"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
 Leon W. Washburn's elaborate revival of the production of the original Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company, the one that never disappoints, the one that never misrepresents, the one that sends you home feeling satisfied you have received full value for your money when they say "Good Night," is announced as the attraction at the Grand Opera House for two days, with daily matinees, commencing Friday, Nov. 28th. This production is said to be the most satisfactory and elaborately staged representation of the late Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal masterpiece ever presented for public approval.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is an established American institution and will live for ever. Every ten years a new generation of theatregoers arise to greet it. The lines have not changed and it is played almost precisely as it was fifty years ago. The "Tom-mers," as these particular performers are known in the profession, come down in families.

Probably the secret of the long life of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is that it is an almost perfect melodrama with thrills, humor and pathos and climaxes distributed with faultless technique; besides it has what other dramas lack, the picturesque and historic background of one of the great chapters in the life of the United States.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. G. A. Holland.
 A sad death occurred on Monday, Nov. 17th, at the family residence, 40 L. Rideau street, when Emily Clarke, wife of George A. Holland, passed away. Deceased had been in poor health for some time, but up till ten weeks ago had been able to go about the house. She was a patient sufferer, never complaining, and although everything was done that loving hands could do, she passed peacefully away. Deceased was a faithful member of Queen street Methodist church, always attending while health permitted. The sad news came as a shock to her many friends, and their sympathy is extended to the family in their sorrow. There are left to mourn their loss, her husband, two daughters, Mrs. H. N. Sturges, and Mrs. H. W. Allen; one brother, Frederick, all of this city, and one sister, Mrs. T. McAuley, of Toronto.

The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at Cataragui cemetery, Rev. W. H. Raney conducting the funeral services. It might be recalled that the sad news was received in the city on Thursday of the death of Mrs. T. McAuley, of Toronto, two sisters passing away within one week.

The pall bearers were: James McCulla, John Blaney, J. Irwin, A. Mayhew, Alex. Potter, Sr., and William Allen. The floral offerings included: Pillow, family; wreaths, employees of A. Davis & Sons, McAuley family; basket, Mr. and Mrs. A. Potter, Sr.; sprays, baby Audrey Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Payne, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McQuaid, Mr. and Mrs. T. Funnell, Mr. and Mrs. John Blaney, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. James Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sillimons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke, Mr. Bennett and family, Mrs. Mitchell and family, W. J. Allen and family, Queen street church choir, Herbert Sturges, Jr., Beatrice, Charles and Ronald Sturges, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brown, Toronto, Mr. T. McAuley, Toronto; Orme Davies.

SPORT

About $7,250 for Queen's.
 The paid attendance at the Queen's-Tigers game in Toronto on Saturday afternoon was $17,648 and it is understood that after all expenses are paid Queen's Athletic Board of Control will benefit to the extent of $7,250.

INTERMEDIATE FINALS ARE BOOKED FOR KINGSTON
 The Canadian Rugby Union has ordered Queen's Intermediate Rugby team champions of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union to meet Canadian Nationals, of Montreal, winners of the Quebec Union, in a sudden-death game at the George Richardson Memorial stadium on Saturday next to declare the Eastern winner. If Queen's win this game a sudden death one will be staged at Kingston on Saturday, Dec. 6th, when Sarnia, the western winners, will come here. The Montreal team is a strong aggregation and is coached by "Chicks" Mundell.

Rugby at R.M.C.
 One of the most exciting games of rugby on record was staged at the Royal Military College on Saturday afternoon when the annual inter-company rugby event was pulled off. (From the first blow of the whistle to the finish the members of both teams gave the best they had, and if they had been able to stage such an exhibition in the intercollegiate games they certainly would not have been eliminated. The final score was 18 to 5 in favor of "B" company against "A.")

CLAIMED WOMAN TRIED

"FEET OF CLAY"
 DEMILLE FILM

"Feet of Clay," Cecil B. De Mille's latest production for Paramount, which features Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Eason, opens a three days' run at the Capitol Theatre to-day. The story is an adaptation of the immensely popular magazine serial by that name by Margareta Zetula.

