SECOND PRESENTATION OF "THE MIKADO" There Was a Capacity House at the Grand on Tuesday Night.

The Grand Opera House had capacity occupation last night for the second presentation of "The Mikado" under the auspices of the Kingston Kiwanis Club and none went away disappointed.

It was not perfect but it is the best presentation of this famous Gilbert and Sullivan piece which has been done here outside the incomparable production of De Wolfe Hopper. Some of the major parts lacked the finish of professionals—the timing was a little too fast in places—but the enthusiasm put into the minor parts more than counterbalanced this, and the experienced Charles Gates, as Ko-Ko, wisely concentrated on clearness of enunciation to put over his part and did it to perfection.

The side-boxes were bedecked in the beloved red, yellow and blue of Queen's and the leading ladies of the company carried Queen's ribbons in the different scenes. Coach W. P. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes, Assistant Coach Badgley and members of the Queen's senior and intermediate teams occupied the lower boxes.

There was not a hitch, and the only accident was one which helped to put the show over when the tall and handsome Nanki-poo, played by Harold Singleton, demonstrated the Occidental method in handling his Oriental sweetheart, Yum-Yum, played by Miss Marion Bruton, and the dainty little slipper went clattering to the floor while the young lady was being kissed in midair.

Both players showed the poise of professionals and continued their song with a smile amid the applause and laughter of the audience.

A. J. Woodthorpe made an admirable Pooch-bah. His acting stood out and his tall erect figure lent the proper setting necessary for all those great state officers which he exercised "for a consideration."

should be the best of the four. Any one of the following solos and choruses is worth going a long way to hear: "A Wandering Minstrel," by Nanki-poo; "Our Great Mikado," by Pish-tush; "Behold the Lord High Executioner," by Ko-Ko and company; "Three Little Maids From School"; "To Sit in Solemn Silence"; "The Moon and I"; "Sing a Merry Madrigal"; "Here's a How-de-do"; "The Criminal Crisp"; "A is Happy, B is Not"; "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring"; "Willow 'Til-Willow"; "There is Beauty in the Bellows of the Blast."

ROBBED AND BEATEN BY ARMED THUGS Dr. Arthur Lipman was the Victim of a Hold-up in Toronto.

Dr. Arthur Lipman, a druggist of Bay and Gerrard street, Toronto, and a son of Mr. B. Lipman, Brock street, was attacked, robbed and beaten by three armed thugs on Saturday night at 11.45 in his store. The thieves stole $272 in bills from Dr. Lipman's pocket, and made their escape without detection. Dr. Lipman, though, with his hands and feet tied by light telephone wire, managed to make his way to the street and called for help.

The three men entered the store while Dr. Lipman was alone and preparing to close the store. As he stepped to the counter, one of the men put a revolver to his chest, while another struck him over the head. He was then bound with the wire, and a diamond pin and Masonic ring and the money stolen. On raising his head, Dr. Lipman was kicked by one of the thugs.

After working his feet out of the wire, Dr. Lipman got to the street, notified William Edwards, 345 Victoria street, who was passing, and Constable Crowley was called. A good description of the hold-up men was given to the police.

Mr. Barnett Lipman received a telegram from Toronto on Wednesday morning which stated that his son's condition was somewhat improved. He is being cared for at his home in Toronto.

Increase the Bounty. Mr. Elmer Davis returned from a deer-hunting trip, said his party had
