Miss Alice Code, the next witness, Cross-examined by Mr. Herring- told of having lived with the Snider family for, twenty-five years, and she had been assistant switchboard operator. She told of looking out the door a short time before the shooting is alleged to have taken place, but could not see anything, and said if was too early for the boys to come around. After that she went into the office where the switch-board is located. The next thing she heard was when the alarm was given that a boy was shot, Miss Code stated that a few minutes later a man by the name of George Burnett came into the office and asked if Urban was there and he said something to Urban. There was then a call for the Chief of Police of Napanee, and she turned around and told Urban about the call going in. She stated that she told Urban about the Chief of Police coming and he said that he had not done anything. He said that he did not stated that Urban had two revolvers that she knew of and they were in she also said she saw some cart-

> Cross-examined, witness said that the water-closet which was upset on the night in question, was seventy paces from the house. She said that the boys of the village were always tormenting Urban, and they had broken a glass in the store, and Urban had on several occasions phoned in to them to come and help him at the store, as the boys were tormenting him. She stated that the lantern at the kitchen door had a smoky chimney and she could not distinguish anything in the yard She also said that the boys had never come to the side door before for treats. life, and she had known him for twenty-five years. Miss Code said that she had never known him to wilfully injure anyone, and he was very affectionate.

In Serious Condition, Dr. Munroe, who attended Percy Clarke, after he was shot, said that when he was brought to his office he was in a dying condition, and he called an ambulance and had him taken to Kingston. He said the bullet had entered between the first and second ribs on the right hand side, and was found between the fourth and fifth ribs in the rear The bullet had evidently travelled at an angle of forty-five degrees. An envelope containing the bullet was handed the doctor, and he recognized it as the one which had been smokes. Snider stated that he did taken from Clarke's body. He statnot see or hear any persons about ed that it was a thirty-eight calibre bullet, and he was with the Chief of Police when they tried it in Snider's revolver, and it fitted perfectly. The doctor stated that the platform was three foot seven inches from the ground. Mr. Herrington said that he had no questions.