Traveling in its locale between a brilliant winter resort, a poor Harlem flat and a gorgeous eye-filling home of wealth, "Feet of Clay" is one of the most entertaining productions DeMille has ever offered the picture public.

The story starts with a yachting party at Catalina Island. All sorts of beach novelties are worked into a series of colorful scenes which in costume combine bathing suits on love-y girls with the latest, summer creations of the modiste and the tailor. The eye-filling piece de resistance is a race between twenty girls in jockey bathing suits on surfboards behind fast speedboats.

Capping the beach scenes is a luxurious sequence aboard the world's largest yacht. It is amidst the spacious comfort of this three-hundred-foot pleasure craft that dramatic scenes occur.

To The Electors:
 LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—
 As a very large number of citizens have come forward, saying that they were satisfied with my services, as Mayor, and having urged me to offer my services again, I have acceded to their request and solicit your votes and influence to elect me again for the year 1925.

"DANGEROUS MONEY"
 AT THE STRAND

A thrilling story of modern life that sweeps you from New York's gay white way to the exotic southland in all its romantic glamour. Such is "Dangerous Money" with Bob Daniels and Tom Moore in the leading roles. It offers most unusual entertainment.

WANT NIGHT GUN TO BE CONTINUED

There has been such dismay among the citizens of Kingston and the people living in the district at the news that the 9.30 p.m. gun would not be fired from Fort Henry after November 30th, that it is understood the matter will be taken up with the federal government at Ottawa with the object of having this time-honored custom continued.

The cost of the evening gun-fire amounts to $36 a year.

Trial Nears End.
 Toronto, Nov. 24.—There will be one more witness for the crown in the trial of J. F. M. Stewart, Home Bank director. It is probable that the trial will be concluded to-morrow.

At the opening of the session to-morrow Judge Coatsworth will give his judgment in the case of C. A. Barnard, another director, whose trial was completed a couple of weeks ago.

Fort William Population.
 Fort William, Nov. 24.—The assessment commissioner's statistics of the population of Fort William made public Saturday, show that the population is now 22,220, an increase of 1,267 over that of last year. Forty-four nationalities appear on the roll.

Mikado To-night.
 Don't miss seeing this great show, all by local talent and the proceeds for Kiwanis welfare work. Come to-night and see the specialties, lots of seats still available.

PROVINCE DEFICIT GREATLY REDUCED

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Hon. W. H. Price, provincial treasurer, announced that the provincial deficit of fifteen millions has been reduced to eight and a half millions.

Late Ernest Stewart.
 Ernest Stewart, a well-known resident of the city, died very suddenly on Sunday night. In company with Mrs. Stewart he had partaken of a light meal at a restaurant and afterwards went to visit a friend on Wellington street. Mr. Stewart was sitting with his friends and his wife talking. He was smoking at the time and suddenly, without warning, dropped to the floor. Dr. Quigley was called and said that death had been practically instantaneous from heart trouble. The remains were removed to his late residence, 263 King street, and the funeral, in charge of John Cornelius, will take place from there Tuesday afternoon to Cataragui cemetery. The funeral will be of a military nature. Surviving are his widow and one sister.

Late Mrs. Joseph McConville.
 Mrs. Joseph McConville, formerly of Kingston, died in Toronto on Sunday. The remains will arrive in Kingston via C.N.R. at 1.20 on Tuesday afternoon and the funeral will take place to Cataragui cemetery. Rev. Mr. Bail will officiate.

Late Mrs. Jennie Bushell.
 Mrs. Jennie Bushell, for over twenty years a trusted employee of the George Mills Company, died suddenly on Saturday afternoon while on her way home from work. Mrs. Bushell had left the Mills store and appeared to be in good health and spirits. She went to McIntosh's store on the corner of Princess and Wellington street and while there was taken ill. She was rushed to her home and medical attention given but passed away about five o'clock. The late Mrs. Bushell was the widow of W. J. Bushell and before her marriage was Miss Jennie Newlands. One daughter, Miss Lois, survives. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning from her late residence, 167 Nelson street, to Cataragui cemetery in charge of James Reid. Rev. J. W. Stephen will conduct the last services. The George Mills store will be closed Tuesday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock out of respect to the late esteemed member of the staff.
