Interesting Events in Classic Village-Enjoyable Functions.

Athens, Nov. 24 .- The 24 "At Home" of Rising Sun Lodge A.F. & A.M. will long be remembered as the occasion upon which the first public radio concert was ever staged in Athens, although several individuals here have installed an apparatus in their homes, and have given pleasure to many Athenians in a more private form of entertainment. The Mason fraternity on the evening of the 18th inst., were hosts, entertaining their lady friends, and a few other visitors from town and outlying points, giving all a royal good time, and making the event a memorable one. A Toronto firm furnished the radio programme, which was broadcasted from Schenectady and other stations. From ten to eleven supper was served by the gentlemen and both cuisine and service left nothing to be desired. The tables being removed dancing was indulged in, the fine orchestra in attendance delighting not only those engaged in tripping the "light fantastic," but the spectators whom sitting-out places had provided. The local organization to be congratulated upon the success of their enterprise.

Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church was another pleasant function of last week, being held on the 20th of the Second Presbyterian church of inst., in Joseph Thompson's ware- Wilkinsburg. house, kindly placed at their disposal for the occasion. Willing hands soon had the walls hung with cotton, and with gaily decorated booths erected for the various wares, the flags, bunting, foliage, flowers et al. There surely was a marvellous couple of hours. The aprons, homecooking, candy, fancy work and novelty booths all did a thriving business, while the fish pond was of never failing interest to the juveniles. The tea room was a fascinat- 7.05 p.m .- Bedtime story for the ing spot, and was liberally patroniz- kiddies. ed from three to seven, and the delectable menu was appetizing and satisfying. When the returns were tabulated a substantial sum was realized as a result of the day's act-pleasant "Indian Summer frolic" was enjoyed by members of the Pansy Mission Band from four until dusk on Friday, the 21st inst., under the supervision of their president, Mrs. George F. Gainford, and the W.M.S. president, Mrs. William G. Towriss. Games were indulged in on the green, including soft ball in which all participated, and an egghunt which resulted in a hilarious good time. Sandwiches and cake were welcomed by the kiddies, whose appetites were whetted by such vigorous exercise.

Perchance the annual commencement has played no small part in maintaining the wonderful esprit de corps among students; past and present, of the Athens high school, but certain it is that for many years the red letter day par excellence in the students' calendar has been the Commencement which this year equalled (if not surpassed) any held formerly. Willing workers, with aesthetic taste, had decorated the auditorium of the town hall with festoons and huge bow-knots of the beloved colors, "the lemon and the blue," while on either side cital. of the stage was an immense blue shield bearing thise imagic letters A. H. S. done in yellow.

The popularity of the event was attested by the fact that there was a capacity house, and many disappointed ones were necessarily reof fused admission. The drills were particularly good girls wearing the school colors, another drill contained twelve girls in Indian costumes. These were later foined by another purporting to be an Indian mother singing to her papoose a pretty lullaby song. The boys' athletic drill participated in by the students of various sizes was indeed a revelation, and would have done credit to acrobats. Miss Muriel Gibson gave a pa thetic reading, reminiscent of war time, which was well received and added variety to the programme. A comedy, "ICI on Parle Français," playing about thirty minites, was full of rapid action for the seven characters and kept the audience in good humor throughout. There were many trying situations, occasioned by the resolve of Mr. Spriggins to augment his bank account by letting apartments to transients. Unfortunate occurrences are forgotten at the finish, when everything turns out just as it should. That excellent work been done by the students during the past year was evidenced by the diplomas, scholarships, prizes, and medals citizens of Port Dalhousie was openawarded.
