FIVE FASHION FEATURES IN FIFTY NIFTY FABRICS OVERCOATS

Just the type of Coat you've had in mind may not be among these five super-fine models, that doesn't mean that it isn't in this stock—everything desirable is.

The above five styles, however, are fashion fabrics for winter. That is why we have put such extraordinary effort back of them in variety and in value.

The race for municipal honors is now on in earnest. The time for the filing of qualification papers expired at 9 o'clock on Tuesday night, and there was the usual stir around the office of the city clerk, Dr. W. W. Sands.

There will be a contest for the mayor's chair between Thomas B. Angrove and Dr. C. C. Nash, and also one for the two vacancies on the public utilities commission.

The candidates for the commission are J. M. Campbell and H. C. Nickle and R. N. F. MacFarlane. James Halliday, the veteran reeve of Portsmouth, was nominated as a commissioner, but he dropped out of the running.

There will be a great race for aldermanic honors. There were acclamations in two of the wards—Ontario and Sydenham, but in the other five wards there promises to be a battle royal. There has been a good deal of talk about there being no interest in municipal affairs, but the crop of candidates for seats around the horseshoe shows that some "pep" is being put into the campaign, and the situation is best sized up by the comment of an old-timer in civic elections, who remarked Tuesday night, "the more the merrier."

A Lively Contest.
There are no less than seven candidates running in Victoria ward, six in Frontenac ward, five in both Rideau and Cataragui ward, and four in Frontenac, so this goes to show that there is still some fighting spirit left in the municipal elections here.

Five of the present aldermen have been given an acclamation, namely T. A. Kidd, F. J. O'Connor, George Boyd, J. E. Johnston and R. E. Kent.

Thirteen of the present members of council are in the running again for re-election.

In Sydenham ward, Ald. Kidd and Ald. F. J. O'Connor have been elected by acclamation. Ald. H. F. Richardson retires in this ward, and his place is taken by W. H. Craig, who served in the council a few years ago. In Ontario ward, three of the present members of council have been returned by acclamation, Ald. Boyd, Ald. J. E. Johnston and Ald. Kent, the latter the dean of the council, who has served for over a quarter of a century.

In St. Lawrence ward, three of the present members of the council are running, Ald. Price, Ald. William P. Peters and Ald. Harvey Milne. Joseph Nash dropped into this contest and threw the wrench into an acclamation for the old-timers.

Ald. Driscoll and Ald. Godwin are the present members seeking re-election in Cataragui ward. There are three newcomers seeking honors in this ward, Ambrose Shea, Herbert Fowler and John Fife Johnston.

Three of the old members of the council are out for re-election in Frontenac ward—Aids, William Holder, Howard Kelly and George Joyce. The others in the race are James Wriley Smith, who served in the council a few years ago, E. J. Dumphy and C. L. Hebert. The latter is this year retiring from the Board of Education.

George Laturney and J. B. Holder, present members of the council, are out for re-election in Rideau ward, while the "new blood" consists of George A. Payne, William Peters and Charles Henry Reed.

"We are seven," introduces the candidates in Victoria ward, and out of the seven in the running, three are at present in the council, Ald. Percy B. Chown, Ald. William McCartney and Ald. T. H. Sargent. William James Gates, William James Lee, Prof. John Macgillivray and Charles Henry Wood are the new men in this field.

School Trustees.
H. D. Wightman, who has received an acclamation as school trustee in Sydenham ward, is at present a member of the board, also Mrs. Sarah E. Revelle, who received an acclamation in Ontario ward. L. T. Best, an acclamation in St. Lawrence ward, and Mrs. Etta Newlands, an acclamation in Rideau ward. Prof. J. F. Macdonald and Thomas W. Mills were elected by acclamation in Victoria ward. Two members were to be elected in this ward to fill the unexpired term of Dr. H. A. Stewart, who recently resigned. Prof. Macdonald has already a number of years' service to his credit on the board. He served as chairman of the management committee.

Mrs. Mary M. Godwin, at present on the board, will contest Cataragui ward with William White, and Dr. H. E. Day and H. F. Norman, a former member of the board, will contest Frontenac ward.

In the contest for the utilities commission, two of the present members, R. N. F. MacFarlane and H. C. Nickle, are again in the field, with J. M. Campbell as the other candidate. James Halliday was nominated but decided not to enter the race.
