th and 26th. It will be entirely by local talent and under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency, Lord Byng, governor-general of Canada; Mrs. Cockshutt, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, premier of Ontario, and Mrs. Ferguson; Hon. Arthur Meighen, General Sir Archibald Macdonell, R.M.C., and Lady Macdonell; General Arthur E. Ross, M.P., and Mrs. Ross; General J. H. Elmsley, general officer commanding, and Mrs. Elmsley; Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general, and Mrs. Nickle; Hon. Lincoln Goldie, provincial secretary, and Mrs. Goldie; Principal Bruce Taylor, of Queen's University. The support of these distinguished gentlemen and their wives was secured through their interest in the great growing work of Kiwanis.

The proceeds of "The Mikado" will be devoted to the charity and welfare fund of the local Kiwanis Club, most of it for work among under privileged boys and the Boys' Farm, which is now being established by the Ontario Government.
