Passed Away at Rochester, N.Y.
 The death is reported from Rochester, N.Y., of John Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fox, Deseronto.
 Just a few days ago the serious illness of the late Mr. Fox was reported and his father and sister, Nora, left to be with him. His death is a heavy blow to Deseronto, where he was known by a wide circle of friends. Particularly heart-rending is the affliction which this family has suffered, as the deceased is the third son to die within two years, and all the deaths have occurred in Rochester, N.Y.

Late Captain W. J. Boyd.
 The death of William James Boyd occurred at the home of his father, Andrew Boyd, Smith's Falls, on Sunday, after an illness extending over a period of three years. He graduated at Toronto, was in the Yukon, and went to the war as captain of the 16th Battery. He was twice wounded and was invalided home. In 1916 he married Miss Eleda Singleton, a Smith's Falls teacher. After the Armistice, he went to British Columbia, returning two years ago. He was a Mason, a Presbyterian and promi-nently connected with the G.W.V.A. and was one of the founders of that club in Smith's Falls. A widow and son survive.

When the winemakers of Ontario are allowed under the O.T.A. to produce 26-per cent. stuff, the wine drinkers have no ground for protest.

They are very much up-to-date in Pictou where there is a Jane street.
 In Kingston the janes live on nearly every street, even on University avenue.

In the town of Gananoque the golf ladies are not backward about admitting their age and entering competitions for those over the age of thirty. In Kingston none of the lady golfers admit being over thirty.

Well, the official season of church sales and teas is about over. Now the merchants will have their chance to sell something.

The majority contest in Kingston is between Methodists and that for utilities commission seats among Presbyterians. The utilities candidates go to the Scotch kirk up on Princess street.

Just because the Grits knocked the spots off the Tories up in West Hastings is no reason for supposing that Balmie Beaches can lick Queen's rugby champions.

It must be admitted that the directors of the Ontario fair associations should be given the same right to hold games of chance at their fall exhibitions as the churches are at their money-making sales. The same people attend the events. A fall fair does not seem to be a fair without games of chance. The old-timers mourn the passing of the shell men.

Banking is beginning to lose its fascination for many young men who see little in it for them. And with the late mergers the way will be wary for hundreds already engaged behind the counters and cages.

The Watchman, has little sympathy for those who complain that their names are not on the voters' lists. If they would pay heed to public notices given they would get their names on, but the tendency is to let things go until it is too late.

There are many people too who pay no heed to assessment notices delivered at their homes. When they find they are wrongly assessed, they raise a great holler, but not until it is too late to appeal as required by law.

Now we hear about the "black horror on the Rhine"—the alleged ill-treatment of German women by France's black colonial troops. All red-blooded Anglo-Saxons will sympathize and also wonder if the Germans have forgotten how their best-born sons treated the women of France early in the great war.

It is declared by our friend Dr.
 Edwards that the Liberals have no policy. We are sure of one thing—they certainly have no heart or they would have left West Hastings alone and not hurt the feelings of their Tory friends as they have done.
